scorned her and joked about her softness her lack of experience and money But Ruth ignored them organizing outfitting and leading a bare bones campaign into the majestic but treacherous hinterlands where China borders Tibet As her partner she chose Quentin Young a twenty two year old Chinese explorer as unconventional as she was who would join her in a romance as torrid as it was taboo Traveling across some of the toughest terrain in the world nearly impenetrable bamboo forests slick and perilous mountain slopes and boulder strewn passages the team raced against a traitorous rival and was constantly threatened by hordes of bandits and hostile natives The voyage took months to complete and cost Ruth everything she had But when almost miraculously she returned from her journey with a baby panda named Su Lin in her arms the story became an international sensation and made the front pages of newspapers around the world No animal in history had gotten such attention And Ruth Harkness became a hero Drawing extensively on American and Chinese sources including diaries scores of interviews and previously unseen intimate letters from Ruth Harkness Vicki Constantine Croke has fashioned a captivating and richly textured narrative about a woman ahead of her time Part Myrna Loy part Jane Goodall by turns wisecracking and poetic practical and spiritual Ruth Harkness is a trailblazing figure And her story makes for an unforgettable deeply moving adventure Emerging zoonoses and transboundary infections Yashpal S.
