Art Crossing Borders Jan Dirk Baetens, Dries Lyna, 2019-02-11 Art Crossing Borders offers a thought provoking analysis of the internationalisation of the art market during the long nineteenth century Twelve experts dealing with a wide variety of geographical temporal and commercial contexts explore how the gradual integration of art markets structurally depended on the simultaneous rise of nationalist modes of thinking in unexpected and ambiguous ways By presenting a radically international research perspective Art Crossing Borders offers a crucial contribution to the field of art market studies

Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco, Jack Soultanian, 2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue today the Museum's holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice some typify local styles others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration Using such techniques scholars have been able to ascertain for example that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive enigmatic history From publisher's description

Taking Shape Martina Droth,Penelope Curtis,2009 This exhibition challenges the reasons why sculpture is usually considered alone in the gallery and the decorative arts are considered as part of a period setting It suggests that by breaking away from these conventional categories we can see how sculpture is also part of a spatial conversation and how furniture and fittings can be appreciated as unique works With five original essays and forty complete catalogue entries this publication both documents an exhibition and goes beyond it opening our eyes to the fluidity of formal language in the long eighteenth century and to the ways in which objects can change according to whether they are seen together or apart as mobile or fixed as two or three dimensional as ideal or as functional Book Jacket
