Hot Spell Emma Holly, Shiloh Walker, Lora Leigh, Meljean Brook, 2006 This anthology of paranormal romances includes Lora Leigh's The Breed Next Door Shiloh Walker's The Blood Kiss Emma Holly's The Countess's Dancing Boy and Meljean Brook's Falling for Anthony in which a childhood friend comes back from the dead to protect a young woman's brother from evil Reprint Technical Report, 1963 Technical Report ES, 1961 Schedule 5 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance, 1929 Medical Times, 1914 Environmental Health Series, Technical Paper United States. Weather Bureau, 1949 A Thrice-Told Tale Margery Wolf, 1992-04 A Thrice Told Tale is one ethnographer's imaginative and powerful response to the methodological issues raised by feminist and postmodernist critics of traditional ethnography The author a feminist anthropologist uses three texts developed out of her research in Taiwan a piece of fiction anthropological fieldnotes and a social science article to explore some of these criticisms Each text takes a different perspective is written in a different style and has different outcomes yet all three involve the same fascinating set of events A young mother began to behave in a decidedly aberrant perhaps suicidal manner and opinion in her village was sharply divided over the reason Was she becoming a shaman possessed by a god Was she deranged in need of physical restraint drugs and hospitalization Or was she being cynically manipulated by her never do well husband to elicit sympathy and money from her neighbors In the end the woman was taken away from the area to her mother's house For some villagers this settled the matter for others the debate over her behavior was probably never truly resolved The first text is a short story written shortly after the incident which occurred almost thirty years ago the second text is a copy of the fieldnotes collected about the events covered in the short story the third text is an article published in 1990 in American Ethnologist that analyzes the incident from the author's current perspective Following each text is a Commentary in which the author discusses such topics as experimental ethnography polyvocality authorial presence and control reflexivity and some of the differences between fiction and ethnography The three texts are framed by two chapters in which the author discusses the general problems posed by feminist and postmodernist critics of ethnography and presents her personal exploration of these issues in an argument that is strongly self reflexive and theoretically rigorous She considers some feminist concerns over colonial research methods and takes issues with the insistence of some feminists that the topics of ethnographic research be set by those who are studied The book concludes with a plea for ethnographic responsibility based on a less academic and more practical perspective Ice and Refrigeration, 1911 Public Health Service Publication, 1952 Seminar on Human Biometeorology, 1967 Monthly Bulletin Boston (Mass.) Health Dept, 1927 Monthly Bulletin of the Health Department of the City of Boston Boston (Mass.). Health Department, 1928 Climate of Fear Thomas Gale Moore, 1998 The book calls into question the entire campaign led by Vice President Al Gore and others to ratify the proposed treaty on global warming scheduled to be debated in the U S Senate early in 1998 Seed world, 1920 Curve Ball Jim Albert, Jay

Bennett,2007-11-23 A look at baseball data from a statistical modeling perspective There is a fascination among baseball fans and the media to collect data on every imaginable event during a baseball game and this book addresses a number of questions that are of interest to many baseball fans These include how to rate players predict the outcome of a game or the attainment of an achievement making sense of situational data and deciding the most valuable players in the World Series Aimed at a general audience the text does not assume any prior background in probability or statistics although a knowledge of high school algebra will be helpful Tariff ... Hearing ... on H.R. 7456 ... United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance,1921 An Almanack for the Year of Our Lord ...
