Franchise Fraud:

Franchise Fraud Robert L. Purvin, 1994-04-29 He tells you what to look out for what questions to ask and what agreements to make before signing a contract And he offers a detailed anatomy of the most common types of fraud and abuse including Illusory Promises The promise of training guidance and various forms of support No Way Out Contract provisions that can trap you for life making it impossible for you to ever leave the system Rigged for Failure How some greedy franchisors oversaturate the market and worse how and why many franchisors often deliberately rig their franchises for failure and Caveat Emptor Why franchisees who are customers of licensors rather than their distributors are usually victims But the picture isn't all dark Robert Purvin also guides you to the best franchising opportunities now available and tells you how to take full advantage of them

Franchise Desk Book W. Michael Garner, 2001 Franchise Desk Book is your primary reference to the text of generally applicable franchise registration disclosure and relationship statutes and accompanying regulations You'll benefit from the expert commentary on franchise statutes and cases that provide you with a look behind the scenes with respect to the covered state's laws In addition this manual includes annotations of reported and unreported cases that are arranged and keyed to topics that franchise lawyers need and can understand such as franchise fees exemptions from registration and more The unique annotation system that is designed specially for franchise lawyers will allow you to put your finger on cases that focus upon the issues that matter most

Frauds Against the Elderly Charles C. Sharpe, 2015-09-18 Fraud committed against the elderly has reached epidemic proportions and the problem will only worsen as a large segment of the American population approaches retirement age This book explores the disturbing rise in these offenses crimes aimed at a vulnerable segment of society that is often unable to overcome the consequences with an eye towards helping seniors protect themselves This handbook first defines fraud then discusses why the elderly are targeted the growing scope of the problem and why these crimes often go unreported or unsolved The second section clearly explains 28 of the most common types of fraud including home improvement scams health frauds identity theft and magazine sales in a manner that allows readers to recognize and avoid the predatory actions of others whether strangers friends or even family members The third section provides a list of resources and actions to take and for those who believe themselves to be the victim of fraud The book also contains a list of related acronyms an index and a bibliography
