everything Martin Luther Sojourner Truth Helen Keller St Patrick We read their stories and of other people like them in history books and hear about the amazing things they did to change the world But one part of the story is often left out Each one of them wouldn t have accomplished what they did without prayer In this book from bestselling author Tricia Goyer the stories of twenty five notable people are presented along with the major prayer that changed their lives and changed history

Following each historical example is a biblical story that ties to that person's life and actions as well as ways you can use the power of prayer in your life as well. Because God isn't done changing the world yet and he would love to use you to make history. Includes images of each historical figure. God Will Provide Patricia Treece, 2011-11-01 A specialist in human goodness, divine providence, and recent saints, Patricia Treece offers the fruits of years of research on how God meets the financial needs in varying ways or his people. Mother Teresa of Calcutta, for instance, refused to let anyone raise money in her name, insisting if God wanted something done through her, he'd send the money. Other friends of God did seek donations and got them in amazing ways. In this lively book, she offers copious examples of miracles, answered prayers, and nine universal principles to live by so you can join those who know in good times or bad, God will provide. The Story of Faith Missions

Klaus Fiedler, 1994. The Leader's Wife Debby Thompson, 2018-05-11 As a woman leading a life of influence, you may find yourself without sufficient clarity or equipping for the challenges you face. For many, the role of wife of a leader is one thrust upon rather than chosen. For others, it is a responsibility embraced but no less complicated to navigate. In either case, as one sharing a journey with a world changer, this book is for you. Debby Thompson has spent decades listening to the voices of tried and tested women, and her experiences have instilled a sense of urgency in her to pass on the insights she has gleaned. Within The Leader's Wife, she addresses some of the most difficult questions facing wives of leaders. With vulnerability and candor, Debby speaks from her own mistakes and discoveries. The Leader's Wife offers not a job description but a GPS. It is a blueprint without how-to's and ought-to's for igniting within you what the Creator has already designed. The Biblical teaching, personal stories, and hard-won lessons Debby communicates will guide and empower you to live with eternal intentionality.

China's Millions Austin, 2007-03-05 Banner-carrying Salvation Army marchers, stone-silent Quakers, jumpy Midwestern revivalists, and Prayer-book Anglicans all made up the mixed multitude sent to the Middle Kingdom by the China Inland Mission (CIM) in the nineteenth century. In China's Millions, veteran historian Alwyn Austin crafts a compelling narrative of the sprawling history of the China Inland Mission. This book introduces readers to a remarkable array of sights, from the visionary charismatic sect leader Pastor Hsi to the wordless book, a missionary teaching device that fit perfectly with Chinese color cosmology, to the opium-soaked aftermath of the North China Famine of 1877-79. Clear, readable, and well-researched, China's Millions digs deeply into the Chinese and Western past to tell a story of the strange yet hopeful result of two cultures colliding. Publisher: Fireproof Your Life Study Guide Rebecca English, 2018-03-26. High Calvinists in Action Ian J. Shaw, 2003-02-06 This valuable contribution to the debate about the relation of religion to the modern city fills an important gap in the historiography of early nineteenth-century religious life. Although there is some evidence that strict doctrine led to a more restricted response to urban problems, extensive local and personal variations mean that simple generalizations should be avoided. Ian J. Shaw argues against earlier prejudiced views and shows that high Calvinists played a vigorous and successful part in the response of early nineteenth-century churches to the process of urbanization. The study includes six substantial case studies of ministers and their churches in Manchester and London Four high Calvinist ministers are considered with two studies of ministers holding to an evangelical Calvinist doctrine also included to provide instructive contrasts Detailed social analysis of the congregations is based upon extensive use of manuscript and printed sources sermons and local and denominational press

Exporting the Rapture Donald H. Akenson, 2018-08-14 Apocalyptic millennialism is one of the most powerful strands in evangelical Christianity It is not a single belief but across many powerful evangelical groups there is general adhesion to faith in the physical return of Jesus in the Second Coming the affirmation of a Rapture heavenward of saved believers a millennium of peace under the rule of Jesus and his saints and eventually a final judgement and entry into deep eternity In Discovering the End of Time 2016 Donald Harman Akenson traced the emergence of the primary packaging of modern apocalyptic millennialism back to southern Ireland in the 1820s and 30s In Exporting the Rapture he documents for the first time how the complex theological construction that has come to dominate modern evangelical thought was enshrouded in an organizational system that made it exportable from the British Isles to North America and subsequently around the world A key figure in this process was John Nelson Darby who was at first a formative influence on evangelical apocalypticism in Ireland then the volatile central figure in Brethren apocalypticism throughout the British Isles and also a crusty but ultimately very successful missionary to the United States and Canada Akenson emphasizes that as strong a personality as John Nelson Darby was the real story is that he became a vector for the transmission of a terrifically complex and highly seductive ideological system from the old world to the new So beguiling adaptable and compelling was the new Dispensational system that Darby injected into North American evangelicalism that it continued to spread logarithmically after his death By the 1920s the system had become the doctrinal template of the fundamentalist branch of North American evangelicalism and the distinguishing characteristic of the bestselling Scofield Bible
