Frank Capra The Name Above The Title:

The Name Above the Title Frank Capra, 1971 The famous writer director and producer of films recalls his experiences in the motion picture industry Frank Capra Frank Capra, 1972 Frank Capra: The Name Above the Title Frank Capra, 1971 Frank Capra: the Name Above the Title Frank Capra, 1971 The Name Above the Title Frank Capra, 1982 Frank Capra Frank Capra, 2004 Few Hollywood directors had a higher profile in the 1930s than Frank Capra 1897 1991 He served as president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and of the Screen Directors Guild He won three Academy Awards as best director and was widely acclaimed as the man most responsible for making Columbia Pictures a success This popularity was established and sustained by films that spoke to and for the times It Happened One Night Mr Deeds Goes to Town Meet John Doe and Mr Smith Goes to Washington These replicated the nation's hopes and dreams for a national community He worked with some of the brightest stars in Hollywood James Stewart Clark Gable Jean Arthur Gary Cooper Barbara Stanwyck Claudette Colbert Bette Davis Donna Reed and Ann Margret Capra's interviews express his connection to the national audience and explore his own story He was a Sicilian immigrant boy who survived rough and tumble beginnings to become Hollywood's most bankable director In reflecting on his life almost every one of his films was a parable of acclaim verging on disaster He spent much of the 1940s in uniform while making films for the War Department Although Capra was an optimist World War II and his series of Why We Fight films called his legendary optimism into question His postwar film It's a Wonderful Life 1946 gave an answer to those questions with an astonishing directness Capra never equaled again In 1971 he published his autobiography The Name Above the Title Many of the interviews collected here come from this period when as an elder statesman of motion picture art and history he reflected on his long career The interviews portray the Capra legend vividly and demonstrate why the warm relations between Capra and his audiences continue to inspire acclaim and admiration Leland Poague a professor of English at Iowa State University is the editor of Conversations with Susan Sontag University Press of Mississippi He is the author of Another Frank Capra and The Cinema of Frank Capra An Approach to Film Comedy Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons Elizabeth Rawitsch, 2014-10-16 Frank Capra has long had a reputation as being the quintessential American director the man who perfectly captured the identity and core values of the United States with a string of classic films in the 1930s and 40s including It Happened One Night Mr Smith Goes to Washington and It's a Wonderful Life However as Elizabeth Rawitsch argues Capra's construction of national identity did not occur within an exclusively national context She points out that many of his films are actually set in or include sequences set in China Latin America the Philippines and the South Seas Featuring in depth textual analysis supported by original archival research Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons explains that Capra's view of what constituted America changed over time extending its boundaries to embrace countries often far from the United States Complicating Edward Said's theory of Orientalism as a strict binary in which the West constructs the East as an inferior other it demonstrates that East and West often intermingle in films such as The Bitter Tea of General Yen and in Capra's orientation documentaries for World War II American servicemen Capra imagined a kind of global community albeit one with heavy undertones of British and American imperialism Investigating shifts in what Capra's America has meant over time both to Capra and to those who have watched and studied his films this innovative book offers a startlingly fresh perspective on one of the most iconic figures in American film history

The Capra Touch Matthew C. Gunter, 2011-12-01 During World War II Academy Award winning director Frank Capra 1897-1991 made propaganda films for the U.S. Government such as Prelude to War The Nazis Strike The Battle of Britain War Comes to America and The Negro Soldier These entries in the Why We Fight documentary series have been largely neglected by Capra scholars This work analyzes the cinematic and thematic techniques Capra employed in these films linking them to the techniques and ideology of the director's popular mainstream narrative films including It Happened One Night Mr. Deeds Goes to Town and Mr. Smith Goes to Washington Also analyzed are the manners in which Frank Capra's war service affected his later films notably his 1946 masterpiece It's a Wonderful Life and how Capra's belief in individual liberty shaped both his films and his career under the oppressive Hollywood studio system

Frank Capra Joseph McBride, 2011-06-02 Moviegoers often assume Frank Capra's life resembled his beloved films such as Mr. Smith Goes to Washington and It's a Wonderful Life A man of the people faces tremendous odds and by doing the right thing triumphs But as Joseph McBride reveals in this meticulously researched definitive biography the reality was far more complex a true American tragedy Using newly declassified U.S. government documents about Capra's response to being considered a possible subversive during the post World War II Red Scare McBride adds a final chapter to his unforgettable portrait of the man who gave us It Happened One Night Mr. Deeds Goes to Town and Meet John Doe

Propaganda Robert Jackall, 1995 Traces the origins of modern propaganda and its influence in modern history This volume traces the origins, ethos and workings of modern propaganda which now permeates all institutions in our society Scholars such as C. Wright Mills, Walter Lippmann and Hans Speier here explore the social and institutional groundwork of modern propaganda The book then examines the axial age of propaganda from the Great War through the Cold War focusing on key propaganda organizations such as the Committee on Public Information, the Nazi propaganda machine and the group of Hollywood directors that produced propaganda films for the armed services during the Second World War This section also details the wizardry of the master Nazi propagandist Joseph Goebbels Finally the volume examines the ubiquity of propaganda in contemporary society focusing on bureaucratic propaganda, advertising, public relations and politics and language

In Capra's Shadow Ian Scott, 2014-10-17 Because screenwriter Robert Riskin spent most of his career collaborating with legendary Hollywood director Frank Capra Riskin's own unique contributions to film have been largely overshadowed With five Academy Award nominations to his credit for the monumental films Lady for a Day Mr. Deeds Goes to Town You Can't Take It with You Here Comes the Groom and It Happened One Night for which he won the Oscar Riskin is often imitated but rarely equaled In Capra's Shadow The Life and Career of Screenwriter Robert Riskin is the first detailed critical examination of the Hollywood pioneer's life and work In addition to being one of the great screenwriters of the classic Hollywood era Riskin was also a producer and director founding his own film company and playing a crucial role in the foundation of the Screen Writers Guild During World War II Riskin was one of the major forces behind propaganda filmmaking He worked in the Office of War Information and oversaw the distribution and later production of films and documentaries in foreign theaters He was interested in showing the rest of the world more than just an idealized version of America he looked for films that emphasized the spiritual and cultural vibrancy within the U S making charity faith and generosity of spirit his propaganda tools His efforts also laid the groundwork for a system of distribution channels that would result in the dominance of American cinema in Europe in the postwar years Riskin's postwar work included his production of the 1947 film Magic Town the tale of a marketing executive who discovers the perfect American small town and uses it for polling What Riskin created onscreen is not simply a community stuck in an antiquarian past rather the town of Grandview observes its own traditions while at the same time confronting the possibilities of the modern world and the challenges of postwar America Author Ian Scott provides a unique perspective on Riskin and the ways in which his brilliant pithy style was realized in Capra's enduring films Riskin's impact on cinema extended far beyond these films as he helped spread Hollywood cinema abroad and articulated his vision of a changing America

Another Frank Capra Leland Poague, 1994 Another Frank Capra offers a new interpretation of the great Hollywood director beyond the patriotic sentimentalist or the cynical opportunist that he has been taken for Often cast as a cinematic simpleton or primitive Capra's exploitation of the stylistic and narrative resources of cinema was in fact extremely self-conscious and adventurous in ways typical of artistic modernism His modernism is also evident in his repeated and strong identification with female characters Informed by recent work in genre theory and feminist psychology Another Frank Capra shows Capra to be a proto feminist director whose feminism has been entirely neglected by previous critics

It's a Wonderful Life Michael Newton, 2023-09-07 Frank Capra's It's a Wonderful Life is one of the best-loved films of Classical Hollywood cinema a story of despair and redemption in the aftermath of war that is one of the central movies of the 1940s and a key text in America's understanding of itself This is a film that remains relevant to our own anxieties and yearnings to all the contradictions of ordinary life while also enacting for us the quintessence of the classic Hollywood aesthetic Nostalgia humour and a tough resilience weave themselves through this movie intertwining it with the fraught cultural moment of the end of World War II that saw its birth It offers a still compelling merging of fantasy and realism that was utterly unique when it was first released and has rarely been matched since Michael Newton's study of the film investigates the source of its extraordinary power and its long-lasting impact He begins by introducing the key figures in the movie's production notably director Frank Capra and star James Stewart and traces the making of the film and then provides a brief synopsis of the film considering its aesthetic processes and procedures touching on all those things that make it such an astonishing film Newton's careful analysis explores all those aspects of the film that are fundamental to our understanding of it particularly the way in which the film brings tragedy and comedy together Finally Newton tells the story of the film's reception and afterlife accounting for its initial relative failure and its subsequent immense popularity

Five Came Back Mark Harris, 2015-02-24 One of The Hollywood Reporter's 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time One of the great works of film history of the decade Slate Now a Netflix original documentary series also written by Mark Harris the extraordinary wartime experience of five of Hollywood's most important directors all of whom put their stamp on World War II and were changed by it forever Here is the remarkable untold story of how five major Hollywood directors John Ford George Stevens John Huston William Wyler and Frank Capra changed World War II and how in turn the war changed them In a move unheard of at the time the U S government farmed out its war propaganda effort to Hollywood allowing these directors the freedom to film in combat zones as never before They were on the scene at almost every major moment of America's war shaping the public's collective consciousness of what we've now come to call the good fight The product of five years of scrupulous archival research Five Came Back provides a revelatory new understanding of Hollywood's role in the war through the life and work of these five men who chose to go and who came back

Redeeming Culture James Gilbert, 2008-04-15 In this intriguing history James Gilbert examines the confrontation between modern science and religion as these disparate sometimes hostile modes of thought clashed in the arena of American culture Beginning in 1925 with the infamous Scopes trial Gilbert traces nearly forty years of competing attitudes toward science and religion Anyone seriously interested in the history of current controversies involving religion and science will find Gilbert's book invaluable Peter J Causton Boston Book Review Redeeming Culture provides some fascinating background for understanding the interactions of science and religion in the United States Intriguing pictures of some of the highlights in this cultural exchange George Marsden Nature A solid and entertaining account of the obstacles to mutual understanding that science and religion are now warily overcoming Catholic News Service An always fascinating look at the conversation between religion and science in America Publishers Weekly

A Dictionary of Cinema Quotations from Filmmakers and Critics Stephen M. Ringler, 2008-05-03 The cinema isn't a slice of life it's a slice of cake Alfred Hitchcock If you make a popular movie you start to think where have I failed Woody Allen A film is the world in an hour and a half Jean Luc Godard I think you have to be slightly psychopathic to make movies David Cronenberg This compendium contains more than 3 400 quotations from filmmakers and critics discussing their craft About 1 850 film people are included Bunuel Capra Chaplin Disney Fellini Fitzgerald Griffith Kael Kurasawa Pathe Sarris Schwarzenegger Spielberg Waters and Welles among them The quotations are arranged under 31 topics such as acting animation audience budget casting critics costume design directing locations reviews screenwriting special effects and stardom Indexing by filmmakers or critics by film titles and by narrow subjects provides a rich array of points of access

way that the humanities make meaning the pull quote epigraph and quotation are standard for citing evidence and invoking and interrogating authority in both literary and scholarly writing However film studies has yet to seriously examine how moving images can quote one another convening interaction and creating new knowledge across time Classical Projections offers film quotation as a new concept for understanding how preexisting moving image fragments are reframed and re viewed within subsequent films As a visual corollary to literary quotation film quotations embed film fragments in on screen movie screens Though film quotations have appeared since silent cinema Classical Projections focuses on quotations of classical Hollywood film mainstream American studio production 1915 1950 as quoted in post classical Hollywood roughly 1960 to present This strategic historical frame asks how does post classical cinema visualize its awareness of coming after a classical or golden age How do post classical filmmakers claim or disavow classical history How do historically disenfranchised post classical filmmakers whether by gender sexuality or race grapple with exclusionary and stereotype ridden canons As a constitutive element of post classical authorship film quotations amass and manufacture classical Hollywood in retrospective highly strategic ways By revealing how quotational tellings of film history build and embolden exclusionary myopic canons Classical Projections uncovers opportunities to construct more capacious cultural memory

Riefenstahl Screened Neil Christian Pages, Ingeborg Majer O'Sickey, Mary Rhiel, 2008-05-16 Leni Riefenstahl is larger than life From the lure of her persona as it enters our homes via television to our pleasure in the recognition of her film images at rock concerts to her place as part of the history of the Nazi period Riefenstahl lives on in our imagination and in our cultural productions Thus the editors introduction to this volume examines the manner in which Riefenstahl haunts debates on aesthetics and politics and how her legacy reverberates in the contemporary cultural scene The editors view the collection as a three part framework The essays in the opening section of the book show that Riefenstahl is still very much alive and well and controversial in popular culture Her films continue to determine the way in which we think about the Nazi period providing instantly recognizable images and messages that often go unquestioned We cannot separate these phenomena from Riefenstahl's years of avid self fashioning The second section of the book offers treatments of the shifting mobile relationship between Riefenstahl's stubborn attempts to create and control her personae and her reactions to others re appropriations of the meanings of her life and work Reading the texts and discourses surrounding Riefenstahl these scholars treat her memoirs and her repeated assertions about herself as a springboard into understanding anew how we might approach her films in a productive way The closing section of the volume comprises essays that go right to the heart of the matter Riefenstahl's films and photography The new contexts theoretical discussions and emerging discourses that animate these essays include Scarry's treatise on beauty justice and the global the problems of history and memory the place of Riefenstahl's filmmaking technique in contemporary cinema and her appropriation of German musical traditions Fueled by the work of a diverse range of scholars then Riefenstahl Screened offers an opportunity to rethink the place of Leni

Riefenstahl and her work in contemporary culture and in academic discourse It insists upon a critical self examination that maps a topography of how scholars and teachers avail themselves of Riefenstahl s corpus The Merchant Prince of Poverty Row Bernard F. Dick,2021-10-19 Ben Hecht called him White Fang and director Charles Vidor took him to court for verbal abuse The image of Harry Cohn as vulgarian is such a part of Hollywood lore that it is hard to believe there were other Harry Cohns the only studio president who was also head of production the ex song plugger who scrutinized scripts and grilled writers at story conferences a man who could see actresses as either broads or goddesses Drawing on personal interviews as well as previously unstudied source material conference notes memos and especially the teletypes between Harry and his brother Jack Bernard Dick offers a radically different portrait of the man who ran Columbia Pictures and who had to be boss from 1932 to 1958 Songs of Innocence and Experience Magdalena Grabias-Zurek,2013-07-26 Songs of Innocence and Experience Romance in the Cinema of Frank Capra is a study of the director s chosen movies from the perspective of three types of comedies paradisaal purgatorial and infernal as assigned by Dante in his Divine Comedy Magdalena Grabias views Capra s films in two broader categories of innocence and experience where innocence represents Dantean paradisaal level and experience combines the levels of purgatory and inferno Such a division constitutes the means to interpret Capra s filmic universe and to describe the ever evolving directorial vision of Frank Capra The main purpose of the book is to demonstrate how in the light of the theory of literary romance as presented by Northrop Frye in his seminal works concerning the subject the films of Frank Capra fit into the genre of romance Romantic elements in Frank Capra s movies can be found in both innocence and experience categories and hence consequently in his paradisaal purgatorial and infernal comedies However in both categories and all three comedy types the romantic reality of each examined film is structured and developed in a different manner The book offers an insight into Frank Capra s films and the complex process of creating his multidimensional romantic universe within them
