Agents of Space Christina Smylitopoulos, 2016-04-26

In the last twenty five years the concept of space has emerged as a productive lens through which historians of the long eighteenth century can examine the varied and mutable issues at play in the creation and reception of objects images spectacles and the built environment This collection of essays investigates the potentialities afforded by space in eighteenth century art and visual culture Rather than being defined by a particular school of art or the type of space invoked it invites global difference and reflects scholarly engagement in the eighteenth century artistic phenomena of Italy Mexico and India as well as Britain and France in immediate imperial and transnational contexts The contributions here share an emphasis on agency which in this context means the way in which objects artists architects and patrons in their many guises have attempted to negotiate various artistic political philosophical and socio economic values through creating reflecting appropriating denying or reimagining space Divided into two sections the chapters in the first part Memory examine specific episodes of eighteenth century art and visual culture that are acts of remembering or a result of such action or objects used to persuade through reminding In these essays space's agency whether understood as real theoretical or imagined is harnessed by recalling past cultures so as to assert and reassert identities that are also bound by limiting factors including class religion artistic methodology and materiality The chapters in the second section Reform demonstrate memory's perseverance in eighteenth century attempts to strike off in new directions and consider more concrete and purposeful cases of reaching toward the future In this section the capacity of space to inform the development growth and even transformation of this period is emphasized revealing an interest in the incremental or radical reform of politics psychological states artistic eminence and colonial imperial identities This book invites a broader geographical scope to studies of space and underscores the ways in which agency can be productive to multifarious lines of artistic cultural and historical inquiry John Singer Sargent Trevor J. Fairbrother, John Singer Sargent, Seattle Art Museum, 2000-01-01 Om den amerikanske maler John Singer Sargent 1856 1925 Creating Interior Atmosphere Jean Whitehead, 2017-12-14 This book sets out to explore the creation of interior atmosphere as seen through the lens of mise en scene You will learn how this film theory informs the concept of staged space translated through the narrative and expressive qualities of a particular scene Jean Whitehead quickly takes this concept beyond the screen and considers its application to the interior setting By learning to use the ingredients that inform an interior mise en scene such as its backdrop choice of props use of special effects alongside the application of colour pattern graphics light and shadow an immersive atmospheric experience can be created Packed with inspiring examples and case studies ranging from cinematic interiors and art installations to the work of notable interior designers stylists and architects with an interior interest this book broadens current thinking around the design of the decorated interior It will help you to embrace the concepts that underpin an interior mise en scene through the use of softer decorative techniques and concerns Photo-Era Magazine, the American Journal of Photography ,1904

Nature Exposed Jennifer Tucker, 2013-08-15 In Nature Exposed Jennifer Tucker studies the intersecting trajectories of photography and modern science in late Victorian Britain She examines the role of photograph as witness in scientific investigation and explores the interplay between photography and scientific authority Almost immediately after the invention of photography in 1839 photographs were characterized as offering objective access to reality unmediated by human agency political ties or philosophy This mechanical objectivity supposedly eliminated judgment and interpretation in reporting and picturing scientific results But photography is a labor intensive process that allows for and sometimes requires manipulation In the late nineteenth century the nature of this new technology sparked a complex debate about scientific practices and the value of the photographic images in the production and dissemination of scientific knowledge Recovering the controversies and commentary surrounding the early creation of scientific photography and drawing on a wide range of new sources and critical theories Tucker establishes a greater understanding of the rich visual culture of Victorian science and alternative forms of knowledge including psychical research

Cerys, Catatonia And The Rise Of Welsh Pop David Owens, 2011-11-30 In the late nineties Wales is the centre for guitar bands in the UK so says John Robb in THE NINETIES and with bands as strikingly fresh and individual as Catatonia Welsh denomination looks assured It has taken Catatonia eight years of hard work and persistence to gain the recognition and adulation that they so richly deserve but finally Cerys searing vocals and lilting guitar pop have made the breakthrough Hardly surprisingly really considering the wealth of talent that is Catatonia and the crest of the Welsh wave they are so assuredly riding But as anyone will tell you what makes Catatonia different from the rest the Manic Street Preachers Stereophonics and others is Cerys Cerys Matthews is fast becoming an icon in herself a combination of sweetness and South Walesian toughness that is proving to be so endearing to her legion of fans Often likened to Blondie Cerys has graced more magazine covers than you care to mention yet she is the sort of pop star who still sends away for free tights This book will be the first to chart the rise and yet further rise of Catatonia from Cerys busking outside Debenhams in Cardiff to their new found fame
