Burkett Jr., 2022-03-23 For Bill Burkett life has been an extended series of duck hunts Here are his personal diaries that describe memorable hunts along with the high points of his journalistic career Any hunter will identify and find these tales as exhilarating as taking down that first bluebill canvasback or greenwing teal The Political Diaries of the Fourth Earl of Carnarvon, 1857-1890: Volume 35 Peter Gordon, 2009-12-17 Based on the diaries of Henry Herbert Molyneux fourth Earl of Carnarvon this book sheds new light on Conservative politics in the second half of the nineteenth century Few political diaries of this scale and significance have survived and they reveal him to be a shrewd observer of events Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney, Volume 4 Frances Burney, Betty Rizzo, 2003-05-21 Volume IV of The Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney covering the years 1780-1781 will be of particular interest to students of Burney as it marks the young author's introduction into the world following the astonishing success of her novel Evelina 1778 and includes her visits to Streatham and her encounters with Hester and Henry Thrale and Dr Johnson It was an exciting period in her life which she managed to enjoy despite struggling to repeat her first success while avoiding the often unwelcome attention it brought But it was also a difficult period in her family life as she dealt with jealous interference by her stepmother the courtship of her sister Susan by a man she considered untrustworthy and the misbehaviour of her brothers Burney's enthusiasm makes the most of her experiences and she describes characters and scenes with all the genius displayed in her novels Her descriptions contain the four great attributes that distinguish her novels brilliant handling of detail total and full recall of conversations characteristic of the speaker sensibility and empathy for others and great relish for the ridiculous wherever it occurred The Hong Kong Diaries Chris Patten, 2022-06-21 The diaries of the last British Governor of Hong Kong published on the 25th anniversary of the handover In June 1992 Chris Patten went to Hong Kong as the last British governor to try to prepare it not as other British colonies over the decades for independence but for handing back in 1997 to the Chinese from whom most of its territory had been leased 99 years previously Over the next five years he kept this diary which describes in detail how Hong Kong was run as a British colony and what happened as the handover approached The book gives unprecedented insights into negotiating with the Chinese about how the institutions of democracy in Hong Kong were belatedly strengthened and how Patten sought to ensure that a strong degree of self government would continue after 1997 Unexpectedly his opponents included not only the Chinese themselves but some British businessmen and civil service mandarins upset by Patten's efforts for whom political freedom and the rule of law in Hong Kong seemed less important than keeping on the right side of Beijing The book concludes with an account of what has happened in Hong Kong since the handover a powerful assessment of recent events and Patten's reflections on how to deal with China then and now
