Crawford, 2021-09-07 In the field of Second Language Studies shared datasets provide a valuable contribution to second language research as many variables are held constant e.g. participants, tasks, research context, thus allowing for an evaluation of theoretical and/or methodological perspectives that may not otherwise be comparable. This edited volume includes a wide range of studies using a common dataset: the Corpus of Collaborative Oral Tasks. The corpus includes 820 spoken tasks, 268,927 words carried out by dyads of L2 English speakers, primarily Chinese and Arabic learners. Studies included in the book are categorized into three main traditions: learner corpus research, Task-Based Language Teaching and assessment. Because the corpus contains text and sound files, both lexico-grammatical and phonological analyses are included. Intended for researchers in the field of Second Language Studies with an interest in oral interaction research, this book provides a collection of methodological, pedagogical, and assessment studies using a common dataset.

Computer-Human Interaction Research and Applications Andreas Holzinger, Hugo Plácido da Silva, Jean Vanderdonckt, Larry Constantine, 2023-08-23. This post-conference book constitutes selected papers of the Fifth International Conference on Computer Human Interaction Research and Applications (CHIRA 2021) held virtually due to COVID-19 and the Sixth International Conference on Computer Human Interaction Research and Applications (CHIRA 2022) held in Valletta, Malta, in October 2022. The 8 full papers presented in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 48 submissions for CHIRA 2021 and 37 submissions for CHIRA 2022. The papers selected to be included in this book contribute to the understanding of relevant trends of current research on computer-human interaction, including user-centered interaction design, patterns, user experience design, multimedia and multimodal interaction, interaction design, modelling, haptic and tangible devices, accessible and adaptive interaction, user behaviour analysis, user experience evaluation, modelling human factors, mobile computer-human interaction, machine learning, information retrieval, human-centered AI and design and evaluation.

Virtual, Augmented Reality and Serious Games for Healthcare 1 Minhua Ma, Lakhmi C. Jain, Paul Anderson, 2014-04-25. There is a tremendous interest among researchers for the development of virtual, augmented reality and games technologies due to their widespread applications in medicine and healthcare. To date, the major applications of these technologies include medical simulation, telemedicine, medical and healthcare training, pain control, visualisation aid for surgery, rehabilitation in cases such as stroke, phobia and trauma therapies. Many recent studies have identified the benefits of using Virtual Reality, Augmented Reality or serious games in a variety of medical applications. This research volume on Virtual, Augmented Reality and Serious Games for Healthcare 1 offers an insightful introduction to the theories, development and applications of virtual, augmented reality and digital games technologies in medical and clinical settings and healthcare in general. It is divided into six sections: section one presents a selection of applications in medical education and healthcare management; section two relates to the nursing training, health literacy and healthy behaviour; section three presents the applications of Virtual Reality in neuropsychology; section four includes a number of applications in motor rehabilitation; section five aimed at therapeutic games for various diseases; and the final section presents the applications of Virtual Reality in healing and restoration. This book is directed to the healthcare professionals, scientists,
