Intellectus Gratiae:

Intellectus Gratiae Josef Lössl, 2015-12-22 This is the first large scale study on the link between the concepts of intellect and grace in the writings of St Augustine of Hippo Its five chapters deal with Augustine s writings on grace as they focus on questions concerning epistemology and hermeneutics Already non Christian ancient philosophers identified intellectual perfection with salvation as caused by divine grace Under their influence I Augustine developed also his biblical thought II The culmination of his concept of intellectus gratiae however came in the later works on sacraments III hermeneutics IV and against Pelagius and Julian of Eclanum V This study highlights that development and recommends the concept of intellectus gratiae as a possible key to Augustine s theological thought as a whole Liberation through Reconciliation O. Ernesto Valiente, 2015-12-01 In the past one hundred years alone more than 200 million people have been killed as a consequence of systematic repression political revolutions or ethnic or religious war The legacy of such violence lingers long after the immediate conflict Drawing on the author s experiences of his native El Salvador Liberation through Reconciliation builds on Jon Sobrino s thought to construct a Christian spirituality and theology of reconciliation that overcomes conflict by attending to the demands of truth justice and forgiveness Gratia in Augustine's Sermones Ad Populum During the Pelagian Controversy Anthony Dupont, 2012-10-12 Studying the presence of grace in Augustine s sermones ad populum preached during the period of the Pelagian controversy this book explores the anthropological ethical perspective of his doctrine of grace and indicates the continuity in his reflections on grace and human freedom The Will and Human Action Thomas Pink, M.W.F. Stone, 2004-05-05 What is the will And what is its relation to human action Throughout history philosophers have been fascinated by the idea of the will the source of the drive that motivates human beings to act However there has never been a clear consensus as to what the will is and how it relates to human action Some philosophers have taken the will to be based firmly in reason and rational choice and some have seen it as purely self determined Others have replaced the idea of the human will with a more general drive uniting humans and the rest of nature living and non living This collection of nine specially commissioned papers trace the formulation and treatment of the problem of the will from ancient philosophy through the scholastic theologians of the Middle Ages to modern philosophy and right up to contemporary theories Philosophers discussed include Plato Aristotle Augustine Aquinas Bonaventure Hobbes Kant Schopenhauer and Nietzsche

The Imperial Cult and the Development of Church Order Revd Allen Brent, 2015-12-22 Recent studies have reassessed Emperor worship as a genuinely religious response to the metaphysics of social order Brent argues that Augustus revolution represented a genuinely religious reformation of Republican religion that had failed in its metaphysical objectives Against this backdrop Luke John the Seer Clement Ignatius and the Apologists refashioned Christian theology as an alternative answer to that metaphysical failure Callistus and Pseudo Hippolytus gave different responses to Severan images of imperial power The early Monarchian theology of the Trinity was thus to become a reflection of imperial culture and its justification that was later to be articulated both in Neo Platonism and in Cyprian's view of episcopal Order Contra cultural theory is employed as a sociological model to examine the interaction between developing Pagan and Christian social order

Augustine and his Critics Robert Dodaro, George Lawless, 2005-07-28 Augustine of Hippo AD 354-430 is arguably the most controversial Christian thinker in history His positions on philosophical and theological concerns have been the subjects of intense scrutiny and criticism from his lifetime to the present Augustine and his Critics gathers twelve specialists responses to modern criticisms of his thought covering personal and religious freedom the self and God sexuality gender and the body spirituality asceticism cultural studies and politics Stimulating and insightful the collection offers forceful arguments for neglected historical philosophical and theological perspectives which are behind some of Augustine's most unpopular convictions

Verleiblichung und Synergie Assaad Kattan, 2015-12-22 This volume examines the biblical hermeneutics of Maximus the Confessor 579-580-662 Although some aspects of the Confessor's hermeneutical approach had already been tackled a comprehensive analysis was still missing Accordingly this book fills a gap in Patristic studies The study consists of three chapters The first one deals with the logoi theory of Maximus being the ontological nucleus around which his whole theological thinking is organized The second chapter examines Maximus understanding of mystical ascension Equipped with the ontological and mystical foundation the third chapter analyzes thoroughly the hermeneutics of Maximus as such attempting to show its coherence and rootedness in the general christological perspective of the Confessor This book will be of benefit not only for byzantinists and patrologists but also for biblical scholars interested in the history of hermeneutics and exegesis as well as for historians of philosophy and medieval ideas

Archè J.C.M. van Winden, 2015-12-22 During the past forty years J C M van Winden OFM Emeritus Professor of Early Christian Literature at Leiden University and editor of Vigiliae Christianae has built up an impressive body of published research on early Christian thought and related areas of Greek and Jewish philosophy In this volume in honour of his 75th birthday his more important contributions originally published in a wide range of journals and other publications have been collected together These are grouped together in five categories The arch in early christian thought Essays on the Church Fathers Philonica Plotiniana Essays on the relation between Greek and Patristic Thought The volume includes a hitherto unpublished survey article on early Christian exegesis of the beginning in Gen 1:1 in German English translations of five contributions originally published in Dutch and a complete bibliography of Pater van Winden's scholarly work

Iustitia Dei Alister E. McGrath, 2005-05-12 The Christian doctrine of justification is of immense interest to historians and theologians and continues to be of major importance in modern ecumenical discussions The present work appeared in its first edition in 1986 and rapidly became the leading reference work on the subject Its many acclaimed features include a detailed assessment of the semantic background of the concept in the ancient Near East a thorough examination of the doctrine of the medieval period and especially careful analysis of its development during the critical years of the sixteenth century The third edition thoroughly updates the work adding material where necessary and responding to developments in scholarly literature It will be an essential resource for all concerned with the development of Christian doctrine the history of the Reformation debates on the identity of Christianity and modern discussions between Protestants and Roman Catholics over the nature of salvation The Lamb's High Feast A. Stewart-Sykes, 2015-12-22 The purpose of this work is to determine the place of Melito's Peri Pascha in the paschal liturgy of the Quartodecimans at Sardis Its conclusion is that Peri Pascha constitutes the two parts of the Quartodeciman liturgy The first part of the work is a liturgical homily on Exodus 12 which was delivered on the eve of Pascha and the second half is the text of a commemorative ritual which constituted the celebration of Pascha itself This conclusion is based on a formal examination of the text in the contexts of Graeco Roman rhetoric and of Jewish and Christian paschal liturgy and theology This is the first full length study of Peri Pascha to be published and the first extensive study of the Quartodecimans since 1953 Das Patristische Prinzip Andreas Merkt, 2015-12-22 The patristic principle demands that theological quarrels be settled by resorting to the church fathers This volume presents the first comprehensive reflexion on the historical evolution of the present crisis of this ancient theological principle Focusing on the theory of the consensus quinguesaecularis the author surveys the development of patristic authority from the 16th to the 20th centuries and relates it to other problems of the Church in modern times such as the crisis of tradition the conflict between ecclesiastical authority and academic theology and ecumenism The concluding chapter tackles the question whether a renewal of the patristic principle is possible and feasible today Words, Imagery, and the Mystery of Christ Steven A. McKinion, 2015-12-22 This volume deals with the christology of fifth century pastor and theologian Cyril of Alexandria particularly as it relates to Apollinarianism and Nestorianism More specifically it explores the use of a plethora of images to illustrate his understanding of the mystery of Christ The book traces the background of his analogies in the philosophers and the Scriptures Included are sections on Cyril's understanding and use of the Scriptures and the intended force of images in his theology The final part is a re-reading of his christology through the lens of his christological imagery Historians of Christian theology and dogma will find a unique look into the word pictures Cyril uses and the picture of Christ they reveal The Impact of Scripture in Early Christianity J. den Boeft, M.L. van Poll-van de Lisdonk, 2015-12-22 One of the most conspicuous innovations of early Christianity within Greco Roman culture is its reliance upon a collection of authoritative texts The ultimate author of Scripture was thought to be God Himself whose will could and should be sought and found in these holy writings For this reason it is not surprising that very soon these texts not only became the object of careful attention and scholarly study but also put their stamp on the various forms and manifestations of early Christian life such as martyrdom asceticism liturgy art and literature This multifarious influence of Scripture is the subject of The Impact of Scripture in Early Christianity It contains fourteen contributions predominantly in English by Belgian and Dutch scholars which have been gathered in a thematically ordered collection Philo of Alexandria Douwe (David) Runia, 2015-12-22 This volume is a continuation of

Philo of Alexandria an Annotated Bibliography 1937 1986 published by Roberto Radice and David Runia in 1988 second edition 1992 Prepared with the collaboration of the International Philo Bibliography Project it contains a complete listing of all scholarly writings on Philo in all languages for the period 1987 to 1996 Part One lists texts translations commentaries etc 75 items Part Two contains critical studies 880 items In part Three additional works for the years 1937 1986 are presented 170 items In all cases a brief description of the contents of the contribution is given Seven indices including a detailed Index of subjects complete the work

The Library of Eusebius of Caesarea Andrew James Carriker, 2003-11-01 This volume reconstructs the contents of the library in Roman Palestine of Eusebius of Caesarea ca 265 339 by examining Eusebius major works the Ecclesiastical History Chronicon Preparation for the Gospel and Life of Constantine After surveying the history of the library from its origins as an ecclesiastical archive and its true foundation by Origen of Alexandria to its disappearance in the seventh century it discusses how Eusebius used his sources and then examines what specific works were available in the library in chapters devoted to philosophical works poetry and rhetoric histories Jewish and Christian works and contemporary documents The book ends with a useful list of the contents of the library

Poetry and Exegesis in Premodern Latin Christianity Willemien Otten, Karla Pollmann, 2007-09-01 This volume investigates various exegetical possibilities in Christian Latin poetry during Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages In the Latin West poetry was mainly associated with the powerful pagan tradition of writers like Vergil and Ovid and by many poetry was considered to tell lies and provide mere entertainment potentially corrupting the soul Therefore Christians initially had reservations about this genre and believed it to be incompatible with Christian worship literacy and intellectual activity In practice however forms of specifically Christian poetry developed from the end of the third century onwards theoretical reconciliations were developed around 400 A D This collection examines specimens of Christian poetry from Juvenius the first biblical epicist shortly after 300 up to the thirteenth century Its particular usefulness lies in the combination of literary theory and hermeneutics close readings of the texts and new readings on a sound philological basis

J. B. F. ... Tractatus de Divina Traditione et Scriptura Cardinal Joannes Baptista FRANZELIN, 1870 Prädestination Markus Stohldreier, 2025-07-23 Der Prädestinationsbegriff hat im Christentum eine lange und wechselvolle Geschichte hinter sich Vorliegendes Werk zeigt die wichtigsten Entwicklungslinien dieser Geschichte von der biblischen Zeit bis zum 21 Jahrhundert auf Dabei kommen neben grundlegenden Aussagen der herer wegweisender Autoren aus Theologie und Philosophie auch Bezüge zur heutigen Handhabung des Begriffs und den damit verbundenen Konsequenzen für die kumene zur Sprache Ein Werk das einen fundierten Einblick gibt und zu weiteren Überlegungen anregt

Eternity's Ennui M.B. Pranger, 2010-10-05 This book examines the nature of Augustinian time as the unfathomable yet permanent focus of the present What are the implications for Augustine's confessional discourse How to reconcile the brevity of time's focus with eternity's longueur and the rhetoric of digression

Augustine's Confessions Annemaré Kotzé, 2004-08-01 This book is about the communicative purpose and the audience of the Confessions It illuminates the degree to which the communicative purpose of the work is to convert its readers i e a protreptic purpose and the degree to which the target audience may be identified as Augustine s potential Manichaeian readers A brief survey of possible literary antecedents points to the existence of other works that consist of the same combination of an autobiographical section a conversion story with a polemical and exegetical section an argument that aims to convince the reader of the merits of a specific point of view that characterizes the Confessions The book provides a new perspective on the meaning and structure of Augustine s often misunderstood masterpiece

Enjoying the Melody of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Intellectus Gratiae

In a global used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the published term frequently disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disturbances that permeate our lives.
