Fred Williams Irena Zdanowicz, Stephen Coppel, Fred Williams, 2003 Fred Williams 1927-82 is a key figure in Australian art of the second half of the twentieth century best known for his paintings of the Australian landscape Printmaking which he took up in London in 1954 was always of central importance in his work and no other Australian artist of comparable stature produced such a large and significant body of prints the vast majority of them etchings From the beginning Williams practice as an etcher closely paralleled his development as a painter and a striking feature of his work is the cross fertilization of ideas and motifs between his painting and his printmaking After five years spent working and studying in London where his subject matter focused on the music hall Williams returned to Australia in late 1956 and realized immediately that he wanted to concentrate on painting the Australian landscape Within months his distinctive vision began to emerge Etching played a primary role in the development of his understanding of the subject imposing the need to simplify and render abstract the motif Williams portrayal of the Australian landscape through a discrete language of marks and new compositional formats profoundly transformed the way in which that landscape is viewed today This catalogue features 76 prints plus 9 gouaches and drawings all but three of which were recently presented to the British Museum by the artist's widow Lyn The exhibition will be the first comprehensive show of Williams etchings to be held in the UK Irena Zdanowicz was Senior Curator of Prints and Drawings at the National Gallery of Victoria Melbourne from 1981 to 2001 Stephen Coppel is an Assistant Keeper in the Department of Prints and Drawings at the British Museum Fred Williams, 1985 Fred Williams Patrick McCaughey, 1983 Fred Williams Fred Williams, 1970 Fred Williams' Pilbara Fred Williams, Anne Gray, 1998 Fred Williams Fred Williams, 1981 CRA's Fred Williams Pilbara Paintings, 1983 Notes for Premier and Minister of the Arts to open CRA Collection of Fred Williams paintings The Pilbara Series at the Art Gallery of South Australia 28 09 1983

Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kühlenbeck, 2010 The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Triad of Being and to bring it into the Triad alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing film art and through lived experience The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic Guy Grey-Smith Life Force Andrew Gaynor, 2012

Guy Grey Smith 1916 1981 remains one of the most important Australian artists of his generation His artwork has been collected by every major public gallery in the country Based in Western Australia Grey Smith exhibited nationally participated in key international exhibitions received Queens Honors Awards and was a spirited contributor and active participant in the national arts scene Granted access for the first time to Guy Grey Smith s notebooks war time sketches correspondence and estate author Andrew Gaynor draws a fascinating portrait of a country boy whose life was first liberated then stalled by the brutality of war Teaching himself to draw while interned in prisoner of war camps Grey Smith went on to create some of the most enduring and powerful images of the Australian landscape redolent with color texture and an unmistakable life force He studied under the modernist sculptor Henry Moore at the Chelsea School of Art London Although primarily a painter Grey Smith also produced sculptures pen and ink drawings etchings and wood blocks This is the first book about this outstanding Australian artist and his remarkable 35 year career Earth to Sky - The Art of Victor Majzner Leigh Astbury,2002 Victor Majzner arrived in Australia in 1959 as a Jewish refugee from Russia His career as a painter accelerated during the 1980s when as a migrant seeking identity he began to travel inland and study the antiquity of the ancient continent as well as forming close bonds with several important Aboriginal artists from the Warmun Community in the Northern Territory His spectacular and unconventional paintings deal with issues of identity and over recent years with his developing sense of his Jewish heritage Some paintings more surreal than his Australian landscapes emerged from his late 1990s travels to the Negev Desert in Israel A feature to this book is its inclusion of pen and ink studies made as preliminaries to the major paintings Leigh Astbury teaches art history at Monash University Melbourne This book also comes as a special edition with original etching by Victor Majzner and a slip case From the Edge Mark McKenna,2016-10-03 In March 1797 five British sailors and 12 Bengali seamen struggled ashore after their longboat broke apart in a storm Their fellow survivors from the wreck of the Sydney Cove were stranded more than 500 kilometres southeast in Bass Strait To rescue their mates and to save themselves the 19 men must walk 700 kilometres north to Sydney That remarkable walk is a story of endurance but also of unexpected Aboriginal help From the Edge Australia s Lost Histories recounts four such extraordinary and largely forgotten stories the walk of shipwreck survivors the founding of a new Singapore in western Arnhem Land in the 1840s Australia s largest industrial development project nestled amongst outstanding Indigenous rock art in the Pilbara and the ever changing story of James Cook s time in Cooktown in 1770 This new telling of the central drama of Australian history the encounter between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal Australians may hold the key to understanding this land and its people Aereality William Fox,2009-05-01 William Fox s writing for the last several years has been focused on how we construct aerial views either physically by flying or in our imaginations In Aereality he flies over earthworks in Nevada and Utah soars through the world s largest open pit mine and surveys Los Angeles circumnavigating large swaths of true American urban sprawl On the East Coast he examines the elevated art of the Hudson River Valley and New York City And finally in Australia

Fox examines the history and current practice of both Euro Australian and Aboriginal aerial views and searches for the cognitive roots of our aerial imagination Accompanying Fox throughout his travels is a rolling cast of enlightened fliers geographers museum curators landscape photographers anthropologists and artists He traverses the sky in prop planes helicopters and hot air balloons all with the ultimate goal of knowing and experiencing the earth from the air
