Olechnicka, Grzegorz Gorzelak, 2012-12-07 Regions and cities are the natural loci where knowledge is created and where it can be easily turned into a commercial product Regions are territories where under certain socio economic conditions a strong sense of belonging and mutual trust develops the ability to transform information and inventions into innovation and productivity increases through cooperative or market interaction Especially in contexts characterised by a plurality of agents such as cities or industrial districts knowledge is the result of cooperative learning processes nourished by spatial proximity network relations interaction creativity and recombination capability This book explains the logic behind these interactions and cooperative attitudes in regions and cities One of the most significant channels comes from the presence of a university and its collaboration with firms and scientific research centres These mutual relations between academic institutions and enterprises are of key importance The significance of universities in driving economic well being and regional development has been well documented for some time now Much of the research however has centred upon countries in Western Europe and the United States Increasingly and since the expansion of the European Union in 2004 in particular themes of academic entrepreneurship university business links knowledge and innovation have become important on a Europe wide scale This book draws together key thinkers from across the continent to analyze the importance of higher educational institutions in fostering development

Sister City Diplomacy Douglas C. Nord, 2025 In 1987 Duluth Minnesota in the Midwestern United States and Petrozavodsk in what is now Russia officially joined hands as sister cities Douglas C Nord tells the stories of their collaboration in the context of the late Cold War He covers in ethnographic detail the lived experiences of city officials community leaders academics and average citizens who worked to bridge the divide between the United States and the Soviet Union What circumstances supported or undermined efforts to conduct people to people diplomacy What internal difficulties emerged and how were they overcome And what were the short term effects and long term consequences of the relationships forged in these postindustrial cities across the East West divide Sister City Diplomacy offers a historical account of citizen diplomacy set in a unique political and social environment But in its theoretical grounding and informed arguments this study speaks to much broader and contemporary concerns both in terms of United States Russian relations today and with regard to the challenges and opportunities of community based diplomacy in general Lessons learned along the shores of lakes Superior and Onega in the last days of the Cold War hold great value given the heightened tensions of current geopolitics

Nordic Perspectives on the Responsible Development of the Arctic: Pathways to Action Douglas C. Nord, 2020-10-30 This book investigates the multifaceted nature of change in today's Nordic Arctic and the necessary research and policy development required to address the challenges and opportunities currently faced by this region It focuses its attention on the recent efforts of the Nordic community to create specialized Centers of Excellence in Arctic Research in order to facilitate this process of scientific inquiry and policy articulation The volume seeks to describe both the steps that lead to this decision and the manner in which this undertaking has evolved The work highlights the research efforts of the four Centers and their investigations of a variety of issues including those related to ecosystem and wildlife management the revitalization resource dependent communities the emergence of new climate born diseases and the development of adequate modeling techniques to assist northern communities in their efforts at adaptation and resilience building Major discoveries and insights arising from these and other efforts are detailed and possible policy implications considered The book also focuses attention on the challenges of creating and supporting multidisciplinary teams of researchers to investigate such concerns and the methods and means for facilitating their collaboration and the integration of their findings to form new and useful perspectives on the nature of change in the contemporary Arctic It also provides helpful consideration and examples of how local and indigenous communities can be engaged in the co production of knowledge regarding the region The volume discusses how such research findings can be best communicated and shared between scientists policymakers and northern residents It considers the challenges of building common concern not just among different research disciplines but also between bureaucracies and the public Only when this bridge building effort is undertaken can true pathways to action be established

Handbook of Canadian Foreign Policy Patrick James, Nelson Michaud, Marc J. O'Reilly, 2006-01-01 Handbook of Canadian Foreign Policy is the most comprehensive book of its kind offering an updated examination of Canada's international role some 15 years after the dismantling of the Berlin Wall ushered in a new era in world politics Highlighting both well known and understudied topics this handbook presents a marriage of the familiar and the underappreciated that enables readers to grasp much of the complexity of current Canadian foreign policy and appreciate the challenges policymakers must meet in the early 21st century

The Changing Arctic D. Nord, 2016-06-08 Over the last few years the Arctic has become a region of growing interest to the international community Major environmental economic social and security issues are all in evidence within its borders today Many feel that there is an urgent need to establish an effective governance structure for the area The Arctic Council has offered a basic forum for circumpolar consultation and cooperation over the past two decades However it has not been an easy undertaking and the organization has had to wrestle with a series of internal and external impediments that have hindered its forward progress This volume explores the efforts of Sweden a recent Chair of the Arctic Council to build an enhanced framework for consensus building and governance within the circumpolar region It examines its efforts to provide focused leadership for the Arctic Council and to advance the environmental protection and sustainable development missions of the organization It considers the various means by which Sweden utilized its position as chair of the Arctic Council to promote its program for action in both these areas It also explores how this leadership position enabled it to foster necessary organizational reform within the body The book gives new insight into how both the formal and informal powers of the chair can be utilized to facilitate institutional growth and change It also provides new and useful understanding of how a small country like Sweden can harness key elements of soft power to advance its foreign policy objectives in the Arctic The author closely followed the undertakings of the Swedish Chairmanship team over its two years at the helm of this emerging Arctic international organization He witnessed its several successes and a few of its disappointments The volume offers a behind the scene view of the challenges and opportunities faced by contemporary diplomats as they pursue their efforts at international organization Lifelong Learning Bibliography ,2004 Lifelong Learning Bibliography European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training,2002 This first issue of the semi annual lifelong learning bibliography contains references to output from January to June 2001 a time of intense debate and reflection on lifelong learning in Europe It also includes monographs chapters journal articles legal texts Internet sites and CD ROMs dealing with lifelong learning at European international and European Commission member state levels The 506 item bibliography is structured under headings of current interest and by the situation in member states and the candidate countries The Key Themes category includes skill development human resources development learning innovation accreditation of prior learning guidance and counseling and community based learning Topics under Transversal Themes are active citizenship employability and partnership The category Situation at European Level covers European policy national policy documents European Union EEA countries and central and eastern European countries The category Situation at International Level covers international organizations Africa Asia Australia United States and Canada In each category literature is presented in alphabetical order by title showing all important fields to enable identification of suitable documents For titles not in English or French a rough translation is provided Documents have been indexed using the European Training Thesaurus Descriptors are listed under each publication An annex lists by country members of the documentary information network with address Web address and contact person YLB History of Universities Mordechai Feingold,2008-08-28 Volume XXII 1 of History of Universities contains the customary mix of learned articles book reviews conference reports and bibliographical information which makes this publication such an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education Its contributions range widely geographically chronologically and in subject matter The volume is as always a lively combination of original research and invaluable reference material To place a standing order for volumes in this series please contact Standing Orders Oxford University Press Distribution Services Saxon West Way Corby Northants Great Britain NN18 9ES Tel 01536 741068 Fax 01536 741894 email standingorders uk oup com Bibliographic Guide to Education 2003 GK Hall,2004-10 The Bibliographic Guide to Education lists recent publications cataloged during the past year by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by publications in the field of education cataloged by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library selected on the basis of subject headings Non book materials including theses are included in this Guide with the exception of serials All aspects and levels of education are represented in this Guide including such areas as American elementary and secondary education higher and adult education early childhood education history and philosophy of education applied pedagogy international and comparative education educational administration education of the culturally disadvantaged and physically
