Housing Decisions In Later Life:

Housing Decisions in Later Life M. Leamy,V. Miller,L. Bright,2004-10-22 This book examines the processes by which older people make housing decisions and the impact such decisions have on the construction of their lives Evidence is included from a major three year research study where older people told stories of their lives The authors argue that housing decisions are not necessarily the result of rational analytical and objective thinking The contribution of other ways of decision making is often hidden as when people think intuitively act impulsively or for essentially emotional reasons The Law of Later-life Health Care and Decision Making Lawrence A. Frolik,2006 Directives which include living wills and health care powers of attorney or proxies are unique in a heretofore unknown way They draw heavily on the knowledge and skills of practitioners from all three of the noble professions law medicine and spirit That s precisely why Advance Health Care Directives A Handbook for Professionals is such an exceedingly important work Authored by a lawyer and a physician this far ranging volume deals with the difficult and sensitive issues faced by professionals lawyers doctors nurses clerics spiritual advisors chaplains social workers palliative caregivers and all allied walks in helping clients and patients plan write execute and implement these utterly essential personal contingency plans for health care decision making Book jacket Oldenland Roger Clough,2025-04-24 In front of me is an adventure with old age as my companion my shadow and confederate maybe my friend Old age is a country and we need to learn to walk through it And that s just what Roger Clough former Professor of Social Care lifelong hill walker and current resident of Oldenland spends his time doing Where he used to study the terrain of ageing like a scientist now he understands it as a farmer might walking its contours every day from his retirement village in the Peak District while still negotiating the physical peaks and troughs of the area Whilst there are a lot of books that cover the topic of how to have a good death there is little that offers us advice on the time period that comes before that How do we learn to actually be old How do we spend our later years in a meaningful way that makes sense of who we ve been and who we are now Not in blithely positive denial in the face of our physical and cognitive decline or overtaken with regret of a life that s running down the clock but empowered to not lose who we are to say I am still me And if we have not yet arrived at its borders how can we better understand those who live there and better prepare ourselves for a future when we will become citizens too Written over 25 years and innumerable journeys Oldenland is a unique and moving companion to the experiences of old age and how to make it count The Routledge Companion to Marketing Research Len Tiu Wright,Luiz Moutinho,Merlin Stone,Richard P. Bagozzi,2021-06-27 This single volume reference provides an alternative to traditional marketing research methods handbooks focusing entirely on the new and innovative methods and technologies that are transforming marketing research and practice Including original contributions and case studies from leading global specialists this handbook covers many pioneering methods such as Methods for the analysis of user and customer generated data including opinion mining and sentiment analysis Big data Neuroscientific techniques and physiological measures Voice

Late-Life Homelessness
Amanda Grenier, 2022-01-15

Around the world and across a range of contexts homelessness among older people is on the rise In spite of growing media attention and new academic research on the issue older people often remain unrecognized as a subpopulation in public policy programs and homeless strategies As such they occupy a paradoxical position of being hypervisible while remaining overlooked Late Life Homelessness is the first Canadian book to address this often neglected issue Basing her analysis on a four year ethnographic study of late life homelessness in Montreal Canada Amanda Grenier uses a critical gerontological perspective to explore life at the intersection of aging and homelessness She draws attention to disadvantage over time and how the condition of being unhoused disrupts a person s ability to age in place resulting in experiences of unequal aging Weaving together findings from policy documents stakeholder insights and observations and interviews with older people this book demonstrates how structures organizational practices and relationships related to homelessness and aging come to shape late life Situated in the context of an aging population rising inequality and declining social commitments Late Life Homelessness stresses the moral imperative of responding justly to the needs of older people as a means of mitigating the unequal aging of unhoused elders
