Intelligent Agents VII. Agent Theories Architectures and Languages Cristiano Castelfranchi, Yves Lesperance, 2003-07-31 Intelligent agents are one of the most important developments in computer science of the past decade Agents are of interest in many important application areas ranging from human computer interaction to industrial process control The ATAL workshop series aims to bring together researchers interested in the core micro aspects of agent technology Specifically ATAL addresses issues such as theories of agency software architectures for intelligent agents methodologies and programming languages for realizing agents and software tools for applying and evaluating agent systems One of the strengths of the ATAL workshop series is its emphasis on the synergies between theories languages architectures infrastructures methodologies and formal methods This year's workshop continued the ATAL trend of attracting a large number of high quality submissions In more detail 71 papers were submitted to the ATAL 2000 workshop from 21 countries After stringent reviewing 22 papers were accepted for publication and appear in these proceedings As with previous workshops in the series we chose to emphasize what we perceive as important new themes in agent research This year's themes were both associated with the fact that the technology of intelligent agents and multi agent systems is beginning to migrate from research labs to software engineering centers As agents are deployed in applications such as electronic commerce and start to take over responsibilities for their human users techniques for controlling their autonomy become crucial As well the availability of tools that facilitate the design and implementation of agent systems becomes an important factor in how rapidly the technology will achieve widespread use Information Science 101 Anthony Debons, 2008-10-17 Information Science 101 helps high school and college freshman identify and understand careers in information science With this text author Anthony Debons one of the early founders of the discipline of Information Science gives attention to the role of various disciplines

Equity and Trusts Alastair Hudson, 2016-07-15 Alastair Hudson's Equity and Trusts is an ideal textbook for undergraduate courses on the law of trusts and equitable remedies It provides a clear current and comprehensive account of the subject The author's enthusiasm and expertise shine through helping to bring to life an area of the law which students often find challenging This Ninth Edition has been extensively re-written but remains the same book in spirit as it has always been It contains an analysis of the important decisions of the Supreme Court in FHR European Ventures v Cedar Capital Jones v Kernott and Williams v Central Bank of Nigeria and the important decisions in Charity Commission v Framjee Rawstron v Freud Patel v Mirza Federal Republic of Brazil v Durant Hodkin Novoship v Mihaylyuk National Crime Agency v Robb St Andrews Cheam Lawn Tennis Club the after effects of the Lehman Brothers collapse and analysis of many other new cases besides Equity and Trusts remains the most comprehensive and up to date coverage of the law of Equity and Trusts while still a lively and thoughtful account of the issues raised by it This book has been cited as being authoritative in the courts of numerous countries The ninth edition is supported by the author's website at www.alastairhudson.com with brand new resources including short podcasts discussing and clarifying key topics from within the book which cover an entire course complete lecture recordings made specifically to accompany this book New video documentaries bringing to life selected key topics A host of other online materials and study guides new for 2016 Review of a previous edition One of the book's great strengths is its clear exposition of some very difficult areas of the law moving seamlessly from points that puzzle students to points that puzzle practitioners Other strengths are the breadth of its approach the fact that it is extremely up to date the freshness and vividness of its approach and its willingness to place equity in a wider context The student will enjoy a clear lively and challenging account of the subject matter The practitioner will find the book well worth consulting for its clear exposition of the basic principles and of their application in difficult areas New Law Journal Proceedings of the 3rd Universitas Lampung International Conference on Social Sciences (ULICoSS 2022) Ryzal Perdana, Gede Eka Putrawan, Bayu Saputra, Trio Yuda Septiawan, 2023-05-03 This is an open access book The 3rd Universitas Lampung International Conference on Social Sciences ULICoSS 2022 ULICoSS 2022 is an international conference organized by the Institute for Research and Community Services Universitas Lampung Indonesia The event took place on 6th 7th September 2022 in Bandar Lampung City on the Indonesian island of Sumatra This event will adopt a hybrid working model combining an in person event with an online meeting via Zoom Attendees and presenters are expected to interact in this way using technology to connect to global networks As has been widely stated in the literature a number of reports and papers have examined the pandemic s negative effects with the majority of work to date focusing on COVID 19 s negative impact on psychological well being Thus social adjustment is required for resilience in order to adapt to and change in the face of adversity In other words it is clear that social adjustment which includes the specific behaviors and abilities that people use to deal with daily problems and adapt to changing circumstances is critical for global resilience today As such this international conference which will feature five invited keynote speakers from the Czech Republic Hungary Indonesia and Japan is intended to serve as a forum for the dissemination of specific alternative and significant breakthroughs in rapid social adjustments for global resilience with an emphasis on global society social welfare and development and innovative communication among other topics Therefore we invite scholars academics researchers experts practitioners and university students to participate and share perspectives experiences and research findings by submitting papers on a variety of topics relevant to the conference s theme and scope All abstracts and papers submitted for consideration will undergo a double blind peer review process to ensure their quality relevance and originality

Experience, Variation and Generalization Inbal Arnon,Eve V. Clark,2011 Are all children exposed to the same linguistic input and do they follow the same route in acquisition The answer is no The language that children hear differs even within a social class or cultural setting as do the paths individual children take The linguistic signal itself is also variable both within and across speakers the same sound is different across words the same speech act can be realized with different constructions The challenge here is to explain given their diversity of experience how children arrive at similar generalizations about their first language This volume brings together studies of phonology morphology and syntax in development to present a new perspective on how experience and variation shape children s linguistic generalizations The papers deal with variation in forms learning processes and speaker features and assess the impact of variation on the mechanisms and outcomes of language learning
