Ghost Riders of Upper Egypt Hans Alexander Winkler,2009 In 1933 the German anthropologist Hans Alexander Winkler came across a spirit medium named Abd al Radi in a village near Luxor in Upper Egypt Abd al Radi was periodically possessed by the ghost of his uncle and in that state passed messages to those who came to seek help In an intense study Winkler lays out the construction of the world shared by the rural people with its saints and pilgrims snake charmers and wandering holy men all under the overarching power of God Winkler s book was ahead of its time in analyzing a single institution in its social context and in showing the debates and disagreements about the meaning of such strange events This multilayered study from the 1930s was precocious in its method and conclusions and thus it retains its relevance today not only for Egyptian folklore but also for the history of anthropology in Egypt from the Introduction by Nicholas S Hopkins

Houses from Books Daniel D. Reiff,2010-11-01 Many homes across America have designs based on plans taken from pattern books or mail order catalogs In Houses from Books Daniel D Reiff traces the history of published plans and offers the first comprehensive survey of their influence on the structure and the style of American houses from 1738 to 1950 Houses from Books shows that architectural publications from Palladio s I Quattro Libri to Aladdin s Readi Cut Homes played a decisive role in every aspect of American domestic building Reiff discusses the people and the firms who produced the books as well as the ways in which builders and architects adapted the designs in communities throughout the country His book also offers a wide ranging analysis of the economic and social conditions shaping American building practices As architectural publication developed and grew more sophisticated it played an increasingly prominent part in the design and the construction of domestic buildings In villages and small towns which often did not have professional architects the publications became basic resources for carpenters and builders at all levels of expertise Through the use of published designs they were able to choose among a variety of plans styles and individual motifs and engage in a fruitful dialogue with past and present architects Houses from Books reconstructs this dialogue by examining the links between the published designs and the houses themselves Reiff's book will be indispensable to architectural historians architects preservationists and regional historians Realtors and homeowners will also find it of great interest A catalog at the end of the book can function as a guide for those attempting to locate a model and a date for a particular design Houses from Books contains a wealth of photographs many by the author that enhance its importance as a history and guide Old-House Journal ,2003-09 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division ,

Gendered Bodies Shuqin Cui,2015-10-31 Gendered Bodies introduces readers to women's visual art in contemporary China by examining how the visual process of gendering reshapes understandings of historiography sexuality pain and space When artists take the body as the subject of female experience and the medium of aesthetic experiment they reveal a wealth of noncanonical approaches to art The insertion of women's narratives into Chinese art history rewrites a historiography that has denied legitimacy to the woman artist The gendering of sexuality reveals that the female body incites pleasure in women themselves reversing the dynamic from woman as desired object to woman as desiring subject The gendering of pain demonstrates that for those haunted by the sociopolitical past the body can articulate traumatic memories and psychological torment The gendering of space transforms the female body into an emblem of landscape devastation remaps ruin aesthetics and extends the politics of gender identity into cyberspace and virtual reality The work presents a critical review of women's art in contemporary China in relation to art traditions classical and contemporary Inscribing the female body into art generates not only visual experimentation but also interaction between local art cultural production and global perception While artists may seek inspiration and exhibition space abroad they often reject the Western label feminist artist An extensive analysis of artworks and artists both well and little known provides readers with discursively persuasive and visually provocative evidence Gendered Bodies follows an interdisciplinary approach that general readers as well as scholars will find inspired and inspiring New Rooms for Old Houses Frank Shirley,2007-10-30 Expand your home without sacrificing its soul In New Rooms for Old Houses architect Frank Shirley offers a masterclass in designing additions that honor the character and craftsmanship of traditional homes Drawing on decades of experience and the guiding principle of harmony Shirley walks readers through the essential elements of thoughtful expansion balance transitions public and private space and material integrity This richly illustrated guide includes Case studies and floor plans that show how to integrate new spaces seamlessly with old structures Design strategies for preserving architectural authenticity while meeting modern needs Practical advice on working with architects navigating zoning laws and budgeting for quality Inspiration from historic homes that have been respectfully and beautifully transformed Whether you re a homeowner planning an addition or a design professional seeking timeless solutions this book is an indispensable resource for creating new spaces that feel like they ve always belonged

Me and My House Magdalena J. Zaborowska, 2018-03-29 The last sixteen years of James Baldwin s life 1971 87 unfolded in a village in the South of France in a sprawling house nicknamed Chez Baldwin In Me and My House Magdalena J Zaborowska employs Baldwin s home space as a lens through which to expand his biography and explore the politics and poetics of blackness queerness and domesticity in his complex and underappreciated later works Zaborowska shows how the themes of dwelling and black queer male sexuality in The Welcome Table Just above My Head and If Beale Street Could Talk directly stem from Chez Baldwin s influence on the writer The house was partially torn down in 2014 Accessible heavily illustrated and drawing on interviews with Baldwin s friends and lovers unpublished letters and manuscripts Me and My House offers new insights into Baldwin s life writing and relationships making it essential reading for all students scholars and fans of Baldwin

English Country Houses and Landed Estates Heather Clemenson, 2021-12-01 Originally published in 1982 and based on extensive research in estates archives this book outlines the changing fate of the 500 largest estates in England over the centuries It examines estates in their heyday and looks at their changing role as they declined in the twentieth century showing how some estates have survived and describing the differing uses to which country houses have been put

Draft House of Lords Reform Bill Great Britain: Parliament: Joint Committee on the Draft House of Lords Reform Bill, 2012-04-23 The history of reform of the House of Lords has a long history since the Parliament Act 1911 and since the House of Lords Act 1999 removed the right of all but 92 hereditary peers to sit in the Lords there has been a number of initiatives to further the debate on reform The latest proposals are contained in the draft Bill Cm 8077 ISBN 9780101807722 published in May 2011 which was referred to the Joint Committee In this report the Joint Committee acknowledges the controversial aspects of certain of the proposals and the members of the Committee reflect wider differences of opinion many of the report's recommendations being decided by a majority The majority supports the need for an electoral mandate provided the House has commensurate powers The current functions and role would continue but the House would probably seek to be more assertive to an extent that cannot be predicted The Committee recommends a House of 450 members 80% elected on a system of Single Transferable Voting preferably that used in New South Wales not the one proposed in the Bill for a 15 year term The main sections of the report cover functions role primacy of the Commons and conventions electoral system size voting system and constituencies appointments bishops and ministers transition salaries IPSA disqualification The Committee recommends that in view of the significance of the constitutional change the Government should submit the decision to a referendum
