Which Lessons Matter? Christopher Hemmer, 2012-02-01 As policy makers turn to the lessons of history to which lessons will they turn This book offers a model of the analogical reasoning process that helps answer the important question of why some historical analogies are seen as relevant for later decisions while others are ignored It explores the previously neglected possibility that analogies can do more than simply advance the pre existing interests of decision makers but can also determine the very interests policy makers seek to further The usefulness of this approach in impacting the lessons of history is demonstrated by examining American policy toward Iran concerning American hostages from 1979 to 1987 detailing both the Carter administration s policy during the Hostage Crisis and the Reagan administration s policy that resulted in the Iran Contra Affair

Negotiating with Terrorists Guy Olivier Faure, I. William Zartman, 2010-02-25 This edited volume addresses the important issue of negotiating with terrorists and offers recommendations for best practice and processes Hostage negotiation is the process of trying to align two often completely polarised parties Authorities view hostage taking as unacceptable demands made by unacceptable means However terrorists view their actions as completely justified even on moral and religious grounds If they are to try and reconcile these two sides it is essential for hostage negotiators to understand terrorist culture the hostage takers profiles their personality their view of the world and also the authorities their values and their framing of the problem raised by the taking of hostages Although not advocating negotiating with terrorists the volume seeks to analyse when why and how it is done Part I deals with the theory and quantifiable data produced from analysis of hostage situations while Part II explores several high profile case studies and the lessons that can be learnt from them This volume will be of great interest to students of terrorism studies conflict management negotiation security studies and IR in general I William Zartman is the Jacob Blaustein Distinguished Professor Emeritus of International Organization and Conflict Resolution and former Director of the Conflict Management and African Studies Programs at the Paul H Nitze School of Advanced International Studies Johns Hopkins University Washington DC He is a member of the Steering Committee of the Processes of International Negotiation PIN Program at the International Institute of Applied Systems Analysis IIASA in Laxenburg Austria He is author editor of over 20 books on negotiation conflict and mediation Guy Olivier Faure is Professor of Sociology at the Sorbonne

American Dreams H. W. Brands,2011-05-31

From bestselling historian H W Brands an incisive chronicle of the events and trends that guided and sometimes misguided our nation from the A bomb to the iPhone For a brief bright moment in 1945 America stood at its apex looking back on victory not only against the Axis powers but against the Great Depression and looking ahead to seemingly limitless power and promise What we ve done with that power and promise over the past six decades is a vitally important and fascinating topic that has rarely been tackled in one volume and never by a historian of H W Brands s stature As American Dreams opens

Brands shows us a country dramatically different from our own more unequal in social terms but more equal economically more religious and rural but also more liberal and more wholeheartedly engaged with the rest of the world As he traces the changes we have gone through as a nation he reveals the great themes and dreams that have driven America the rising focus on individual rights and pleasures the growing distance between our global goals and those of the rest of the world and the inexorable dissolution of a shared sense of what it means to be American In Brands s adroit hands these trends unfold through a character driven narrative that sheds brilliant light on the obvious highs and lows from Watergate to the Berlin Wall from Apollo 11 to 9 11 from My Lai to shock and awe But he also chronicles the surprising impact of less celebrated events and trends Through his eyes we realize the sweeping significance of the immigration reforms of the 1960s which gradually transformed American society We come to grasp the vast impact of abandoning the gold standard in 1971 which enabled both globalization and the current financial crisis We ponder the unnerving results of CNN s debut in 1979 which sped up the news cycle and permanently changed our foreign policy by putting its effects live on our TV screens Blending political and cultural history with his keen sense of the spirit of the times Brands captures the national experience through the last six decades and reveals the still unfolding legacy of dreams born out of a global cataclysm
