George Cukor:

George Cukor Patrick McGilligan,2013-02-01 One of the highest paid studio contract directors of his time George Cukor was nominated five times for an Academy Award as Best Director In publicity and mystique he was dubbed the women s director for guiding the most sensitive leading ladies to immortal performances including Greta Garbo Ingrid Bergman Judy Garland and in ten films among them The Philadelphia Story and Adam s Rib his lifelong friend and collaborator Katharine Hepburn But behind the women s director label lurked the open secret that set Cukor apart from a generally macho fraternity of directors he was a homosexual a rarity among the top echelon Patrick McGilligan s biography reveals how Cukor persevered within a system fraught with bigotry while becoming one of Hollywood s consummate filmmakers George Cukor

Joseph McBride,2024-12-17 The director of classic films such as Sylvia Scarlett The Philadelphia Story Gaslight Adam s Rib A Star Is Born and My Fair Lady George Cukor is widely admired but often misunderstood Reductively stereotyped in his time as a woman s director a thinly veiled disparaging code for gay he brilliantly directed a wide range of iconic actors and actresses including Cary Grant Greta Garbo Spencer Tracy Joan Crawford Marilyn Monroe and Maggie Smith As Katharine Hepburn the star of ten Cukor films told the director All the people in your pictures are as goddamned good as they can possibly be and that s your stamp In this groundbreaking lavishly illustrated critical study Joseph McBride provides insightful and revealing essayistic portraits of Cukor s actors in their most memorable roles The queer filmmaker gravitated to socially adventurous subversively rule breaking audacious dreamers who are often sexually transgressive and gender fluid in ways that seem strikingly modern today McBride shows that Cukor s seemingly self effacing body of work is characterized by a discreet way of channeling his feelings through his actors He expertly cajoled actors usually gently but sometimes with bracing harshness to delve deeply into emotional areas they tended to keep safely hidden Cukor s wry wit his keen sense of psychological and social observation his charm and irony and his toughness and resilience kept him active for more than five decades in Hollywood George Cukor s People gives him the in depth multifaceted examination his rich achievement deserves George Cukor

George Cukor Carlos Clarens, 1976 What Price Hollywood? Elyce Rae Helford, 2020-06-23 During the early Hollywood sound era studio director George Cukor produced nearly fifty films in as many years famously winning the Best Director Oscar at the 1964 Academy Awards for My Fair Lady His collaborations with so called difficult actresses such as Katharine Hepburn Judy Garland and Marilyn Monroe unsettled producers even as his ticket sales lined their pockets Fired from Gone with the Wind for giving Vivien Leigh more screen time than Clark Gable Cukor quickly earned a double sided reputation as a woman's director While the label celebrated his ability to help actresses deliver their best performances the epithet also branded the gay director as suitable only for work on female centered movies such as melodramas and romantic comedies Desperate for success after a failed drag film nearly ended his career Cukor swore to work within Hollywood's constraints Nevertheless What Price Hollywood Gender and Sex in the Films of George Cukor finds that Cukor continued to explore gender and sexuality on screen Drawing on a broad array of theoretical lenses Elyce Rae Helford examines how Cukor's award winning films titles including My Fair Lady and The Philadelphia Story as well as his lesser known films engage Hollywood masculinity and gender performativity through camp drag and mixed genres Blending biography with critical analysis of more than twenty five films What Price Hollywood tells the story of a once in a generation director who produced some of the best films in history George Cukor George Cukor, 1977 The Advocate, 1995-05-16 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States George Cukor Gene D. Phillips, 1982 Arguing that a director alone can and must confer artistic unity on a motion picture Phillips traces George Cukor's background as a stage director and movie dialogue coach His discussions of the films are organized thematically making it possible to treat as a whole the Tracy and Hepburn vehicles the many adaptations of stage plays and novels and the few but striking musicals He also examines Cukor's considerable reputation as a woman's director and concludes that the indefatigably professional Cukor is the prototype of the ideal Hollywood director uncompromising and able to weather the vicissitudes of public taste and studio interference
