Future Of Christology:

The Future of Christology Dong-Kun Kim, 2019-06-28 The Future of Christology addresses the questions that Christology currently faces and or will face in the future in 12 topics The book consists of two parts In the first part Kim deals with five topics related to traditional Christology while in the second part he wrestles with seven topics related to issues of Christology The twenty first century is a challenging time for Christianity Many in our age are asking what Jesus Christ means in various dimensions of history culture nature and even beyond the Earth Changes in values worldviews and views of the universe are forming a new zeitgeist Dong Kun Kim argues that ways of understanding Christ should change accordingly for a Christology that fails to communicate meaningfully with the times is void of vitality Postmodernism dehistoricization and life post ideology multiculturalism multiple religions and above all the rapid development of the natural sciences pose a serious challenge to traditional Christology Who is Christ in the age of an infinite cosmos How do daily human life social devotion and praxis relate to salvation How can we discuss salvation history in an era post history Where does Christ stand in the public sphere Can the Chalcedonian definition of the two natures of Christ true God and true human being encompass nature and the cosmos would a third nature of Christ be necessary Will the cyborg which may appear in the near future be the object of Christ s salvation If scientific determinism becomes popular in the future will the basis of faith in Christ lose ground If intelligent life exists in the universe what does Christ mean to such life This book provides innovative answers to these questions in an academic context

The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams,George Pattison,Graham Ward,2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution Throughout this period many of the wide range of modernisms and anti modernisms had a distinctly religious and even theological character not least when religion was subjected to the harshest criticism Yet for all the breadth and complexity of modern European thought and in particular its relations to theology a distinct body of themes and approaches recurred in each generation Moreover many of the issues that took intellectual shape in Europe are now global rather than narrowly European and for good or ill they form part of Europe s bequest to the world from colonialism and the economic theories behind globalisation through to democracy to terrorism This volume attempts to identify and comment on some of the most important of these The thirty chapters are grouped into six thematic parts moving from questions of identity and the self through discussions of the human condition the age of revolution the world both natural and technological and knowledge methodologies concluding with a section looking explicitly at how major theological themes have developed in modern European thought The chapters engage with major thinkers including Kant Hegel Kierkegaard Heidegger Schleiermacher Nietzsche Dostoevsky Barth Rahner Tillich Bonhoeffer Sartre de Beauvoir Wittgenstein and Derrida amongst many others Taken together these new essays provide a rich and reflective overview of the interchange between theology philosophy and critical thought in Europe over the past two hundred years
