Frederick Hart Sculptor:

Frederick Hart Frederick Hart, Michael Novak, 2005 Frederick Hart's sculpture is at once traditional in its adherence to the importance of the human figure and radical in its sensuality and innovative use of materials. This publication is a comprehensive look into the life and talent of a classical sculptor whose passion for the spiritual and figurative aspects of his craft is represented in both his public commissions and private work. Daughters of Odessa, one of Hart's masterworks, is traced from its first inspiration to the final bronze. The Creation Sculptures which grace the west facade of Washington National Cathedral are explored in an in-depth analysis of his epic interpretation of Creation. Hart's public monuments including Three Soldiers at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial are brought to life through the artist's own writings. Additionally, new works are comprehensively explored, building from the previous book Frederick Hart Sculptor 1994, now in its fifth printing. 12 colour, 83 b/w illustrations.

Frederick Hart Frederick Hart, 2007 Before his death in 1999, Frederick Hart was hailed as America's greatest living sculptor. His powerful and inspirational figurative creations for such venues as the National Cathedral and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial changed the face of American art. Inspired by the great classical sculptors Michelangelo and Rodin, Hart single-handedly revived the classical form in monumental pieces the complexity, size and beauty of which are rightly compared to works of the Old Masters. This magnificent book is published as Hart's catalogue raisonné, a detailed showcase of his relatively short lifetime of extraordinary production, timed to coincide with the largest Hart retrospective and exhibit ever mounted at the University of Louisville from September to November 2007. Essays by Donald Kuspit and Frederick Turner accompany hundreds of impressive color plates. Also included is an extensive chronology, bibliography and index of Hart's works. Butler Books is proud to announce that Frederick Hart: The Complete Works was awarded the Silver Medal for Excellence in the national Fine Arts category of the 2008 Independent Publisher Book Awards.

On American cultural memory The Catholic Passion David Scott, 2010-06 The Catholic faith is not a set of rules or a body of doctrines but is a way of life, writes David Scott. It's a lived faith that contains convincing intellectually coherent and spiritually fulfilling answers to the biggest questions: Who is God? Who is Jesus? Why are we here? Where are we going? The Catholic Passion invites readers into a conversation about the things that matter most. It is not an argument for the Catholic faith but a journey to the heart of it: a richly rewarding reflection on prayer, the Bible, sacraments, the church, and God made human in Jesus Christ. Scott does not tell the story of the faith through church documents or catechism quotations. Instead, he looks at the faith experience of real Catholics: people like the American writer Andre Dubus, the French composer Olivier Messiaen, the Chinese human rights activist Henry Wu, the French martyr Charles de Foucauld, and the American reformer Dorothy Day. These and other Catholics embody a faith that warms the heart as it enlightens the mind. One theme emerges from Scott's reflections on the lives of Catholics and the Scriptures: God's passion of love for humankind burns on in the Catholic Church. The Catholic passion is the conviction that there is nothing God will not do to win our love. The Catholic Passion is a monumental work. David Scott weaves material from scripture, history, the arts, the liturgy, theology, spirituality, and personal reflection, showing us that nothing human is alien to Christ and nothing divine is withheld from God's people. Scott Hahn, author of The Lamb's Supper. The Catholic Passion is a masterwork: beautiful, compelling, and wonderfully readable, an outstanding portrait of what Catholics believe and why. I highly recommend it. Charles J. Chaput, OFM, Capuchin, archbishop of Denver. David Scott helps us see a vibrant Catholicism that offers brilliant meaning in a world darkened by materialism and violence. He presents a vision that allows the treasures of the past to envision an orthodox Catholicism for the future. Fr. Mitch Pacwa, SJ, EWTN.

The Commemoration of Women in the United States Teresa Bergman, 2019-05-22. The Commemoration of Women in the United States examines the public memorialization of women in the US over the past century, with a particular focus on the late twentieth century and early twenty-first. The analysis centers on six case examples of memorialization and explores broad themes of cultural representation. Bergman argues that the construction or relocation of a series of prominent national memorials together form a significant moment of change in the ways in which women are commemorated in the US. The historic and present-day challenges facing such commemoration are examined with reference to broader political debates. The case examples explored are the Women in the Military Service for America Memorial, the Women's Rights National Historic Park, the Vietnam Veterans Women's Memorial, the Rosie the Riveter WWII Home Front National Historical Park, the Eleanor Roosevelt Statue in the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial, and the Portrait Monument of Susan B. Anthony, Lucretia Mott, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Providing insightful and grounded analysis of the history and practice of the commemoration of women in the US, this book makes useful reading for a range of scholars and students in subjects including heritage studies, communication studies, and history.

Encyclopedia of American Activism Margaret DiCanio, 2016-10-04. The turbulence of the 1960s and 1970s spawned a spectrum of activist movements. In spirit and action, events ranged from gentle to violent, from Tree People to Bloody Sunday, from Community Mental Health to Black Power. This rapid stream of social and political change defined the second half of the 20th century yet had roots in the first half. The baby boom generation launched many movements Unlike their Depression WWII parents the boomers a large cohort of unattached young adults had no looming familial and social responsibilities They had the freedom and resources for the consuming task of changing the world

The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays Michael Novak, 2017-07-28 Written by noted Catholic philosopher Michael Novak the selections in The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays highlight the arc of his intellectual career Collectively demonstrating the fundamental unity of Novak's work the sixteen essays in this book span a broad range of political economic and social topics The selections offer clarity of thinking for the sake of concrete ends For example The Myth of Romantic Love the chapter from which the title of this work is drawn sharply distinguishes the love that popular culture portrays from the true Christian vision of love And The Family out of Favor argues if things go well with the family life is worth living when the family falters life falls apart Thus true Christian love manifest in marriage and family life is a greater resource for civilized society than any other institution Although this collection shows that Novak's viewpoints did evolve over time he remains a thinker that is clearly rooted in the ancient and medieval Catholic tradition From his discussions of gender relations to economics culture and politics his perspective honors the primacy of man and his immediate experience and thereby ultimately glorifies the Creator Novak's writing will infuriate some readers and inspire many others but both comrades in arms and intellectual opponents will find the clarity and intensity of his writings undeniable
