Hortus Floridus The Fours Of Spring Summer Autumn And Winter Flowers:

Hortus Floridus ,1974 Hortus Floridus ,1928 Hortus Floridus Eleanor Sinclair Rohde,1974 Tulipomania
Mike Dash,2010-02-10 A vivid narration of the history of the tulip from its origins on the barren windswept steppes of central Asia to its place of honor in the lush imperial gardens of Constantinople to its starring moment as the most coveted and beautiful commodity in Europe In the 1630s visitors to the prosperous trading cities of the Netherlands couldn't help but notice that thousands of normally sober hardworking Dutch citizens were caught up in an extraordinary frenzy of buying and selling The object of this unprecedented speculation was the tulip a delicate and exotic Eastern import that had bewitched horticulturists noblemen and tavern owners alike For almost a year rare bulbs changed hands for incredible and ever increasing sums until single flowers were being sold for more than the cost of a house Historians would come to call it tulipomania It was the first futures market in history and like so many of the ones that would follow it crashed spectacularly plunging speculators and investors into economic ruin and despair This colorful cast of characters includes Turkish sultans Yugoslav soldiers French botanists and Dutch tavern keepers all centuries apart historically and worlds apart culturally but with one thing in common tulipomania Art, Science, and Witchcraft in Early Modern Holland Claudia
Swan,2005-06-08 Publisher Description The Letterbook of John Custis IV of Williamsburg, 1717-1742 John Custis,2005
This absorbing letterbook meticulously edited and thoroughly annotated provides remarkable insight into the life and concerns of 18th century colonial Virginians The letters are especially revealing about economic life the material culture of colonial Virginia and the treacherous legal and financial conditions in which even important planters operated The correspondence clearly shows how a wealthy colonial planter uses and could be misused by the British mercantile system The letters also provide a view of the personal side of the sober and overly frugal Custis his fashionable passion for gardening in which he was inferior to few if any in Virginia his strife filled nine year marriage to Frances Parke before her death from smallpox and his uneven relationships with his son and daughter The Moving Statues of Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam
Angela Vanhaelen,2022-03-08 This book opens a window onto a fascinating and understudied aspect of the visual material intellectual and cultural history of seventeenth century Amsterdam the role played by its inns and taverns specifically the doolhoven Doolhoven were a type of labyrinth unique to early modern Amsterdam Offering guest lodgings these licensed public houses also housed remarkable displays of artwork in their gardens and galleries The main attractions were inventive displays of moving mechanical figures automata and a famed set of waxwork portraits of the rulers of Protestant Europe Publicized as the most innovative artworks on display in Amsterdam the doolhoven exhibits presented the mercantile city as a global center of artistic and technological advancement This evocative tour through the doolhoven pub gardens where drinking entertainment and the acquisition of knowledge mingled in encounters with lively displays of animated artifacts shows that the exhibits had a forceful and transformative impact on visitors one that moved them toward Protestant reform

Deeply researched and decidedly original The Moving Statues of Seventeenth Century Amsterdam uncovers a wealth of information about these nearly forgotten public pleasure parks situating them within popular culture religious controversies global trade relations and intellectual debates of the seventeenth century It will appeal in particular to scholars in art history and early modern studies A Time to Every Purpose Michael Kammen, 2015-12-01 In artworks from a mosaic by Marc Chagall to schoolchildren's paintings in writings from Susan Fenimore Cooper to Annie Dillard and in diverse print sources from family genealogical registers to seed catalogs the four seasons appear and reappear as a theme in American culture In this richly illustrated book Michael Kammen traces the appeal of the four seasons motif in American popular culture and fine arts from the seventeenth century to the present Its symbolism has evolved through the years Kammen explains serving as a metaphor for the human life cycle or religious faith expressing nostalgia for rural life and sometimes praising seasonal beauty in the diverse American landscape as the most spectacular in the world Kammen also highlights artists and writers shift in attention from the glories of seasonal peaks to the dynamics of seasonal transitions as American life continued to accelerate and change through the twentieth century Few symbols have been as pervasive meaningful and symptomatic in the human experience as the four seasons and as Kammen shows in its American context the annual cycle has been an abundant and abiding source of inspiration in the nation's cultural history Animating the Antique Sarah

Betzer, 2022-08-08 Framed by tensions between figural sculpture experienced in the round and its translation into two dimensional representations Animating the Antique explores enthralling episodes in a history of artistic and aesthetic encounters Moving across varied locations among them Rome Florence Naples London Dresden and Paris Sarah Betzer explores a history that has yet to be written that of the Janus faced nature of interactions with the antique by which sculptures and beholders alike were caught between the promise of animation and the threat of mortification Examining the traces of affective and transformative sculptural encounters the book takes off from the decades marked by the archaeological art historical and art philosophical developments of the mid eighteenth century and culminates in fin de siècle anthropological psychological and empathic frameworks It turns on two fundamental and interconnected arguments that an eighteenth century ontology of ancient sculpture continued to inform encounters with the antique well into the nineteenth century and that by attending to the enduring power of this model we can newly appreciate the distinctively modern terms of antique sculpture's allure As Betzer shows these eighteenth century developments had far reaching ramifications for the making and beholding of modern art the articulations of art theory the writing of art history and a significantly queer Nachleben of the antique Bold and wide ranging Animating the Antique sheds light upon the work of myriad artists in addition to that of writers ranging from Goethe and Winckelmann to Hegel Walter Pater and Vernon Lee It will be especially welcomed by scholars and students working in eighteenth and nineteenth century art history art writing and art historiography An Oak Spring Flora Lucia Tongiorgi Tomasi, 1997-05-29 This is the latest volume in a major series that describes selections of the rare books manuscripts and other works of art held at Oak Spring Garden Library a collection formed by Rachel Lambert Mellon The 111 items chosen for this volume on floral illustration since the later Middle Ages include Books of Hours still life and vanitas paintings botanical prints and books of instruction of every kind from planting a garden to making flowers using colored papers or wax Lucia Tongiorgi Tomasi groups the works into chapters on such topics as florilegia women artists tulipomania Dutch and Flemish painting and exotic flowers from distant lands providing an introduction to each chapter that gives the contextual background necessary for a real understanding and appreciation of floral illustration past and present The sheer beauty as well as extraordinary skills encountered for example in manuscript florilegia by Jacob Marrel and Maria Sibylla Merian in hand colored books by Jacques Le Moyne de Morgues and G B Ferrari and in flower studies painted by John Constable Margaret Mee and others are testament to the high status accorded floral illustration over the centuries This handsome richly illustrated volume will attract all those with an interest in rare books and the history of art as well as horticulturalists botanists and garden historians

The Bookshop of the World Lotte Hellinga, Alastair Duke, Jacob Harskamp, Theo Hermans, 2021-10-25 Proceedings of a Conference held in London 15-17 september 1999 organized by The Association for Low Countries Studies University College London Centre for Dutch and Flemish Culture The British Library Dutch and Flemish section Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine Twenty five papers by experts in their particular period or area were selected for publication Covering almost five centuries they represent a wholly modern approach to the history of the book and publishing in a European context highlighting for the first time the crucial role of the Low Countries in transmitting the intellectual heritage of an area well beyond their own changing borders

Dutch and Flemish Flower Pieces (2 vols in case) Sam Segal, Klara Alen, 2020-09-25 This richly illustrated book provides an overview of all known Dutch and Flemish artists up to the nineteenth century who painted or drew flower pieces or else made prints of them Unlike many mainstream art historical studies the book takes a truly comprehensive approach including cases where only a single example is known or even if nothing of the artist's other work appears to have survived Containing highly instructive lists identifying the names of flowers as well as insects and other animals the book also discusses the earliest depictions of flower still life and the distinctive characteristics behind the development of floral arrangements in different periods including the variation of the flowers the variety of techniques used by artists as well as an exploration of the symbolism behind the numerous plant and animal species this form of art portrays Composed in Dutch the text was translated into English by Judith Deitch and edited by Philip Kelleway Publication of this book was made possible thanks to generous support of Dr med Bettina Leysen Rose Marie and Eijk van Otterloo and the Center for Netherlandish Art at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston With additional support of the M A O C Gravin van Bylandt Stichting See inside the book
