Fluxus Forms Natilee Harren, 2020-03-20 PURGE the world of dead art imitation artificial art Promote living art anti art promote NON ART REALITY to be grasped by all peoples writes artist George Maciunas in his Fluxus manifesto of 1963 Reacting against an elitist art world enthralled by modernist aesthetics Fluxus encouraged playfulness chance irreverence and viewer participation The diverse collective including George Brecht Robert Filliou Dick Higgins Alison Knowles George Maciunas Yoko Ono Nam June Paik Benjamin Patterson Takako Saito Mieko Shiomi Ben Vautier and Robert Watts embraced humble objects and everyday gestures as critical means of finding freedom and excitement beyond traditional forms of art making While today the Fluxus collective is recognized for its radical neo avant garde works of performance publishing and relational art and its experimental interdisciplinary approach it was not taken seriously in its own time With Fluxus Forms Natilee Harren captures the magnetic energy of Fluxus activities and collaborations that emerged at the intersections of art music performance and literature The book offers insight into the nature of art in the 1960s as it traces the international development of the collective's unique intermedia works including event scores and Fluxbox multiples that irreversibly expanded the boundaries of contemporary art

Almost nothing Anna Dezeuze, 2016-12-21 What does an assemblage made out of crumpled newspaper have in common with an empty room in which the lights go on and off every five seconds This book argues that they are both examples of a precarious art that flourished from the late 1950s to the first decade of the twenty first century in light of a growing awareness of the individual's fragile existence in capitalist society Focusing on comparative case studies drawn from European North and South American practices this study maps out a network of similar concerns and practices while outlining its evolution from the 1960s to the beginning of the twenty first century This book will provide students and amateurs of contemporary art and culture with new insights into contemporary art practices and the critical issues that they raise concerning the material status of the art object the role of the artist in society and the relation between art and everyday life

George Brecht George Brecht, Julia Robinson, 2005 Essay by Alfred M Fischer Introduction by Kasper König

Words to Be Looked At Liz Kotz, 2010-02-26 A critical study of the use of language and the proliferation of text in 1960s art and experimental music with close examinations of works by Vito Acconci Carl Andre John Cage Douglas Huebler Andy Warhol Lawrence Weiner La Monte Young and others Language has been a primary element in visual art since the 1960s in the form of printed texts painted signs words on the wall recorded speech and more In Words to Be Looked At Liz Kotz traces this practice to its beginnings examining works of visual art poetry and experimental music created in and around New York City from 1958 to 1968 In many of these works language has been reduced to an object nearly emptied of meaning Robert Smithson described a 1967 exhibition at the Dwan Gallery as consisting of Language to be Looked at and or Things to be Read Kotz considers the paradox of artists living in a time of social upheaval who use words but chose not to make statements with them Kotz traces the proliferation of text in 1960s art to the use of words in musical notation and short performance scores She makes two works the bookends of her study the text score for John Cage's legendary 1952 work 4 33 written instructions directing a performer to remain silent during three arbitrarily determined time brackets and Andy Warhol's notorious a novel twenty four hours of endless talk taped and transcribed published by Grove Press in 1968 Examining works by artists and poets including Vito Acconci Carl Andre George Brecht Douglas Huebler Joseph Kosuth Jackson Mac Low and Lawrence Weiner Kotz argues that the turn to language in 1960s art was a reaction to the development of new recording and transmission media words took on a new materiality and urgency in the face of magnetic sound videotape and other emerging electronic technologies Words to Be Looked At is generously illustrated with images of many important and influential but little known works

Analog Game Studies: Volume IV Evan Torner, Aaron Trammell, Emma Leigh Waldron, Shelly Jones, Unfinished Kelly Baum, Andrea Bayer, Sheena Wagstaff, 2016-03-01 This groundbreaking book explores the evolving concept of unfinishedness as essential to understanding art movements from the Renaissance to the present day Unfinished features more than 200 works created in a variety of media by artists ranging from Leonardo Titian Rembrandt Turner and C zanne to Picasso Warhol Twombly Freud Richter and Nauman What unites these works across centuries and media is that each one displays some aspect of being unfinished Essays and case studies by major contemporary scholars address this key concept from the perspective of both the creator and the viewer probing the impact that this long artistic trajectory which can be traced back to the first century has had on modern and contemporary art The book investigates the degrees to which instances of incompleteness were accidental or intentional experimental or conceptual Also included are illuminating interviews with contemporary artists including Tuymans Celmins and Marden and parallel considerations of the unfinished in literature and film The result is a multidisciplinary approach and thought provoking analysis that provide valuable insight into the making meaning and critical reception of the unfinished in art

Claes Oldenburg's Theater of Vision Nadja Rottner, 2023-11-10 In four chronologically organized chapters this study traces the conceptual dependence and deep connectivity among Claes Oldenburg's poetry sculpture films and performance art between 1956 and 1965 This research intensive book argues that Oldenburg's art relies on machine vision and other metaphors to visualize the structure and image content of human thought as an artistic problem Anchored in new oral history interviews and extensive archival material it brings together understudied visual and concrete poetry experimental films fifteen group performances commonly referred to as happenings and a close analysis of his well known installations of The Street 1960 and The Store 1961 62 effectively setting in place a reexamination of Oldenburg's pop art from the street store home and cinema years The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history film studies performance studies literature intermedia studies and media theory

The Ashgate Research Companion to Experimental Music James Saunders, 2017-02-03 The recent resurgence of experimental music has given rise to a more divergent range of practices than has previously been the case The Ashgate Research Companion to Experimental Music reflects these recent developments by providing examples of current thinking and presenting detailed case studies that document the work of contemporary figures The book examines fourteen current practitioners by interrogating their artistic practices through annotated interviews contextualized by nine authored chapters which explore central issues that emerge from and inform these discussions Whilst focusing on composition the book also encompasses related aspects of performance improvisation and sonic art The interviews all explore how the selected artists work focusing on the processes involved in developing their recent projects set against more general aesthetic concerns They aim to shed light on the disparate nature of current work whilst seeking to find possible points of contact Many of the practitioners are active in areas that span disciplines such as composition and improvisation and the book explores the interaction of these activities in the context of their work The other chapters consider a range of issues pertinent to recent developments in the genre including definitions of experimentalism and its relationship with a broader avant garde experimentalism and cultural change notation and its effect on composition realising open scores issues of notation and interpretation in live electronic music performing experimental music improvisation and technology improvisation and social meaning instrumentalizing objects visual artists relationships to experimental music working across interdisciplinary boundaries listening and the soundscape working methods techniques and aesthetics of recent experimental music

Blixa Bargeld and Einstürzende Neubauten: German Experimental Music Jennifer Shryane, 2016-04-08 At the end of his life Pierre Schaeffer commented that his musical and sound experiments had attempted to go beyond do re mi This had a direct bearing on Einstürzende Neubauten's musical philosophy and work with the musicians always striving to extend the boundaries of music in sound instrumentation and purpose The group are one of the few examples of rock based artists who have been able to sustain a breadth and depth of work in a variety of media over a number of years while remaining experimental and open to development Jennifer Shryane provides a much needed analysis of the group's important place in popular experimental music history She illustrates their innovations with found and self constructed instrumentation their Artaudian performance strategies and textual concerns as well as their methods of independence Einstürzende Neubauten have also made a consistent and unique contribution to the development of the independent German Language Contemporary Music scene which although often acknowledged as influential is still rarely examined

Aesthetics of Interaction in Digital Art Katja Kwastek, 2015-08-21 An art historical perspective on interactive media art that provides theoretical and methodological tools for understanding and analyzing digital art Since the 1960s artworks that involve the participation of the spectator have received extensive scholarly attention Yet interactive artworks using digital media still present a challenge for academic art history In this book Katja Kwastek argues that the particular aesthetic experience enabled by these new media works can open up new perspectives for our understanding of art and media alike Kwastek herself an art historian offers a set of theoretical and methodological tools that are suitable for understanding and analyzing not only new media art but also other contemporary art forms Addressing both the theoretician and the practitioner Kwastek provides an introduction to the history and the terminology of interactive art a theory of the aesthetics of interaction and exemplary case studies of interactive media art Kwastek lays the historical and theoretical groundwork and then develops an aesthetics of interaction discussing such aspects as real space and data space temporal structures instrumental and phenomenal perspectives and the relationship between materiality and interpretability Finally she applies her theory to specific works of interactive media art including narratives in virtual and real space interactive installations and performance with case studies of works by Olia Lialina Susanne Berkenheger Stefan Schemat Teri Rueb Lynn Hershman Agnes Heged s Tmema David Rokeby Sonia Cillari and Blast Theory

Neo-Avant-Garde, 2016-08-01 The neo avant garde of the 1950s 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment This collection of essays represents the first full scale attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art particularly painting and sculpture thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field but a number of the contributions also focus on poetry performance theatre film architecture and music Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo avant garde studies with thematic issues such as art s entanglement with gender mass culture and politics with key neo avant garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic this collection offers a multi dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere Taken together these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post World War II period

Black Screens, White Frames Tanya Shilina-Conte, Assistant Professor Department of English Tanya Shilina-Conte, 2024-11-22 Black Screens White Frames offers a new understanding of blank screens in cinema Drawing on Gilles Deleuze's film philosophy and pursuing an affirmative approach to non images through the concept of the filmmaking machine author Tanya Shilina Conte shows how absence can be a productive mode that alters the way we study film

Soft Is Fast Meredith Morse, 2023-08-15 An innovative analysis of Simone Forti's interdisciplinary art viewing her influential 1960s dance constructions as negotiating the aesthetic strategies of John Cage and Anna Halprin Simone Forti's art developed within the overlapping circles of New York City's advanced visual art dance and music of the early 1960s Her dance constructions and related works of the 1960s were important for both visual art and dance of the era Artists Robert Morris and Yvonne Rainer have both acknowledged her influence Forti seems to have kept one foot inside visual art's frames of meaning and the other outside them In Soft Is Fast Meredith Morse adopts a new way to understand Forti's work based in art historical analysis but drawing upon dance history and cultural studies and the history of American social thought Morse argues that Forti introduced a form of direct encounter that departed radically from the spectatorship proposed by Minimalism and prefigured the participatory art of recent decades Morse shows that Forti's work negotiated John Cage's ideas of sound score and theater through the unique approach to movement essentially improvisational and grounded in anatomical exploration that she learned from performer and teacher Ann later Anna Halprin Attentive to Robert Whitman's and La Monte Young's responses to Cage Forti reshaped Cage's concepts into models that could accommodate Halprin's charged spaces and imagined interpenetrative understanding of other bodies Morse considers Forti's use of sound and her affective use of materials as central to her work examines Forti's text pieces little discussed in art historical literature analyzes Huddle considered one of Forti's signature works and explicates Forti's later improvisational practice Forti has been relatively overlooked by art historians perhaps because of her work's central concern with modes of feeling and embodiment unlike other art of the 1960s which was characterized by strategies of depersonalization and affectlessness Soft Is Fast corrects this critical oversight Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2006
