The development of the Mexican low- and middle-income housing market since the economic crisis of 1994 Michael A. Braun,2009-03-01 Master s Thesis from the year 2007 in the subject Politics Region Middle and South America grade 2 6 Free University of Berlin Latin America Institute Department for International Politics course International Relations language English abstract A devaluation of the Peso in 1994 threw Mexico into economic turmoil triggering the worst recession for over half a century Since then the nation made an impressive recovery on many scenes ranging from economics to society Also the housing market has improved dramatically for various reasons such as significant policy changes Only the general systematic housing shortage the under supply of mortgages and the under capitalization of developers still hindered further growth This was yet addressed by the Fox government introducing new approaches and special agencies to keep social stability and enhance further economic growth Therefore the thesis points on the rather recent developments of the Mexican housing market including the question how it became the way it is Furthermore the political and economic motivations and influence of both public and private local and foreign actors to the market without which neither it would not have grown that much nor will grow as projected are highlighted Moreover potential obstacles to further market growth and increased stability such as an ongoing lack of capital are named and promoted along with ideas beyond like environmentally friendlier approaches that are in the long term favor of the Mexican society American Housing Production, 1880-2000 Mason C. Doan,1997 American Housing Production 1880 2000 presents a concise history of nonfarm housing production progress and policy in the United States This century has been divided into a 14 part chronological structure with irregular time intervals in contrast to conventional decade time periods This arrangement is intended to reflect more fully the economic and political forces causing short run movements in housing output This book treats housing production within a broad economic demographic and political context Special relative measures of housing production mortgage debt and household formation have been developed to provide historical perspective over the period covered Strong emphasis is placed on the growth and improved quality of the housing stock and on the evolution of community facilities essential to safe and sanitary housing and of a mortgage credit system capable of supporting rising levels of production and home ownership. It analyzes the uneven results of Federal housing legislation including the effort to assure equal access for all citizens to housing and mortgage markets and the unfortunate experience of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. A look ahead to future prospects for housing production concludes the book The Joint Economic Report United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee, 2007 Enforcement of the Fair Housing Act of 1968 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties, 2009 Grand Parkway (State Highway 99) Segment E from Interstate Highway (IH) 10 to U. S. 290, 2007 New Life at Ground Zero Charles J. Orlebeke, 1997-07-01 Presents a lively in depth look at the efforts and struggles of the New York City Housing Partnership to build moderate and middle income housing in New York City Energy Efficiency in Household Appliances and Lighting Paolo Bertoldi, Andrea Ricci, Anibal de Almeida, 2012-12-06 Household appliances encompass a large variety of equipment including the cold appliances refrigerators and freezers the wet appliances washing machines dishwashers and dryers the space conditioning appliances heaters air conditioners heat pumps fans boilers the water heaters the cooking appliances a wide array of consumer electronics such as TVs VCRs HiFi systems and miscellaneous small appliances such as vacuum cleaners irons toasters hairdryers and power tools Household appliances save a large amount of domestic labour to perform the household tasks as well as provide comfort conditions and convenience to the household occupants The European Community SAVE Programme has promoted the efficient use of energy in particular in domestic appliances SAVE has sponsored a variety of studies to characterise the use of the main household appliances and lighting and to identify cost effective technical options to improve the energy efficiency as well as to identify the strategies to promote the penetration of efficient equipment in the market place National energy agencies independent experts and appliance manufacturers have participated in the SAVE activities and have done a remarkable job While the energy efficiency of the main household appliances has been improved at the same time it was possible in most cases to improve the appliance performance reliability and quality of service Legislative Proposals on Reforming Mortgage Practices United States. Congress. House. Committee on Financial Services, 2008 Home Mortgage Disclosure Act : newly collected data and what it means : hearing, The Budget of the United States Government United States, United States.
