Hou Hanru On The Midground

William Siew Wai Lim

Hou Hanru On The Midground:

On the Mid-ground Hanru Hou, 2002 Hou Hanru is undoubtedly one of the most dynamic and innovative curators and critics on the contemporary art scene today. Known for such ground-breaking exhibitions as Cities on the Move co-curated with Hans Ulrich Obrist, Out of the Center in Paris, and the Kwangju Biennial in Korea, his work addresses questions of globalization and identity, understanding contemporary art practice as it exists beyond geographical and regional boundaries. This dense, excellent collection of his writings and interviews is divided into four sections: From China to the International, From Exile to the Global, Global Cities and Art, and Interviews Dialogues Conversations. Urbanization and Contemporary Chinese Art Meiqin Wang, 2015-08-11 This book explores the relationship between the ongoing urbanization in China and the production of contemporary Chinese art since the beginning of the twenty-first century. Wang provides a detailed analysis of artworks and methodologies of art-making from eight contemporary artists who employ a wide range of mediums including painting, sculpture, photography, installation, video, and performance. She also sheds light on the relationship between these artists and their sociocultural origins, investigating their provocative responses to various processes and problems brought about by Chinese urbanization. With this urbanization comes a fundamental shift of the philosophical and aesthetic foundations in the practice of Chinese art from a strong affiliation with nature and countryside to one that is complexly associated with the city and the urban world. China's Art Market since 1978 Li Ma, 2023-09-30 This book examines the rising global prominence of China's art market throughout the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. To understand the far-reaching impact of Chinese art on global consumption, this book traces the shift from regional markets to global markets. It asks how the Chinese art market re-emerged from its politicized past, innovated within the private economy boom, remained resilient despite the global financial crisis, and flourished on the global stage despite the COVID-19 pandemic. Ultimately, it argues that cultural entrepreneurship enabled Chinese art professionals to reinvent their space and to participate in the global artworld.

Hong Kong Soft Power Frank Vigneron, 2018-03-15 In late 2014, the prodemocracy demonstrations that were called the Umbrella Movement revealed to the world that Hong Kong was not the money-obsessed society it had often been portrayed as. Hong Kong Soft Power is a description of the complex relationship the artists and activists of this city have had with the country it has been part of since 1997. Trying to understand all the varied forms of art practices possible in the Special Administrative Region by locating them within a relational model and situating them within the dynamic and changing art ecosystem that has developed over the last decade, Hong Kong Soft Power describes the local art field as a site of struggle where the connections with Chinese Mainland institutions and art practices play a fundamental role. This is not to say that this influence has entirely dominated the local art field, and this book also emphasizes how the artists of the city have engaged in practices ranging from the most personal to the most socially oriented. With the analysis of the works of about fifty local art practitioners and a representative range of art institutions, Hong Kong Soft Power is the portrait of a culture going through the trials and tribulations of rapid political and economic changes in both its negative and positive effects Along the Indian Highway Cathrine Bublatzky, 2019-08-02 This book is an ethnographic study of the travelling art exhibition Indian Highway that presented Indian contemporary art in Europe and China between 2008 and 2012 a significant period for the art world that saw the rise and fall of the national exhibition format It analyses art exhibition as a mobile object and promotes the idea of art as a transcultural product by using participant observation in depth interviews and multi media studies as research method This work encompasses voices of curators artists audiences and art critics spread over different cities sites and art institutions to bridge the distance between Europe and India based on vignettes along the Indian Highway The discussion in the book focuses on power relations the contested politics of representation and dissonances and processes of negotiation in the field of global art It also argues for rethinking analytical categories in anthropology to identify the social role of contemporary art practices in different cultural contexts and also examines urban art and the way national or cultural values are reinterpreted in response to ideas of difference and pluralism Rich in empirical data this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of modern and contemporary art Indian art and visual culture anthropology art history mobility and transcultural studies Contemporary Chinese Art, Aesthetic Modernity and Zhang Peili Paul Gladston, 2019-10-17 In recent decades the previously assumed dominance within the international art world of western ized conceptions of aesthetic modernity has been challenged by a critically becalming diversification of cultural outlooks widely referred to as contemporaneity Contributing to that diversification are assertions within mainland China of essential differences between Chinese and western art In response to the critical impasse posed by contemporaneity Paul Gladston charts a historical relay of mutually formative interactions between the artworlds of China and the West as part of a new transcultural theory of artistic criticality Informed by deconstructivism as well as syncretic Confucianism Gladston extends this theory to a reading of the work of the artist Zhang Peili and his involvement with the Hangzhou based art group the Pond Association Chi she Revealed is a critical aesthetic productively resistant to any single interpretative viewpoint including those of Chinese exceptionalism and the supposed immanence of deconstructivist uncertainty Addressing art in and from the People s Republic of China as a significant aspect of post West contemporaneity Gladston provides a new critical understanding of what it means to be contemporary and the profound changes taking place in the art world today

The Spirit of Individualism Lansheng Zhang, 2023-02-02 This book is about avant garde art in Shanghai in the 1980s which challenges the narrative in the current discourse on the appearance of contemporary art in China Offering fresh perspectives and new insights into the art and the artists of this period the book includes critical events in Shanghai that will attract the serious attention of art professionals and collectors The emergence of the Shanghai art scene in the 1980s mirrors the revitalisation of Shanghai that was tasked to lead China s economic development trajectory onto the world stage Shanghai with its semi colonial political economic and cultural history including the strong legacy of the early twentieth century modernist art movement has played a vital role in China's modernisation and presents itself as a unique case in the evolution of contemporary art in China

Critical Distance in Documentary Media Gerda Cammaer, Blake Fitzpatrick, Bruno Lessard, 2018-10-30 This collection of essays presents new formulations of ideas and practices within documentary media that respond critically to the multifaceted challenges of our age As social media augmented reality and interactive technologies play an increasing role in the documentary landscape new theorizations are needed to account for how such media both represents recent political socio historical environmental and representational shifts and challenges the predominant approaches by promoting new critical sensibilities The contributions to this volume approach the idea of critical distance in a documentary context and in subjects as diverse as documentary exhibitions night photography drone imagery installation art mobile media nonhuman creative practices sound art and interactive technologies It is essential reading for scholars practitioners and students working in fields such as documentary studies film studies cultural studies contemporary art history and digital media studies

China and the West Lili Hernández, 2012-03-15 The meeting point between China and the West is a striking subject in a wide range of disciplines This collection scrutinises how China and the West interact in aspects of culture arts politics and everyday life Within a complex web of actors dimensions technologies spaces and social structures cultural encounters are nevertheless problematic China and the West come together within the stream of a global world The essays in this anthology analyse new and emerging dynamics that challenge authoritative views imposed on the other while deconstructing traditional responses to otherness too Bringing these essays together responds to a commitment to a critical assessment of the various shapes that such convergence takes within globalisation China and the West Encounters with the Other in Culture Arts Politics and Everyday Life will appeal to scholars and practitioners in communications the visual arts cultural studies sociology media studies anthropology literature and politics The non academic reader interested in the vibrant and emerging interface between China and the West will find this enlightening too

Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2014-06-15 Since the confirmation of Deng Xiaoping's policy of Opening and Reform in 1978 the People's Republic of China has undergone a liberalization of culture that has led to the production of numerous forms of avant garde experimental and museum based art With a fast growing international market and a thriving artistic community contemporary Chinese art is riding a wave of prosperity though issues of censorship still abound Shedding light on the current art scene Paul Gladston's Contemporary Chinese Art puts China's recent artistic output into the context of the wider cultural economic and political conditions that surround it Providing a critical mapping of ideas and practices that have shaped the development of Chinese art Gladston shows how these combine to bind it to the structure of power and state both within and outside of China Focusing principally on art produced by artists from mainland China including painting film video photography and performance he also discusses art created in Taiwan Hong Kong Macau and diasporic communities Illustrated with 150 images Contemporary Chinese Art unravels the complexities of politics artistic practice and culture in play in China's art scene Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research. Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context. The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe, contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution. The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure. The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art. Their multi-faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades. The Conformed Body: Contemporary Art in China Jiehong Jiang, 2024-07-29 Through the perspective of the conformed body this groundbreaking book examines the role in art of everyday conformist practices in the People's Republic of China such as mass assemblies and bodily trainings and exercises as well as their impact on people's perceptions and collective memories. It identifies related artworks, reassesses artistic interpretations with critical reflections and explores a key origin of artistic productions in post Mao China. Featuring 200 colour illustrations the book discusses works by more than 30 internationally acclaimed Chinese contemporary artists including Ai Weiwei, Geng Jianyi, Song Dong, Xu Bing, Zhang Peili and Zhang Xiaogang. Art and Asia Pacific, 2003 China Pluperfect II Frank Vigneron, 2022-07-01 This book contains analysis of different domains of contemporary art in China seen through the lens of the epistemological changes described in China Pluperfect I: Epistemology of Past and Outside in Chinese Art. It first looks at the concept of ink art describing how it meant different things to different people in the former colony and how these different meanings came to determine certain institutional choices made at the beginning of the 21st century. The following chapters are dedicated to issues related to the urban and rural contexts for art creation in Mainland China and Hong Kong. One chapter observes the ups and downs of the representations of cities in the history of the People's Republic of China and how they have defined a certain idea of culture. Another looks at how Chinese cities have been exceptional centers of art creations over the last thirty to forty years through the example of Shenzhen where a vibrant art scene albeit closely connected to Hong Kong which has become a major art hub in the last two decades has developed. The following is dedicated to the changing fortunes of art making in the countryside observing how institutions in the Mainland and in Hong Kong have supported these practices very differently. Frank Vigneron finally considers how the different speeds of globalization slow in the past and fast today have determined some of the issues of past and outside in the present particularly in the context of socially engaged art in both the Mainland and Hong Kong Asian Ethical Urbanism: A Radical Postmodern Perspective William Siew Wai

Lim, 2005-07-15 With the impending demise of modernist planning the footprints and corpses of failed modernist visions are littered everywhere A vacuum of implementable urban theories has occurred at the time when unprecedented expansion and restructuring of cities in rapidly developing economies are taking place In this collection of essays William S W Lim zeroes in on the peculiarities and dynamics of present Asian urban and architectural conditions in order to challenge and transcend the socio ecological forms and political influences generated by the current system of global capitalism Part I of this book consists of the main essay which attempts to establish baselines for an effective formulation of ethical urbanism in Asia by clarifying issues that have previously been unquestioningly bound up with Western values and discourses As an architect urbanist Lim lends a determinedly spatialist and environmental perspective to issues such as rights ethics happiness and social justice while compelling his readers to rethink previously established notions about them Part II of this book consists of three city studies on Hanoi Shanghai and Singapore completed in the last two years which attempt to match Lim's theoretical formulation with actual conditions occurring in Asia today Also included is Asian Architecture in the New Millennium a fascinating discourse on contemporary design conducted from a postmodern perspective Contemporary Chinese Art

Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden.com Cover picture Xu Bing A Case Study of Transference 1993 94 Eye of the Beholder John Clark, Maurizio Peleggi, T. K. Sabapathy, 2006 This book interrogates the relationship between different kinds of modern art and different kinds of cultural contexts in Asian and Pacific countries The thirteen essays examine how the modern is formed by artists in relation to other traditions and practices Western or folk the audience and modern art institutions and the burgeoning conceptions of the national as deployed by the post colonial state The methodologies applied are broad from anthropology and art history to cultural studies and the perspectives include those of academics curators and new media theorists In the Eye of the Beholder contributes a diverse understanding of where modern and contemporary Asian art is now situated Global Art in Local Art Worlds Oscar Salemink,Amélia Siegel Corrêa,Jens Sejrup,Vibe Nielsen,2023-03-30 This book explores the attribution and local negotiation of cultural valuations of artistic and art institutional practices around the world and considers the diverse ways in which these value attributions intersect with claims of universality and cosmopolitanism Taking Michael Herzfeld s notion of the global hierarchy of value as point of departure the volume brings together six empirical studies of the collection circulation classification and exhibition of objects in present day Brazil China India Japan South Africa and Indigenous Australia in light of Europe s loss of global hegemony Including reflections by a number of senior scholars the chapters demonstrate that the question of valuation lies at the heart of artistic and art institutional practices writ large including museum practices museum architecture galleries auction houses art fairs and biennales Understanding Globalization Tony Schirato,Jen Webb,2003-03-21 Globalization is a highly debated term and struggles over its meaning are played out in a variety of ways from academe and the media to the streets of Seattle Melbourne and Genoa This book provides a welcome introduction to the discourses practices and technologies that have been grouped together under that term It outlines the historical contexts of globalization and addresses the politics of naming that are so central to the reproduction of the narratives and patterns of globalization The authors examine specific sites that are being transformed by globalization such as capitalism state governments the media and cultural identity and explore the notion of a post globalization world This will be a valuable book to undergraduate and MA students on communication media cultural studies sociology politics and development courses
