Hos The Ecumenical Movement A Future:

Has the ecumenical movement a future? Willem Adolph Visser't Hooft, 1974 Ecumenism in Retreat Martin Camroux, 2016-05-27 In his enthronement sermon as archbishop of Canterbury in 1942 William Temple famously declared the ecumenical movement to be the great new fact of our era In this book Martin Camroux tries to face honestly how hope met reality By the end of the century the enthusiasm had largely dissipated the organizations that represented it were in decline and organic unity looked further away than ever One significant ecumenical merger took place in Britain the creation in 1972 of the United Reformed Church which saw its formation as a catalyst for ecumenical renewal Its hopes however were largely illusory With the failure of its ecumenical hope the church had little idea of its purpose found great difficulty establishing an identity and faced a catastrophic implosion in membership This first serious study of the United Reformed Church also includes groundbreaking analysis of the unity process the mixed fortunes of Local Ecumenical Projects and how the national ecumenical organizations withered All of this is put in the wider context of religion in British society including secularization individualism and post denominationalism What failed was not ecumenism but a particular model of it and the book ends with a commitment to a renewed ecumenical hope The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth From Times Square to Timbuktu Wesley Granberg-Michaelson, 2013-08-18 In the last century amazingly world Christianity's center of gravity has effectively moved from Europe to a point near Timbuktu in Africa Never in the history of Christianity has there been such a rapid and dramatic shift in where Christians are located in the world Wesley Granberg Michaelson explores the consequences of this shift for congregations in North America specifically for the efforts to build Christian unity in the face of new and challenging divisions Centers of religious power money and theological capital remain entrenched in the global secularized North while the Christian majority thrives and rapidly grows in the global South World Christianity's most decisive twenty first century challenge Granberg Michaelson argues is to build meaningful bridges between faithful churches in the global North and the spiritually exuberant churches of the global South Watch the trailer South African Perspectives on Notions and Forms of Ecumenicity Ernst M. Conradie, 2013-12-01 South African Perspectives on Notions and Forms of Ecumenicity is the second in a series of publications on the interface between ecumenical theology and social transformation in the South African context It explores the underlying tensions in the ecumenical movement from within the South African context by analysing various notions of what ecumenicity entails It includes a leading essay by Ernst Conradie and 13 responses to the theme by experts in the field Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit, 2007-04-01 What is the role of the church in society What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid in the struggle against apartheid and during the period of transformation The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these They

Can a Renewal Movement Be Renewed? Michael Kinnamon,2014-05-18 Does ecumenism have a future What would it mean to take the next step in ecumenical and interfaith relations Is the ecumenical movement a movement for peace What can the churches say together about the church What can the churches say together about the environment Can the tension between unity and justice be overcome Has the ecumenical movement become too political What is the way forward for Catholic Protestant relations How can the Orthodox help others understand them better How are interfaith relationships as challenging as they are necessary How can we deal with the tough issues in Jewish Christian relations Are councils of churches a thing of the past What does it take to be an ecumenical leader What will it take to revitalize the ecumenical movement Why care about Christian unity when there are so many other things to worry about
