High Tea At Halekulani:

High Tea at Halekulani Margit Misangyi Watts, 1993 The Outdoor Circle changed the face of Hawaii forever This book tells the dramatic and fascinating story of this women s club for the first time Founded in 1911 the organization has been dedicated for over eighty years to the preservation and enhancement of the islands Based on the extensive files of the organization Margit Misangyi Watts book includes numerous photographs and documents many never before published It is essential reading for anyone interested in Hawaii in the history of women or in feminist theory Women and Children First Judith Dean Gething Hughes, 1996-03-01 Historian Gerda Lerner posed the question What would history be like if seen through the eyes of women In this insightful and sympathetic look at Hawaii s first female territorial senator Elsie Wilcox 1874 1954 Judith Dean Gething Hughes adapts Lerner s question to tell the story of a remarkable woman whose life reflects key aspects of the social history of modern Hawaii the enormous impact of nineteenth century missionaries and of the sugar plantations which dominated Hawaii s economy for nearly a century after the Civil War the powerful influence of the American progressive movement in public education and social welfare and the onset of the bloodless revolution of the 1950s which replaced the Caucasian Republican oligarchy with a Democratic party led by second generation Asian Americans The grandchild of missionaries and the niece of a prosperous Kauai sugar planter Wilcox was born and raised on her uncle s plantation Unlike many of her peers however Wilcox did not marry but pursued a full time career as an advocate for change including education improved health and full participation in the life of the community for second generation Asian Americans Hughes looks to Wilcox s missionary heritage to reveal the values that shaped her character and to her education at Wellesley College which transformed her into a Progressive and by the standards of the early twentieth century a feminist Hughes argues that although Wilcox s education and prominent social standing contributed to making her an old maid they also enabled her to serve as Kauai s commissioner for education for twelve years until her election to the territorial Senate in 1932 and 1936 There she established herself as the Senate s conscience on women s and children s issues and played a key role in creating Hawaii s social security laws Women and Children First not only details the life of one of Hawaii s most dedicated social reformers but also provides insights into the historical development of Kauai and Hawaii in general from 1910 to 1940 Light in the Queen's Garden Sandra E. Bonura, 2017-10-31 At the end of the 1800s when Oberlin graduate Ida May Pope accepted a teaching job at Kawaiaha o Seminary a boarding school for girls she couldn t have imagined it would become a lifelong career of service to Hawaiian women or that she would become closely involved in the political turmoil soon to sweep over the Kingdom of Hawai i Light in the Queen s Garden offers for the first time a day by day accounting of the events surrounding the coup d tat as seen through the eyes of Pope s young students Author Sandra Bonura uses recently discovered primary sources to help enliven the historical account of the 1893 Hawaiian Revolution that happened literally outside the school s windows Queen Lili uokalani s adopted daughter s long lost oral history recording many of Pope's teaching contemporaries unpublished diaries letters and scrapbooks and rare photographs tell a story that has never been told before Towering royal personages in Hawai'i's history King Kalikau Queen Lili'uokalani and Princess Kaiulani appear in the book as Ida Pope sheltered Hawai'i's daughters through the frightening and turbulent end of their sovereign nation Pope was present during the life celebrations of the king and then his sad death rituals She traveled with Lili'uokalani on her controversial trip to Kalaupapa to visit Mother Marianne Cope and afflicted pupils In 1894 with the endorsement of Lili'uokalani and Charles Bishop Pope helped to establish the Kamehameha School for Girls funded by the estate of Princess Pauahi Bishop and became its first principal Inspired by John Dewey and others she shaped and reshaped Kamehameha's curriculum through a process of conflict and compromise Fired up by the era's doctrine of social and vocational relevance she adapted the curriculum to prepare her students for entry into meaningful careers Lili'uokalani's daughter Lydia Aholo was placed in the school and Pope played a significant role in mothering and shaping her future especially during the years the queen was fighting to restore her kingdom As Hawai'i moved into the twentieth century under a new flag Pope tenaciously confronted the effects of industrialization and the growing concentration of outside economic power working tirelessly to attain social reforms to give Hawaiian women their rightful place in society

Women of Color Diane Long Hoeveler, Janet K. Boles, 2001-08-30 Beginning in the late 1960s women's studies scholars worked to introduce courses on the history literature and philosophies of women While these initial efforts were rather general women's studies programs have started to give increasing amounts of attention to the special concerns of women of color The topic itself is politically charged and there is growing awareness that the issues facing women of color are diverse and complex Expert contributors offer chapters on the major concerns facing women of color in the modern world particularly in the United States and Latin America Each chapter treats one or more groups of women who have been underrepresented in women's studies scholarship or have had their experiences misinterpreted including African Americans Latina Americans Asian Americans and Native Americans Women of Color includes chapters on theories related to race gender and identity One section provides discussions of literature by women of color including works by such authors as Toni Morrison and Maxine Hong Kingston The book also focuses on the place of women of color in higher education including chapters on women of color and the women's studies curriculum and the role of librarians in shaping women's studies programs

Student Engagement and Information Literacy Craig Gibson, 2006 An assessment of and instruction on information literacy in curriculum

Women and American Politics Susan J. Carroll, 2003 This volume brings together leading scholars in the field of women and politics to provide an account of recent developments and the challenges that the future brings for women in American Politics The book examines women's participation in the electoral arena and the emerging scholarship on the relationship between the media and women in politics the participation of women of colour and women's activism outside the electoral arena This volume demonstrates both the wealth of knowledge about women and American politics by the current generation of scholars and the vast number and range of important research questions which pose a challenge for the next generation

Citizen of Empire Theresa Kaminski, 2024-01-12 Ethel Thomas Herold 1896 1988 was an ordinary person caught up in extraordinary circumstances a woman whose sense of patriotic duty took her from small town Wisconsin to the Philippines in 1922 There with but a couple of brief interruptions she would spend the next thirty seven years including three in a Japanese internment camp during World War II In Citizen of Empire Theresa Kaminski uses Ethel s experiences of war and imperialism to explore a unique example of how those enormous forces helped shape Americans notions of citizenship and patriotism in the first half of the twentieth century As Kaminski s absorbing narrative reveals Ethel s views of active patriotism began to form early on when her oldest brother became a schoolteacher in the Philippines in 1901 at the end of the Spanish American War After college and marriage Ethel and her husband Elmer Herold went to the islands to teach in the public schools a way in her view of spreading American ideals abroad She quit teaching in 1927 to start a family but continued to support U S imperialism through her colonial household and club work Her comfortable expatriate life fell apart however when the Japanese attacked the Philippines in 1941 the colonial elite were now powerless prisoners After the war wishing to help the people who had supported them during the occupation Ethel and Elmer Herold stayed in the islands but after Philippine independence came in 1946 they increasingly found themselves strangers in a place they had long called home In 1959 the couple returned to Wisconsin where Ethel remained politically active and saw the solution to America s Cold War problems in the conservative wing of the Republican Party Ethel Thomas Herold was a woman of forceful personality Marked most notably by her strongly held views on patriotism and citizenship her transpacific life offers a remarkable instance of how the personal and political came together during the American century Theresa Kaminski is professor of history at the University of Wisconsin Stevens Point and the author of Prisoners in Paradise American Women in the Wartime South Pacific

Hawai'i's Scenic Roads Dawn E. Duensing, 2015-03-31 Hawai i s Scenic Roads examines a century of overland transportation from the Kingdom s first constitutional government until World War II discovering how roads in the world s most isolated archipelago rivaled those on the U S mainland Building Hawai i s roads was no easy feat as engineers confronted a unique combination of circumstances extreme isolation mountainous topography torrential rains deserts volcanic eruptions earthquakes and on Haleakal freezing temperatures By investigating the politics and social processes that facilitated road projects this study explains that foreign settlers wanted roads to civilize the Hawaiians and promote western economic development specifically agriculture Once sugar became the dominant driver in the economy civic and political leaders turned their attention to constructing scenic roads Viewed as commercial enterprises scenic byways became an essential factor in establishing tourism as Hawai i s third crop after sugar and pineapple These thoroughfares also served as playgrounds for the islands elite residents and wealthy visitors who could afford the luxury of carriage driving and after 1900 motorcars Duensing s provocative analysis of the 1924 Hawai i Bill of Rights reveals that roads played a critical role in redefining the Territory of Hawai i s status within the United States Politicians and civic leaders focused on highway funding to argue that Hawai i was an integral part of the Union thus entitled to be treated as if it were a state By accepting this Bill of Rights Congress confirmed the territory s claim to access federal programs especially highway aid Washington s subsequent involvement in Hawaii increased as did the islands dependence on the national government Federal money helped the territory weather the Great Depression as it became enmeshed in New Deal programs and philosophy Although primarily an economic protest the Hawai i Bill of Rights was a crucial stepping stone on the path to eventual statehood in 1959 The core of this book is the intriguing tales of road projects that established the islands most renowned scenic drives including the Pali Highway byways around K lauea Volcano Haleakal Highway and the H na Belt Road The author s unique approach provides a fascinating perspective for understanding Hawai i s social dynamics as well as its political environmental and economic history

Respectability as Moral Map and Public Discourse in the Nineteenth Century Woodruff D. Smith, 2017-07-20 Despite the fact that respectability is universally recognized as a feature of nineteenth century society it has seldom been studied as a subject in itself In this path breaking book Woodruff D Smith interprets respectability as a highly significant cultural phenomenon incorporating both a moral imaginary or map and a distinctive discourse Respectability was constructed in the public spheres of Europe and the Americas and eventually came to be an aspect of social life throughout the world From its origins in the late eighteenth century it was a conscious response to what were perceived as undesirable aspects of modernity It became a central feature of concepts of the modern itself and an essential part of the processes that in the twentieth century came to be called modernization and cultural globalization Respectability though typically associated with the bourgeoisie existed independently of any particular social class and strongly affected modern constructions of class in general and of gender Although not an ideology respectability was overtly embedded in several political discourses especially those of movements such as antislavery which claimed to transcend politics While it may no longer be a coherent entity in culture and discourse respectability continues to affect contemporary public life through a fragmentary legacy
