Docu-Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova, 2019-05-01 Historical writing and fiction are not the same thing though historians often creatively manipulate material in imposing plot structures selecting starting and ending points and fashioning compelling literary characters from historical figures In Docu Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova argues that the opposite is also true war fiction offers a kind of history that both documents its subjects and provides a snapshot of the cultural representation of the United States most recent military involvements She covers a largely neglected body of cinematic and literary texts about the First Gulf War the Balkan War the Afghanistan War and the Iraq War to open a fresh analysis of cultural texts on war Prorokova contends that these texts are not pure fiction but docu fictions works of imagination that can document their subjects while disclosing the social political and historical link between war and culture during the last three decades Docu Fictions of War analyzes how these representational narratives have highlighted a humanitarian rationale behind American involvement in each war whether the stated goals were to free the oppressed from tyranny stop genocide or rid the world of terrorism The book explores the gap between history what allegedly happened and the cultural mythology that is both true and inexact tangible and sensed recognized and undocumented A Companion to Werner Herzog Brad Prager, 2012-05-21 A Companion to Werner Herzog showcases over two dozen original scholarly essays examining nearly five decades of filmmaking by one of the most acclaimed and innovative figures in world cinema First collection in twenty years dedicated to examining Herzog's expansive career Features essays by international scholars and

Film Pilot Jerry Grayson, 2017-03-01 When Jerry Grayson left the Royal Navy's Search and Rescue helicopter fleet aged 25 he was the most decorated peacetime naval pilot in history In terms of excitement however civilian life couldn't compete especially when the only real demand for helicopter pilots was as glorified chauffeurs for the very wealthy Jerry had a passion for the movies and spotted a way in to a new career Somebody had to fly those crazy acrobatic stunts and capture dramatic aerial footage and he reckoned he could do it better push his helicopter further and guarantee the most exciting shots which other pilots might have considered impossible And he was right Over the past 35 years Jerry has become the go-to man for aerial filmmaking shooting everything from music videos car commercials and nature documentaries to the Athens Olympic Games and the landing of the Space Shuttle Atlantis But it is in Hollywood that Jerry has really made his mark He was barely out of his 20s when he worked on the airborne finale to the James Bond film A View to a Kill and that helped cement his reputation for the decades since Film Pilot Flying the Lens is full of entertaining behind-the-scenes stories some that almost ended in disaster for Jerry and an A-list actor or two and revelatory insights into just how this invisible sector of the film business operates We all take aerial footage for granted without appreciating the lengths gone to shoot it This is perhaps never more apparent than when Jerry's skills are called upon to gather more important footage the burning oilfields of Kuwait following the first Gulf War and flooded New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina
