High School Global Studies Review Karen Lurie, Princeton Review (Firm), 1998 If trudging through your textbook to study and complete homework assignments has become a frustrating grind then get ready for a smooth ride to higher test scores and outstanding grades with The Princeton Review's High School Global Studies Review We tell it to you straight thoroughly explaining the important topics you'll need to understand to prepare for quizzes and tests complete homework assignments effectively and earn higher grades We've carefully examined global studies textbooks just like yours to make sure that this book includes all the material essential to a thorough review In this guide we cover Africa South and Southeast Asia East Asia Latin America The Middle East Western Europe Russia and Eastern Europe The World Today Laboratory Skills And since practicing your test taking skills is just as important to getting good grades as knowing the material we include two practice exams that feature the types of questions and problems that appear on in class tests Let's Review: Global History and Geography Mark Willner, 2000-04-03 Books in this series have been completely revised and brought up to date to reflect recent large scale changes in New York State's High School Regents exams Let's Review books have been especially designed to prepare students for Regents finals in New York but also make fine textbook supplements that can be used in high schools everywhere In addition to subject reviews each title contains either model exams or actual recent Regents exams with answers Many teachers prefer to use Let's Review book as classroom companion texts to Barron's Regents Exams and Answers books This review book like the current Regents exam reflects a new emphasis on basics of geography now part of the high school curriculum Formerly this book's title was Global Studies Global Studies John Osborne, Sue Ann Kime, Regina O'Donnell, 1988 This book will help the reader prepare for the New York State Regents Competency Test RCT in Global Studies Passing the RCT is now required for a high school diploma in New York Notes to students Global Studies Mark Willner, Erwin M. Rosenfeld, Harriet Geller, George Hero, Jerry Weiner, 1994-08 We are All Multiculturalists Now Nathan Glazer, 1998 The melting pot is no more Where not very long ago we sought assimilation we now pursue multiculturalism Nowhere has this transformation been more evident than in the public schools where a traditional Eurocentric curriculum has yielded to diversity and often to confrontation and confusion In a book that brings clarity and reason to this highly charged issue Nathan Glazer explores these sweeping changes He offers an incisive account of why we all advocates and skeptics alike have become multiculturalists and what this means for national unity civil society and the education of our youth Focusing particularly on the impact in public schools Glazer dissects the four issues uppermost in the minds of people on both sides of the multicultural fence Whose truth do we recognize in the curriculum Will an emphasis on ethnic roots undermine or strengthen our national unity in the face of international disorder Will attention to social injustice past and present increase or decrease civil disharmony and strife Does a multicultural curriculum enhance learning by engaging students interest and by raising students self esteem or does it teach irrelevance at best and fantasy at worst Glazer argues cogently that multiculturalism arose from the failure of mainstream society to assimilate African Americans anger and frustration at their continuing separation gave black Americans the impetus for rejecting traditions that excluded them But willingly or not we are all multiculturalists now Glazer asserts and his book gives us the clearest picture yet of what there is to know to fear and to ask of ourselves in this new identity
