François Blondel Anthony Gerbino, 2012-12-06 First director of the Académie royale d'architecture François Blondel established a lasting model for architectural education that helped transform a still largely medieval profession into the one we recognize today Most well known for his 1676 urban plan of Paris Blondel is also celebrated as a mathematician scientist and scholar Few figures are more representative of the close affinity between architecture and the new science of the seventeenth century The first full length study in English to appear on this polymath this book adds to the scholarship on early modern architectural history and particularly on French classicism under Louis XIV and his minister Jean Baptiste Colbert It studies early modern science and technology Baroque court culture and the development of the discipline of architecture François Mansart Lamia Doumato, 1981

Architecture and the Politics of Gender in Early Modern Europe Helen Hills, 2018-05-08 Written by leading scholars in the field the essays in this book address the relationships between gender and the built environment specifically architecture in early modern Europe In recent years scholars have begun to investigate the ways in which architecture plays a part in the construction of gendered identities So far the debates have focused on the built environment of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the neglect of the early modern period This book focuses on early modern Europe a period decisive for our understanding of gender and sexuality Much excellent scholarship has enhanced our understanding of gender division in early modern Europe but often this scholarship considers gender in isolation from other vital factors especially social class Central to the concerns of this book therefore is a consideration of the intersections of gender with social rank Architecture and the Politics of Gender in Early Modern Europe makes a major contribution to the developing analysis of how architecture contributes to the shaping of social relations especially in relation to gender in early modern Europe

Architecture for the Shroud John Beldon Scott, 2003-03 The famed linen cloth preserved in Turin Cathedral has provoked pious devotion scientific scrutiny and morbid curiosity Imprinted with an image many faithful have traditionally believed to be that of the crucified Christ painted in his own blood the Shroud remains an object of intense debate and notoriety yet today In this amply illustrated volume John Beldon Scott traces the history of the unique relic focusing especially on the black marble and gilt bronze structure Guarino Guarini designed to house and exhibit it A key Baroque monument the chapel comprises many unusual architectural features which Scott identifies and explains particularly how the chapel's unprecedented geometry and bizarre imagery convey to the viewer the supernatural powers of the object enshrined there Drawing on early plans and documents he demonstrates how the architect's design mirrors the Shroud's strange history as well as political aspirations of its owners the Dukes of Savoy Exhibiting it ritually the Savoy prized their relic with its godly vestige as a means to link their dynasty with divine purposes Guarini too promoted this end by fashioning an illusionary world and sacred space that positioned the duke visually so that he appeared close to the Shroud during its ceremonial display Finally Scott describes how the additional need for an outdoor stage for the public showing of the relic to the thousands who came to Turin to see it also helped shape the urban plan of the city and its transformation into the Savoyard capital Exploring the mystique of this enigmatic relic and investigating its architectural and urban history for the first time Architecture for the Shroud will appeal to anyone curious about the textile its display and the architectural settings designed to enhance its veneration and boost the political agenda of the ruling family

Architects' Drawings Kendra Schank Smith, 2006-08-11 Sketches from prominent architects drawn from an international selection A unique insight into how architects use sketches to develop and transfer complex concepts into physical form enabling readers to improve the connection between their own ideas and designs Reveals the secrets of the most successful sketching techniques used by architects for today's designers

The Restoration Mind Gerald W. Marshall, 1997-12 Through the inclusion of essays by leading Restoration scholars from around the world this book attempts to fulfill a much needed function for serious students of the period and uses a culture based approach to offer a general theory regarding the Restoration mentality The editor W Gerald Marshall addresses the serious lack of an interdisciplinary culture based study of this important era

Paris Anthony Sutcliffe, 1993-01-01 In this extensively illustrated work one of Paris leading historians links the beauty of the city to its harmonious architecture the product of a powerful tradition of classical design running from the Renaissance through the 20th century

Quid est sacramentum? Walter Melion, Elizabeth Carson Pastan, Lee Palmer Wandel, 2019-10-07 Quid est sacramentum Visual Representation of Sacred Mysteries in Early Modern Europe 1400 1700 investigates how sacred mysteries in Latin sacramenta or mysteria were visualized in a wide range of media including illustrated religious literature such as catechisms prayerbooks meditative treatises and emblem books produced in Italy France and the Low Countries between ca 1500 and 1700 The contributors ask why the mysteries of faith and in particular sacramental mysteries were construed as amenable to processes of representation and figuration and why the resultant images were thought capable of engaging mortal eyes minds and hearts Mysteries by their very nature appeal to the spirit rather than to sense or reason since they operate beyond the limitations of the human faculties and yet the visual and literary arts served as vehicles for the dissemination of these mysteries and for prompting reflection upon them Contributors David Areford AnnMarie Micikas Bridges Mette Birkedal Bruun James Clifton Anna Dlabaková Wim François Robert Kendrick Aiden Kumler Noria Litaker Walter S Melion Lars Cyril Nrgaard Elizabeth Pastan Donna Sadler Alexa Sand Tanya Tiffany Lee Palmer Wandel Geert Warner Bronwen Wilson and Elliott Wise

Architecture, Print Culture and the Public Sphere in Eighteenth-Century France Richard Wittman, 2007 This book focuses on the complex ways in which architectural practice theory patronage and experience became modern with the rise of a mass public and a reconfigured public sphere between the end of the seventeenth century and the French Revolution Presenting a fresh theoretical orientation and a large body of new primary research this book offers a new cultural history of virtually all the major monuments of eighteenth century Parisian architecture with detailed analyses of the public debates that erupted around such Parisian monuments as the east facade of the Louvre the Place Louis XV the Place de la Concorde and the church of Sainte Genevieve the Pantheon Depicting the passage of architecture into a mediatized public culture as a turning point and interrogating it as a symptom of the distinctly modern configuration of individual society and space that emerged during this period this study will interest readers well beyond the discipline of architectural history
