Ecology of Industrial Pollution Lesley C. Batty, Kevin B. Hallberg, 2010-02-18 Written for researchers and practitioners in environmental pollution management and ecology this interdisciplinary account explores the ecological issues associated with industrial pollution to provide a complete picture of this important environmental problem from cause to effect to solution Bringing together diverse viewpoints from academia and environmental agencies and regulators the contributors cover such topics as biological resources of mining areas biomonitoring of freshwater and marine ecosystems and risk assessment of contaminated land in order to explore important questions such as What are the effects of pollutants on functional ecology and ecosystems Do current monitoring techniques accurately signal the extent of industrial pollution Does existing policy provide a coherent and practicable approach Case studies from throughout the world illustrate major themes and provide valuable insights into the positive and negative effects of industrial pollution the provision of appropriate monitoring schemes and the design of remediation and restoration strategies

A Perspective of Environmental Pollution M. W. Holdgate, 1979-05-17 Holdgate's 1979 book A Perspective of Environmental Pollution was an intensely important volume when it was first published looking as it did to contextualise and extensively review the effects of pollution throughout the 1970s As founding director of the Department of the Environment's Central Unit on Environmental Pollution Dr Holdgate was eminently well qualified to provide this analysis Holdgate takes an ecological view of pollutants pathways and environmental change whilst also looking at international pollution and the way in which patterns of pollution are monitored and costed Whilst his primary analysis is scientific he also writes confidently and convincingly on the legal administrative and economic effects of industrial processes on the environment This book will continue to be of use to anyone with an interest in the impact and assessment of environmental pollution
