Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God s work and 5 God s identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar, 2021-02-23 In The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar argues that the church is defined by its relationship with others A relational church depends on the porousness of its borders which means that while a church has its distinctiveness it ought to be open to negotiate relational engagements with the world around it This sort of relationally distinct permeable church is found to be possible through the leading of the Spirit and the work of Christ Such engagement is found to be relevant in a plural religio cultural context and in situations of marginalization in India The Spirit Shaped Church reflects an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage the needs of Christian communities around the world The book is aimed at teachers clergy students and anyone with an interest in the lived experience of Christians in India Encounter Between Marxian Philosophy and Theology of Humanisation in India Mervin Shinoj Boas, 2007 Biodiversity Conservation Ethics in Major Religions H. S. A. Yahya, 2010-10 Covering three broader issues biodiversity conservation religious doctrine and environment the book Biodiversity Conservation Ethics in Major Religions is the result of a unique approach It attempts to initiate scientific discourse through the fabric of religions Spread across 15 chapters the book covers the essence of 10 religions on biodiversity encompassing a wide range of issues related to conservation The book promises to be a useful resource for biodiversity students researchers and protected area managers and also for religious scholars who are invited to look at the broader themes of religions beyond theology Knowing Differently G. N. Devy, Geoffrey V. Davis, K. K. Chakravarty, 2015-08-12 This book offers a bold and illuminating account of the worldviews nurtured and sustained by indigenous communities from across continents through their distinctive understanding of concepts such as space time joy pain life and death It demonstrates how this different mode of knowing has brought the indigenous into a cultural conflict with communities that claim to be modern and scientific Bringing together scholars artists and activists engaged in understanding and conserving local knowledge that continues to be in the shadow of cultural extinction the book attempts to interpret repercussions on identity and cultural transformation and points to the tragic fate of knowing the world differently The volume inaugurates a new thematic area in post colonial studies and cultural anthropology by highlighting the perspectives of marginalized indigenous communities often burdened with being viewed as primitive It will be useful to scholars and students of anthropology sociology cultural studies history linguistics literature and tribal studies

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Managing Environmental Justice Dennis Pavlich, 2010 Environmental justice is the subtext of this collection of anxieties around the need for a sustainable future on Planet Earth Thinkers and scholars from a diversity of backgrounds reflect on what it means and how cultures must change to greet this future From Romania to Mexico Bosnia to Canada Sweden to California authors analyze and recount community experiences and expectations leading to justice for land sea air and wildlife The kind of ethical weltanschauung for a society in which this kind of justice is achievable is suggested The collection points to the myriad of single instance decisions that we must all make in living our daily lives whether in our homes workplaces or leisure time From good policies to sound management governments corporations and community based organizations will find prudent praxis from cover to cover Just Stewardship David Michael Wylie, 2010-12-24 Just Stewardship seeks to develop an initiative for reexamining the biblical Christian worldview and rebuilding infrastructure in order to foster a more just and sustainable stewardship of creation Just Stewardship is a 21st century missional response to an unjust and unsustainable use of the Earth with the purpose of better announcing the Kingdom of God Understanding World Christianity Dyron B. Daugherty, Jesudas M. Athyal, 2016-08-01 Each volume of the Understanding World Christianity series analyzes the state of Christianity from six different angles The focus is always Christianity but it is approached in an interdisciplinary manner chronological denominational sociopolitical geographical biographical and theological Short engaging chapters help readers understand the complexity of Christianity in the region and broaden their understanding of the region itself Readers will understand the interplay of Christianity and culture and will see how geography borders economics and other factors influence Christian faith In this exciting volume Dyron B Daugherty and Jesudas M Athyal offer an introduction to Indian Christianity that has been desperately needed by scholars students and interested readers alike Rich in experience and knowledge Daugherty and Athyal introduce readers to the vibrancy of Indian Christianity like no other authors have done before Pañca Mahābhūtas Imti Samuel Longkümer,2009 A Primer in Christian Ethics Luke Bretherton,2023-11-09 How does Christian belief and practice relate to living well amid the difficulties of everyday life and the catastrophes and injustices that afflict so many today In his introduction to Christian ethics Bretherton provides a new constructive framework for addressing this question Connecting the theory and practice of Christian moral thought to contemporary existential concerns this book integrates classic approaches to the pursuit of wisdom with contemporary liberationist and critical voices The relationship between human and nonhuman life provides a central focus to the work foregrounding environmental justice As well as addressing a broad range of ethical questions Bretherton situates moral formation and the pursuit of human and nonhuman flourishing alongside a concern for spirituality pastoral care and political struggles to survive and thrive in the contemporary context Written for those seeking a place to start as well as those seasoned in the field Bretherton s book provides an innovative ethical framework that moves beyond many of the impasses that shape current moral and political debates Indian and Christian Cornelis Bennema,Paul Joshua Bhakiaraj,2011-11-09 Indian and Christian Changing Identities in Modern India is a collection of essays from the 1st SAIACS Consultation that took place during November 2010 at SAIACS Bangalore Who am I is a question that every human needs to ask themselves In this book this question is looked at from a dual perspective Indian and Christian Can one be both Indian and Christian in the modern world Should one have a single identity or can one have multiple identities The book attempts to address these issues with clarity and conviction through sixteen articles covering areas of Biblical Studies Theology Philosophy Religion Culture and Pastoral Theology Psychology Ecotheology and the Practice of Hope Anne Marie Dalton, Henry C. Simmons,2010-09-29 Is there any hope for a more sustainable world Can we reimagine a way of living in which the nonhuman world matters Anne Marie Dalton and Henry C Simmons claim that the ecotheology that arose during the mid twentieth century gives us reason for hope While ecotheologians acknowledge that Christianity played a significant role in creating societies in which the nonhuman world counted for very little these thinkers have refocused religion to include the natural world To borrow philosopher Charles Taylor s concept they have created a new social imaginary reimagining a better world and a different sense of what is and what should be A new mindset is emerging inspired by ecotheological texts and evident in the many diverse movements and activities that operate as if the hope imparted by ecotheology has already been realized While making this powerful argument Dalton and Simmons also provide an essential overview of key ecotheological thinkers and texts Wisdom of the Weak Anthoniraj Thumma,2000 National Council of Churches Review ,2006 Waters of Life and Death Chandran Paul Martin,Sam Peedikayil Mathew,2005 Contributed research papers presented at various seminars Moral Conversion in Scripture, Self, and Society Krijn Pansters,Anton ten Klooster,2024-06-04 Moral Conversion in Scripture Self and Society offers a broad historical theological and philosophical reflection on the phenomenon of moral conversion Examining life changing transformations within trajectories of spiritual and moral growth the contributors to this volume show how individuals move or should move in one way or another away from the pursuit of solipsistic satisfactions through the practice of self awareness and the performance of social attentiveness toward the prioritization of shared values Together they address the difficulty of realizing in selves and societies some sort of definitive moral conversion of final turn toward the truly good Contributors are David Couturier Matthew Dugandzic Erik Eynikel Aaron Gies Patrick Jones Angela Knobel Daniel Lightsey Peter Lovas Giulia Lovison Krijn Pansters Hanna Roose Anton ten Klooster Willem Marie Speelman Mark Therrien Luke Togni Brian Treanor Louke van Wensveen Archibald van Wieringen and Jamie Washam Listen to the Women! Aruna Gnanadason, 2005 Listen to the Women Listen to the Earth appeals for a holistic Christian approach to the stewardship of creation The book seeks common ground between the commitment to social justice within third world liberation theologies and the environmental consciousness characteristic of eco feminist theologies Author Aruna Gnanadason begins her study with concrete examples of the struggles of Indigenous peoples especially women to preserve traditions of prudent care for the earth in opposition to the modern ideal of development prized by multinational corporations neo liberal financial institutions and many national governments The author cites examples of eco systems peoples who challenge the economic doctrines that nature is an object to be exploited and natural resources are commodities to be bartered and proceeds to argue for a global ethic of care for the earth an ethic of resistance that shows appreciation for both social and ecological concerns related to the integrity of God s creation
