identidad nacional Pilar Alvarez-Rubio,2007 Representations of China in Latin American Literature (1987-2016) Maria Montt Strabucchi,2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued "Valparaiso en el XIX" a través de "Hija de la Fortuna" de Isabel Allende Annie Folio,2011 Odas de Quinto Horacio Flaco Horacio,1847

Contemporary Spanish American Novels by Women Susan Carvalho,2007 A reading of contemporary women s fiction in Spanish America in which space rather than time is seen as the driver of the narrative Space is critical to imaginative writing As English novelist Elizabeth Bowen has observed nothing can happen nowhere This book offers an interdisciplinary framework for reading novels and in particular women s fiction in Spanish America with a focus on geoplots on space rather than time as the narrative engine Following the work of Lefebvre and Friedman the author examines recent works by Spanish America s most visible women novelists Angeles Mastretta Mexico Isabel Allende Chile Rosario Ferr Puerto Rico Sara Sefchovich Mexico and Laura Restrepo Colombia and the ways in which their female protagonists challenge the spatial barriers erected by capitalist hegemony Margins borders liminal spaces the chora space and the body are emphasized as potential sites of transgression The analysis identifies spatial negotiation as a mechanism both for cementing and for undermining authority thus exposing the strategies through which literature constructs and represents power SUSAN CARVALHO is Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies at the University of Kentucky and Director of the Middlebury College Spanish School Odas de Quinto Horacio Flaco Quinto Horacio Flaco,1847 Enciclopedia de la mitología J.
