Design in Germany, 1870-1918 John Heskett, 1986 German Design, 1870-1918 John Heskett, 1986 Peter Behrens and a New Architecture for the Twentieth Century Stanford Anderson, 2002-08-23 The complete story of Behrens contribution to the history of twentieth century architecture German Art 1907-1937 Martin Ignatius Gaughan, 2007 This book examines the responses of visual artists including architects designers and photographers to the technological and social modernisation of Germany during the first three decades of the twentieth century It investigates how these aspects of the modernising process inform both the subject matter and formal innovations of their work The study analyses how these visual practices were not just the concerns of isolated and enclosed art worlds but had wider social resonances ranging from the debates concerning the reformist objectives of the Deutscher Werkbund 1907 to the National Socialist ideological onslaught on modernist culture culminating in the Entartete Kunst Degenerate Art exhibitions of 1937 Many of the artists encountered here were radicalised by the First World War the Russian Revolution and the November 1918 Revolution in Germany experiences which effected change in their conceptualising of cultural production and its social function their modes of working however would also set challenging markers for what forms art might take for the twentieth century The book is therefore both a study of art in complex political and sociocultural contexts and a reflection on how engagement with a social imagination can challenge a tradition based on the assumptions of individual imaginings The Visual Arts in Germany, 1890-1937 Shearer West, 2000 This work provides an introduction to the visual arts in Germany from the early years of German unification to World War II The study is an analysis of painting sculpture graphic art design film and photography in relation to a wider set of cultural and social issues that were specific to German modernism It concentrates on the ways in which the production and reception of art interacted with and was affected by responses to unification conflict between left and right political factions gender concerns contemporary philosophical and religious ideas the growth of cities and the increasing importance of mass culture Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905-1922 Kathleen G. Chapman, 2019-01-21 In Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905-1925 Kathleen Chapman re defines Expressionism by situating it in relation to the most common type of picture in public space during the Wilhelmine twentieth century the commercial poster Focusing equally on visual material and contemporaneous debates surrounding art posters and the image in general this study reveals that conceptions of a modern image were characterized not so much by style or mode of production and distribution but by a visual rhetoric designed to communicate more directly than words As instances of such rhetoric Expressionist art and posters emerge as equally significant examples of this modern image demonstrating the interconnectedness of the aesthetic the utilitarian and the commercial in European modernism Artists and Radicalism in Germany, 1890-1933 Nikos Pegioudis, 2025-02-20 Tracing the evolution of the German applied arts movement from 1890 through the interwar period Artists and Radicalism in Germany 1890-1933 reveals how reforms in artistic and vocational education intersected with the professional politics of radical artists and the nature of intellectual labour Challenging conventional views Pegioudis reinterprets the conflict between modern art s advocates and opponents arguing that professional politics not merely political ideologies shaped the historical avant garde Developing a fresh perspective on the role of radicalism and avant garde labour in the history of modern art this book casts new light on German modern art and its interpreters
