Free-style Classicism Charles Jencks, 1982 Mediated Messages Véronique Patteeuw, Léa-Catherine Szacka, 2018-06-14 Mediated Messages presents a collection of original writing exploring the role played by the media in the development of postmodern architecture in the 1970s and 80s The book's twelve chapters and case studies examine a range of contemporary periodicals and exhibitions to explore their role in the postmodern This focus on mediation as a key feature of architectural post modernism and the recognition that post modernism grew out of developments in the media opens up the possibility of an important new account of post modernism distinct from existing narratives Accompanied by a contextualizing introduction the essays are arranged across four thematic sections covering images international postmodernisms high and low culture and postmodern architects as theorists and present a range of case studies with a genuinely international scope Altogether this work makes a substantial contribution to the historical account of architectural postmodernism and will be of great interest to researchers in postmodernism as well as those examining the role of the media in architectural history Architecture for the Screen Juan Antonio Ramírez, 2012-04-11 Most of us have never found ourselves trapped inside a burning skyscraper or entombed within an Egyptian pyramid but we probably have some idea of what it would be like because of their portrayal on screen The movies have overcome the constraints of time and place by bringing us images of diverse and otherwise unfamiliar settings This work covers the many applications of art and architecture appearing in the movies produced in Hollywood from the very beginning until the fifties The first chapters deal with the process of design construction physical characteristics and immediate functions of a wide variety of architectural sets The remaining chapters examine the great number of styles shown in those movies and take the reader up to the final triumph of modernist architecture in the aftermath of the Second World War Classical Architecture for the Twenty-first Century J. François Gabriel, 2004 A richly illustrated carefully explained introduction to classical architecture Highly recommended Choice Postmodern Urbanism Nan Ellin, 1999 A comprehensive guide to the scope of contemporary urban design theory in Europe and the USA Modern Classicism Robert A. M. Stern, Raymond Gastil, 1988 The New Paradigm in Architecture Charles Jencks, 2002-01-01 This book explores the broad issue of Postmodernism and tells the story of the movement that has changed the face of architecture over the last forty years In this completely rewritten edition of his seminal work Charles Jencks brings the history of architecture up to date and shows how demands for a new and complex architecture aided by computer design have led to more convivial sensuous and articulate buildings around the world Multiform Owen Hopkins, Erin McKellar, 2021-02-23 Guest edited by Owen Hopkins and Erin McKellar Our current moment is one of profound political and economic change Historically these moments of transition have seen a parallel period of cultural and notably architectural flux In the late 1970s this was manifested in Postmodernism Today a number of architects are looking again at this movement and redeploying a range of its tactics and approaches using contemporary methods and techniques These include different modes of collage formal reference and quotation stylistic eclecticism symbolism in form material and ornament and the bold expressive use of colour both natural and synthetic While the design that results from these multiform tactics and approaches has been seen as a kind of neo Postmodernism this issue argues that this is a simplistic and superficial reading Instead it posits this phenomenon as the architectural attempt both conscious and unconscious to reflect grapple with and make sense of the current political and economic transition and the backdrop of the climate emergency Rather than responding to this situation by attempting to marshal architecture around a single unifying narrative this issue makes the case for the transformative possibilities offered by an approach that is ad hoc eclectic and pluralist Contributors Mat Barnes Jennifer Bonner Graham Burn James Crawford and Alexander Turner Mario Carpo David Knight and Cristina Monteiro David Kohn Stephen Parnell Lera Samovich Geoff Shearcroft Dirk Somers Catrina Stewart and Hugh McEwen L a Catherine Szacka and Amin Taha Featured architects AOC Architecture Bovenbouw Architectuur CAN Groupwork David Kohn Architects DK CM Fala Atelier MALL Studio MUTT Office S M Walala Studio Yinka Ilori Studio

Classical and Modern Interactions Karl Galinsky, 1992-01-01 Postmodernism multiculturalism the alleged decline of the United States deconstruction leadership and values these topics have been at the forefront of contemporary intellectual and cultural debate and are likely to remain so through the 1990s Participants in the debate can usefully enlarge the perspective to a comparison between the Greco Roman world and contemporary society In this thought provoking work a noted classics scholar tests the ancient modern comparison showing what it can add to the contemporary debates and what its limitations are Writing for intellectually adventurous readers Galinsky explores Greece and Rome as multicultural societies debates the merits of classicism in postmodern architecture discusses the reign of Augustus in terms of modern leadership theories and investigates the modern obsession with finding parallels between the supposed decline and fall of Rome and the decay of U S society Within these discussions Galinsky shows the continuing vitality of the classical tradition in the contemporary world The Greek and Roman civilizations have provided us not only with models for conscious adaptation but also points for radical departures This ability to change and innovate from classical models is crucial Galinsky maintains It creates a reciprocal process whereby contemporary issues are projected into the past while aspects of the ancient world are redefined in terms of current approaches These essays result in a balanced assessment and stimulating restatement of some major issues in both contemporary U S society and the Greco Roman world The book which speaks to a wide interdisciplinary audience is based on a series of lectures that Galinsky gave as a national visiting scholar for Phi Beta Kappa It concludes with a discussion of the role of classical studies in the United States today

The New Classicism in Architecture and Urbanism Clive Aslet, 1988 The Historiography of Modern Architecture Panayotis Tournikiotis, 2001-02-27 The history of modern architecture as constructed by historians and key texts Writing according to Panayotis Tournikiotis has always exerted a powerful influence on architecture Indeed the study of modern architecture cannot be separated from a fascination with the texts that have tried to explain the idea of a new architecture in a new society During the last forty years the question of the relationship of architecture to its history of buildings to books has been one of the most important themes in debates about the course of modern architecture Tournikiotis argues that the history of modern architecture tends to be written from the present projecting back onto the past our current concerns so that the beginning of the story really functions as a representation of its end In this book the buildings are the quotations while the texts are the structure Tournikiotis focuses on a group of books by major historians of the twentieth century Nikolaus Pevsner Emil Kaufmann Sigfried Giedion Bruno Zevi Leonardo Benevolo Henry Russell Hitchcock Reyner Banham Peter Collins and Manfredo Tafuri In examining these writers thoughts he draws on concepts from critical theory relating architecture to broader historical models The Artless Word Fritz Neumeyer,1991 Using Mies writings the author presents a reconstruction of the metaphysical and philosophical inquiry upon which he based his modernism It aims to present an integrated view of Mies philosophy of building including his American career Charles Moore Eugene J. Johnson,1986 Overzicht van het werk van de Amerikaanse architect 1925 Free-style Classicism Charles Jencks,1982 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library,1990 Architecture Series: Bibliography ,1987
