Fredric Jameson A Critical Reader:

Fredric Jameson D. Kellner, S. Homer, 2004-03-25 This volume brings together original work from internationally recognized scholars that critically engages with the full range of Jameson's work including Sartre, Lukács, Third World literature, architecture, postmodernity, globalization, film, dialectics, and Brecht. In a series of lively and at times iconoclastic readings, the contributors challenge accepted views of Jameson's work and locate his project in the historical, political, and institutional context that shaped it. The volume concludes with an original contribution by Jameson himself, providing an opportunity for readers to critically engage with his work themselves.

Jameson and Literature Jarrad Cogle, 2020-09-01 This book demonstrates how Fredric Jameson's understanding of the novel form has heavily influenced his work as a critical theorist. It contends that Jameson's idiosyncratic engagements with the literary canon have had a major impact on his theoretical frameworks, particularly in his sense of historical change. The book investigates Jameson's predominant literary interests in chapters focusing on realism, modernism, postmodernism, and genre fiction. These readings provide fresh perspectives on Jameson's career, ones that look beyond his most famous contributions to cultural theory and interpretive practice. Through this work, the book also rethinks the criticism that has surrounded Jameson while suggesting ways in which his literary interpretation remains useful for contemporary reading practices.

A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden, Peter Widdowson, Peter Brooker, 2016-12-19 A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory is a classic introduction to the complex yet crucial area of literary theory. This book is known for its clear, accessible style and its thorough, logical approach, guiding the reader through the essentials of literary theory. It includes two new chapters: New Materialisms, which incorporates ecocriticism, animal studies, posthumanism, and thing theory; and 21st Century and Future Developments, which includes technology, digital humanities, ethics, and affect.

Periodizing Jameson Phillip E. Wegner, 2014-06-30 For a half century, the American intellectual Fredric Jameson has been a driving force in literary and cultural theory. In Periodizing Jameson, Phillip E. Wegner builds upon Jameson's unique dialectical method to demonstrate the value of Jameson's tools: periodization, the fourfold hermeneutic, and the Greimasian semiotic square, among others, and to develop virtuoso readings of Jameson's own work and the history of the contemporary American university in which it unfolds. Wegner shows how Jameson's work intervenes in particular social, cultural, and political situations, using his scholarship both to develop original explorations of nineteenth-century fiction, popular films, and other prominent theorists, and to examine the changing fortunes of theory itself. In this way, Periodizing Jameson casts new light on the potential of, and challenges to, humanist intellectual work in the present.

Epistemological Bias in the Physical & Social Sciences Abdelwahab M. Elmessiri, 2006-01-01 The question of bias in methodology and terminology is a problem that faces researchers east west north and south however it faces Third World intellectuals with special keenness For although they write in a cultural environment that has its own specific conceptual and cultural paradigms they nevertheless encounter a foreign paradigm which attempts to impose itself upon their society and upon their very imagination and thoughts When the term developmental psychology for instance is used in the West Arab scholars also say developmental psychology when applied psychology is mentioned they hurry to use the same term etc Why not establish a new science with its own mechanisms methodologies and points of reference to deal with epistemological biases and open up the gate of ijtihad with respect to them This collection of papers aims to discover some of the biases latent in our terminology methodologies research tools and conceptual principles and to propose alternative ones marked by a greater degree of independence and neutrality This is not to belittle the human value of the West's creative contributions but to emphasize the danger of making it the ultimate point of reference and then trying to continuously play catch up with it

Modern Persian Literature in Afghanistan Wali Ahmadi, 2008-03-05 With the unleashing of the War on Terror in the aftermath of 9 11 Afghanistan has become prominent in the news However we need to appreciate that no substantive understanding of contemporary history politics and society of this country can be achieved without a thorough analysis of the Afghan encounter with cultural and literary modernity and modernization Modern Persian Literature in Afghanistan does just that The book offers a balanced and interdisciplinary analysis of the rich and admirable contemporary poetry and fiction of a land long tormented by wars and invasions It sets out to demonstrate that within the trajectory of the union between modern aesthetic imagination and politics creativity and production and representation and history the modernist intervention enabled many contemporary poets and writers of fiction to resist the overt politicization of the literary field without evading politics or disavowing the modern state The interpretative moves and nuanced readings of a series of literary texts make this book a major contribution to a rather neglected area of research and study Winner of the Iranian World Prize for Book of the Year in Islamics Studies 2009 The Caribbean Novel since 1945 Michael Niblett, 2012-02-16 The Caribbean Novel since 1945 offers a comparative analysis of fiction from across the pan Caribbean exploring the relationship between literary form cultural practice and the nation state Engaging with the historical and political impact of capitalist imperialism decolonization class struggle ethnic conflict and gender relations it considers the ways in which Caribbean authors have sought to rethink and re narrate the traumatic past and often problematic postcolonial present of the region s peoples It pays particular attention to the role cultural practices such as stick fighting and Carnival as well as religious rituals and beliefs like Vodou and Myal have played in efforts to reshape the novel form In so doing it provides an original perspective on the importance of these practices with their emphasis on bodily movement to the development of new philosophies of history Beginning in the post WWII period when optimism surrounding the possibility of social and political change was at a peak The Caribbean Novel since 1945 interrogates the trajectories of various national projects through to the present It explores how the textual histories of common motifs in Caribbean writing have functioned to encode the fluctuating fortunes of different political dispensations The scope of the analysis is varied and comprehensive covering both critically acclaimed and lesser known authors from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone traditions These include Jacques Roumain Sam Selvon Marie Chauvet Luis Rafael S nchez Earl Lovelace Patrick Chamoiseau Erna Brodber Wilson Harris Shani Mootoo Oonya Kempadoo Ernest Moutoussamy and Pedro Juan Guti rrez Mixing detailed analysis of key texts with wider surveys of significant trends this book emphasizes the continuing significance of representations of the nation state to literary articulations of resistance to the imperialist logic of global capital Nodes of Contemporary Finnish Literature Leena Kirstinä, 2012-06-13 This book examines phenomena from Finnish and Finnish Swedish literature written in the years between the 1980s and the first decade of the new millennium Its objective is to study this interesting era of literary history in Finland and to sketch some possible directions for future development by identifying literary turning points which have already occurred Into Our Labours Neil Lazarus, 2022-04-15 Into our Labours explores the literary representation of work across the globe since 1850 setting out to show that the literature of modernity is best understood in the light of the worlding of capitalism The book proposes that a determinative relation exists between changing modes of work and changes in the forms genres and aesthetic strategies of the writing that bears witness to them Two aspects of the worlding of modernity especially are emphasised First an inaugural experience of capitalist social relations whose literary registration sometimes makes itself known through a crisis of representation as the forms of space and time consciousness demanded by life in contexts in which market oriented commodity production has become the dominant form of social labour are counterposed with inherited ways of seeing and knowing now under acute pressure if not already obsolete Second a moment corresponding to the consolidation regularisation and global dispersal of capitalist development Into Our Labours focuses on the naturalisation of capitalist social relations forms of sociality and solidarity ideologies of familialism individualism and work relations between the sexes and the generations Arguing that the only plausible term for the vast body of literary work engendered by the worlding of capitalist social relations is modernist the book proposes that it is then important to challenge the still entrenched Eurocentric understandings of modernism Modernism is neither originally nor paradigmatically Western in provenance and its temporal parameters are much broader than are usually assumed in modernist studies extending both backward and forward in time
