Hospice Care Systems Structure Process Costs And Outcome:

Hospice Care Systems Vincent Mor, 1987      The Handbook of Hospice Care Robert W. Buckingham, 2010-04-06 As a recognized advocate of pain relieving care and compassionate human concern for those who are reaching the end of life Dr Robert W Buckingham offers this poignant yet informative sourcebook on the basic components of hospice care The Handbook of Hospice Care is a detailed look at the history of hospice its philosophy of care and the contemporary issues it faces The role of each member of the hospice team is carefully explained in the hope that palliative care based upon the needs and preferences of each patient and family can be provided Dr Buckingham describes a cooperative and compassionate approach that brings meaning dignity and autonomy to the dying process Historically dying has been a coming apart experience for most families Dr Buckingham says Hospice care concentrates on making the process of dying a coming together experience for patient and family Hospice is not a place or an institution but a philosophy of care

Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity Donna Infeld, Audrey K Gordon, Bernice C Harper, 2014-01-21 Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity captures the richness and differences that make up the United States and its culture This book shows you the complex issues arising from work with patients of a different culture and encourages research in hospices which support culturally innovative programs Many people are individually knowledgeable and culturally sensitive but few hospices have systematically planned for service to culturally diverse groups This volume identifies who is implementing organizational programs of cultural sensitivity and acknowledges the efforts of those individuals working to make hospice accessible to everyone Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity contains original research personal insights and overviews to help you understand what is being done in the field Specifically chapters discuss National Hospice Organization activities goals and recommended actions death and dying from a Native American perspective breaking barriers to hospice for African Americans a case study of the development of a culturally sensitive treatment plan in pre hospice south Texas caregiving norms surrounding dying and use of hospice services among Hispanic American elderly cultural considerations surrounding childhood bereavement among Cambodians in the U S one hospice s experience in identifying and meeting the needs of ethnic minority patients People from many different cultures are eager to share their customs practices and beliefs They want hospice providers to understand their culture and they want their community served by hospice The only book of its kind Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity is a valuable reference and source of ideas for anyone interested in the delivery of hospice services From students to experts you will find much information to help make hospice care accessible and comfortable for all groups of people      Annual Review of Nursing Research, Volume 12, 1994 Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, MBA, RN, FAAN, Joanne Stevenson, PhD, RN, FAAN, 1994-06-07 Now in its second decade of publication this landmark series draws together and critically reviews all the existing research in specific areas of nursing practice nursing care delivery nursing education and the professional aspects of nursing      Approaching Death Committee on Care at the End of Life, Institute of Medicine, 1997-10-30 When the end of life makes its inevitable appearance people should be able to expect reliable humane and effective caregiving Yet too many dying people suffer unnecessarily While an overtreated dying is feared untreated pain or emotional abandonment are equally frightening Approaching Death reflects a wide ranging effort to understand what we know about care at the end of life what we have yet to learn and what we know but do not adequately apply It seeks to build understanding of what constitutes good care for the dying and offers recommendations to decisionmakers that address specific barriers to achieving good care This volume offers a profile of when where and how Americans die It examines the dimensions of caring at the end of life Determining diagnosis and prognosis and communicating these to patient and family Establishing clinical and personal goals Matching physical psychological spiritual and practical care strategies to the patient s values and circumstances Approaching Death considers the dying experience in hospitals nursing homes and other settings and the role of interdisciplinary teams and managed care It offers perspectives on quality measurement and improvement the role of practice guidelines cost concerns and legal issues such as assisted suicide The book proposes how health professionals can become better prepared to care well for those who are dying and to understand that these are not patients for whom nothing can be done The State of Nonprofit America Lester M Salamon, 2012-05-31 Examines the private nonprofit sector and the tax exempt institutions that make up this sector providing important services and benefits to all Americans with histories behind different institutions and the forces and developments that have buffeted them and what they have done to retain their resilience Provided by publisher AIDS Capitation David A Cherin, 2021-02-25 Discover effective strategies for AIDS healthcare You ll definitely want to see what s documented inside AIDS Capitation if you re affiliated in any way with current efforts to bolster and improve healthcare policies and procedures for AIDS victims and their families With this scholarly up to date guidebook you ll find that your awareness and knowledge base concerning contemporary AIDS healthcare issues will expand and diversify giving you a more stable information base from which you can make your own policy changes and civic organization improvements If you re a practitioner in HIV AIDS care an academic in HIV AIDS research or one of the many public officials currently involved in healthcare reform you ll find the guidance and proven strategies you need in AIDS Capitation AIDS Capitation gives you a broad range of information including descriptive and evaluative aspects of the model of care directions for implementing an innovative model of terminal home care modalities of care in end stage treatment measurement issues in evaluative research help in measuring outcomes in community based care funding opportunities Without a doubt the onset of HIV AIDS has changed the way we view life Our schools government offices and healthcare venues must change also AIDS Capitation has everything you need to begin that process of change in your community The Encyclopedia of Aging George L. Richardson, Amanda Smith Barusch, 2006 Gerontological Practice for the Twenty first Century provides state of the art information on practice approaches with older patients that are age specific and empirically based Part 1 reviews current and classic theories of aging and proposes an original framework to practice that incorporates both individual and policy level interventions Part 2 covers such psychological problems as anxiety depression suicide substance abuse and dementia and describes appropriate evidence based interventions Part 3 discusses working with older families end of life care bereavement and work and retirement and part 4 focuses on core sociopolitical issues in the lives of older people such as economic policy poverty health policy quality of life concerns and social services Designed as a text for students and as a professional resource for practitioners this book is a comprehensive review of the current literature and contains authoritative information on issues relating to a vulnerable population in need of sophisticated care

End-Of-Life Stories Donald E. Gelfand, Richard Raspa, Sherylyn H. Briller, Stephanie Myers Schim, 2005-05-02 End of life experiences are often viewed in terms of only one perspective such as medicine In this volume a variety of end of life experiences are presented and each case is analyzed from a variety of disciplinary perspectives These range across a broad array of the helping professions and disciplines such as information law and the social sciences The book provides a variety of narratives about end of life experiences contributed by members of the Wayne State University End of Life Interdisciplinary Project Each of the narratives is then analyzed from several different disciplinary perspectives These analyzes illustrate how specific end of life narratives can be viewed from different dimensions and helps students researchers and practitioners see the important and varied meanings that end of life experiences have at the level of the individual the family and the community The narratives include end of life experiences of individuals from a number of diverse backgrounds

Last Rights Barbara Logue, 1993-01-01 Several recent trends demographic social and economic are increasing the incidence and public support of deliberate death among the old and sick The number of elderly people is at an all time high Medical technology can prolong the lives of these men and women but it cannot keep them independent free of pain or competent to manage their own affairs Never before have so many been so sick for so long Changes in the size and structure of the American family make long term home care almost impossible while exorbitant health costs and scarce resources limit the provision of highquality care by paid workers Researcher Barbara J Logue refers to any deliberate behavior that causes death as death control She points out that death control like birth control involves very serious and deeply personal decisions choices that ought to be made on the basis of reliable information with care and compassion without coercion She goes on to assert that like birth control death control should be performed legally and with the help of the medical community Without access to assisted deaths many frail old people are left to endure wretched deaths Some die slowly of neglect or malnutrition in nursing homes Others take their own lives sometimes by violent means while they can still act independently because they are afraid that no one will help them if they wait until they are very sick Some die alone fearful of implicating friends or relatives in their back alley euthanasia While some die too soon because they are poor uneducated or hard to manage others are overtreated and their deaths delayed because doctors and hospitals want to increase their income or fear prosecution if they help a patient die Barbara Logue describes these and many other hazards inherent in our present long term care system noting that all too often the system causes suffering instead of alleviating it After assessing the alternatives she urges that we must make compassionate death control as available as birth control We must regulate and monitor it like any other medical procedure taking steps to minimize the risks while maximizing the benefits
