

My House

Above my house
are stars glittering
in the sky.

Beside my house
are birds singing
in the trees.

Below my house
are stones hiding
in the earth.

Around my house
are roses growing
on the wall.

Inside my house
is all my family
and ME!

House Poems:

Design for a House Jonathan Holden, 1972      Many-Storied House George Ella Lyon, 2013-08-15 Born in the small eastern Kentucky coal mining town of Harlan George Ella Lyon began her career with Mountain a chapbook of poems She has since published many more books in multiple genres and for readers of all ages but poetry remains at the heart of her work Many Storied House is her fifth collection While teaching aspiring writers Lyon asked her students to write a poem based on memories rooted in a house where they had lived Working on the assignment herself Lyon began a personal journey writing many poems for each room In this intimate book she strives to answer lingering questions about herself and her family Here I stand at the beginning she writes in the opening lines of the volume with more questions than answers Collectively the poems tell the sixty eight year long story of the house beginning with its construction by Lyon s grandfather and culminating with the poet s memories of bidding farewell to it after her mother s death Moving provocative and heartfelt Lyon s poetic excavations evoke more than just stock and stone they explore the nature of memory and relationships as well as the innermost architecture of love family and community A poignant memoir in poems Many Storied House is a personal and revealing addition to George Ella Lyon s body of work      River House Sally Keith, 2015-04-21 This heartbreaking and robust poetry collection explores the complexity of the mind in the midst of grief Publishers Weekly starred review These are poems of absence Written in the wake of the loss of her mother River House follows Sally Keith as she makes her way through the depths of grief navigating a world newly transfigured Incorporating her travels abroad her experience studying the neutral mask technique developed by Jacques Lecoq and her return to the river house she and her mother often visited the poet assembles a guide to survival in the face of seemingly insurmountable pain Even in the dark Keith finds the ways we can be filled with this unexpected feeling of living      The House of Belonging David Whyte, 1997 This is David Whyte s fourth book of poetry      In the Nocturnal Animal House Sarah Cotterill, 1991 Sarah Cotterill s poems bring together the dramas of ordinary life and a complex understanding of the natural world The poems are moments of suspension early bridges braided of things found on the ground in the wild They are meant for travel on foot and in solitude When we trust our weight to one the whole of the bridge shifts though the lines and their connections remain firm and the bridge shifts again with each step Its symmetry changes our perspective changes We are exposed reminded of the delicacy of its materials and of their strength tensile strength On ever side looms the world s great beauty and also its peril the long drop The flexibility of a web accounts for much of its strength and resiliency So too are these poems shaped by a lyric flexible resilient language a range and variability of image form and tone But always they are tied to the poet s experience the great and small events of a private life at once lived and observed These poems never stray far from awareness of the strangeness elegance and peril of the natural world or of humankind s place therein They never stray far either from a sense of the fragility of human ties their infinite worth the care which must be taken to sustain them the costs of inattention These poems are moments of suspension

They begin on ground we know When we step away from the far close of their span we find ourselves in a new place Lucky for the bridge being there Grateful     The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter,2023-09-19 The house is perhaps the most recognizable emblem of the American ideals of self making prosperity stability domesticity and upward mobility Yet over the years from 1945 2021 the American house becomes more famous for the betrayal of those hopes than for their fulfilment first through the segregation of cities and public housing then through the expansion of private credit that lays the ground for the subprime mortgage crisis of the early twenty first century Walt Hunter argues that as access to housing expands to include a greater share of the US population the house emerges as a central metaphor for the poetic imagination From the kitchenette of Gwendolyn Brooks to the duplex of Jericho Brown and from the suburban imagination of Adrienne Rich to the epic constructions of James Merrill the American house poem represents the changing abilities of US poets to imagine new forms of life while also building on the past In The American House Poem 1945 2021 Hunter focuses on poets who register the unevenly distributed pressures of successive housing crises by rewriting older poetic forms Writing about the materials tools and plans for making a house these poets express the tensions between making their lives into art and freeing their lives from inherited constraints and conditions     Poems of House and Home John James Piatt,1879

Sunday Houses the Sunday House Elizabeth Hughey,2007-04 2006 Iowa Poetry Prize winner In Sunday Houses the Sunday House Elizabeth Hughey embraces the possibility that we can learn as much from objects as we can from other people from the inanimate as much as the animate Each poem descends upon a place and a time takes a few notes and then leaves quietly without slamming any doors Sunday Houses the Sunday House reveals what the world is like when your attention is focused elsewhere when your head is turned the other way In ineffably beautiful verse Hughey captures moments in time and place with confidence but without being judgmental Although it may seem that the scope of these poems is rather small a good party a couple of eggs a housekeeper s daydream they reveal both a deep intelligence and a spirit of whimsy Gertrude Stein wrote that she wanted to be drunk with nouns and in a sense that is what Hughey has accomplished here

Painting the House Bibhu Padhi,1999 Painting the House is the fourth collection of poems from a poet who has now been published in magazines and periodicals throughout the English speaking world Inward looking and at the same time deeply rooted in cultural and interpersonal realities these poems speak to the heart in their own universal language

Hello, House Phyllis Hoge,2012 The poems in Hello House describe in small significant detail what goes into daily chores like making beds doing laundry cooking cleaning straightening Phyllis Hoge lavishes attention on favorite things around the house and home and in the process she examines her self and learns that living in a house involves compromise with pets with clutter with imperfection and with loss Many of these poems are written in formal verse with rhyme and meter but the poet works well in free verse as well All the poems are strong honest and friendly Each poem is Illustrated by Maxine Hong Kingston s black and white line drawings     The Little Old House Anna Wickham,1921     Poems about the House Carol

Millner,2019-08     In the Little House: Poems Jenn Habel,2009-03 There are books that leave us once we have turned the last page with a soft clear tone that overrides ideas or emotional impressions It is the music of grief and desire when grief and desire have become indistinguishably joined Jenn Habel's In the Little House is such a collection No one told me it would be so impersonal says its speaker my charge to be her globe then station then something in a warm wind How beautiful a book that so embodies its subject matter an emptiness from which children are born and poems imagined How difficult a resolution to release a child in small increments a world whose loveliness can only move continuously away Habel's poems are the little houses of that world in which first memories and first words are right now being made David Keplinger     The Country House Poem Alastair Fowler,1994 This major new collection of almost all the known estate poems of the seventeenth century draws on the literary historical and artistic traditions of the period to clarify this much debated genre The poems are mostly reproduced in their entirety and include ten from the Mildmay Fane manuscripts an important but so far unpublished source of such material Full notes accompany the text explaining difficult passages and relating them to their biographical social and political contexts There is a substantial introduction a comprehensive bibliography and a listing of visual sources complementing the contemporary illustrations Containing much new evidence for architectural and art historians as well as for literary scholars The Country House Poem is set to become the definitive work in this field BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved     Moving the House Ingrid Wendt,1980     The Spite House Elizabeth Knapp,2011 Poetry THE SPITE HOUSE is a book of dark vision and broad range haunted by intimacy and anger by a fierce fidelity to truth and to the elusiveness of truth by emotional spiritual cultural and political landscapes that are finally inseparable aspects of a single extended investigation These pages season is late winter when only a few rare swellings on the branches hint that change may come even as an encasing ice glitters its own shard sharp illuminations Jane Hirshfield     The Substance of His House Prosser Hall Frye,1896     The Little Old House Anna Wickham,2023-07-18 Escape into the world of poetry with this charming collection by Anna Wickham Filled with vivid imagery emotional depth and musical language these poems will transport you to another place and time Whether you're a seasoned poetry lover or a newcomer to the genre this book is sure to delight and inspire This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Contemporary Literary Critics NA NA,2015-12-25 A reference guide to the work of 115 modern British and American critics     The Looking House Fred Marchant,2009-05-26 To my mind what distinguishes Marchant's work is his willingness to take a hard look at human suffering while maintaining his unflinching delicate tone The Journal house that floats on a muddy river in spring time flood house like a human head on the surface house with a boy s face turned up from House on Water House in Air In The Looking House Fred Marchant s new collection of poems the poet lays out a map of human suffering from wars within the psyche to wars that rage across the contemporary landscape These intense innovative lyrics stir and disturb remaining aware of the way history bears down upon us and makes us responsible for the consequences of our choices Marchant maps the shelters the precarious places that give us refuge and teach us everything Such a place might be an open window at midnight in childhood or the broken sill of a deserted hut on the coast of Donegal In these poems a looking house can just as easily be a locked ward a barracks a movie theater at midday or that room in Rome where Keats lay dying These poems may show us a broken world but they also offer glimpses of survival and renewal of trust and reconnection
