cemeteries are one of the most prominent cultural landscapes of Israel Their story reflects largely the main social processes that Israeli society has been undergoing since the War of Independence 1948 until today Until the end of the 1970s the military tombstones and their surroundings were uniform and equal according to rules set by the State However since the 1980s families of the fallen soldiers started to add on the tombstone personal expressions as well as personal objects photographs military artifacts etc Thus the military tombstone and the Israeli military cemetery became one of the expressions of the dramatic transformation from a society which emphasized the importance of the collective to a society which intensifies the significance of the individual The book is based on many archival documents as well as interviews and photographs all of which shed light on one of the most sensitive issues in Israeli society and express its importance as a central component of Israeli identity "Aberdeen Journal" Notes and Queries ,1910 If Not, Not Ralph E.

Giesey,2015-12-08 In the 1560 s and the 1570 s several authors outside of Spain recorded the text of an oath supposedly uttered by the Aragonese people when they received their king While most modern historians doubt the authenticity of the oath they agree that it has frequently served the purposes of political propaganda whenever an Aragonese patriot has wished to epitomize his nation s tradition of resistance to tyranny This book studies the oath We who are worth as much as you take you as our king provided that you preserve our laws and liberties and if not not as an example of historiographical fiction which belongs to a complex of legal historical legends about the origins of Aragon Originally published in 1968 The Princeton

Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while
