Communities and Educational Possibilities Yasuko Kanno, Bonny Norton, 2012-12-06 Imagined Communities and Educational Possibilities focuses on three main themes imaged communities expand the range of possible selves technological advances in the last two decades have had a significant impact on what is possible to imagine and imagination at even the most personal level is related to social ideologies and hegemonies The diverse studies in this issue demonstrate convincingly that learners and teachers are capable of imagining the world as different from prevailing realities Moreover time and energy can be invested to strive for the realization of alternative visions of the future Research in this special issue suggests that investment in such imagined communities offers intriguing possibilities for social and educational change

Metaphor in Use Fiona MacArthur, Jose Luis Oncins-Martinez, Manuel Sánchez-García, Ana María Piquer-Píriz, 2012 Metaphor is a fascinating phenomenon but it is also complex and multi faceted varying in how it is manifested in different modes of expression languages cultures or time scales How then can we reliably identify metaphors in different contexts How does the language or culture of speakers and hearers affect the way metaphors are produced or interpreted Are the methods employed to explore metaphors in one context applicable in others The sixteen chapters that make up this volume offer not only detailed studies of the situated use of metaphor in language gesture and visuals around the world providing important insights into the different factors that produce variation but also careful explication and discussion of the methodological issues that arise when researchers approach metaphor in diverse real world contexts The book constitutes an important contribution to applied metaphor studies and will prove an invaluable resource for the novice and experienced metaphor researcher alike

The Handbook of Applied Linguistics Alan Davies, Catherine Elder, 2008-04-15 The Handbook of Applied Linguistics is a collection of newly commissioned articles that provide a comprehensive and up to date picture of the field of Applied Linguistics Provides a comprehensive and current picture of the field of Applied Linguistics Contains 32 newly commissioned articles that examine both the applications of linguistics to language data and the use of real world language to ameliorate social problems Valuable resource for students and researchers in applied linguistics language teaching and second language acquisition Presents applied linguistics as an independent discipline that unifies practical experience and theoretical understanding of language development and language in use Perspectives on Classifier

Constructions in Sign Languages Karen Emmorey, 2003-04-02 Classifier constructions are universal to sign languages and exhibit unique properties that arise from the nature of the visual gestural modality. The major goals are to bring to light critical issues related to the study of classifier constructions and to present state of the art linguistic and psycholinguistic analyses of these constructions. It is hoped that by doing so more researchers will be inspired to investigate the nature of classifier constructions across signed languages and further explore the unique aspects of these forms. The papers in this volume discuss the following issues: how sign language classifiers differ from spoken languages; cross linguistic variation in sign language classifier systems; the role of gesture; the nature of morpho syntactic and phonological constraints on classifier constructions; the grammaticization process for these forms; and the acquisition of classifier forms. Divided into four parts, groups of papers focus on a particular set of issues and commentary papers end each section.
