Scandal (2nd Edition) Nigel Collett, 2020 In January 1980 a young police officer named John MacLennan committed suicide in his Ho Man Tin flat His death came mere hours before he was to be arrested for committing homosexual acts still at that point illegal in Hong Kong But this was more than the desperate act of a young man ashamed and afraid both his death and the subsequent investigation were a smokescreen for a scandal that went to the heart of the establishment MacLennan came to Hong Kong from Scotland during a tumultuous time in Hong Kong s history The governorship of Sir Murray MacLehose was to be a time of reform and progress but with that remit came the determination of many to suppress scandals and silence those who stirred up trouble Both the life and death of John MacLennan seemed to many of those in power to threaten the stability of one of Britain s last colonies The second edition includes a foreword by Christine Loh former undersecretary for the environment former legislator and founder of Civic Exchange as well as updated information from new interviews with key people involved in the case With endorsements from human rights researchers and the local community this book provides insight into Hong Kong during a time of social unrest and corruption scandals a time when homosexuality and paedophilia were often considered interchangeable and both offered easy targets for blackmail Collett s vivid account of the MacLennan case and its aftermath allows us to rediscover an episode that is important not only to Hong Kong gay history but to the history of law and criminal justice in a colonial context more broadly A fascinating read Dr Marco Wan Associate Professor of Law and Director of the Programme in Law and Literary Studies University of Hong Kong Nigel Collett has written a period masterpiece Christine Loh Former undersecretary for the environment former legislator and founder of Civic Exchange unexpected places Abolishing Death Irene Masing-Delic,1992-11-01 The idea of abolishing death was one of the most influential myth making concepts expressed in Russian literature from 1900 to 1930 especially in the works of writers who attributed a life modeling function to art To them art was to create a life so aesthetically organized and perfect that immortality would be an inevitable consequence This idea was mirrored in the thought of some who believed that the political revolution of 1917 would bring about a revolution in basic existential facts specifically the belief that communism and the accompanying advance of science would ultimately be able to bestow physical immortality and to resurrect the dead According to one variant for example the dead were to be resurrected by extrapolation from the traces of their labor left in the material world The author finds the seeds of this extraordinary concept in the erosion of traditional religion in late nineteenth century Russia Influenced by the new power of scientific inquiry humankind appropriated various divine attributes one after the other including omnipotence and omniscience but eventually even aiming toward the realization of individual physical immortality and thus aspiring to equality with God Writers as different as the decadent Fyodor Sologub the political Maxim Gorky and the gothic Nikolai Ognyov created works for making mortals into gods transforming the raw materials of current reality into legend The book first outlines the ideological context of the immortalization project notably the impact of the philosophers Fyodorov and Solovyov The remainder of the book consists of close readings of texts by Sologub Gorky Blok Ognyov and Zabolotsky Taken together the works yield the salvation program that tells people how to abolish death and live forever in an eternal self created cosmos gods of a legend that was made possible by creative artists imaginative scientists and inspired laborers Dick Merriwell's Stanchness Burt L.
