Cruickshank, 2019-09-12 This book considers the doctrinal and ecclesiological trends that were present during the construction of the revised Book of Common Prayer of 1927 Through the use of the records of both Convocations and of the National Church Assembly it examines the debates that led to the revised Book and the doctrinal shifts that were present in these debates It challenges the idea that the revision process stalled in the First World War by showing how the birth of the National Assembly that took place during the war was born out of the revision process Through the Assembly records it shows the integral role the laity played in the revision process It examines the attempts to get the revised Books through Parliament the difference between pro and anti revision speakers and the radical ecclesiological thinking that followed the rejections    Archaeologia Cantiana Kent Archaeological Society, 2025-04-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1883    The Jurist ,1838    1868.
