House Of Commons At Work:

Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1876      House of Commons - Home Affairs Committee: The Work of the UK Border Agency (January-March 2013) - HC 616 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2013-11-08 The Border Agency backlogs by the time it was wound up had fallen to 432 000 However most of the 70 400 reduction was achieved by simply loading pending cases onto the computer and in some categories such as those applying for further leave to remain on the basis of marriage or civil partnership the backlog had actually grown The Committee has no objection in principle to the introduction of a charge for access to the National Health Service for those who are in the UK only temporarily However it expresses concerns about the possible application of the scheme to vulnerable people who have been trafficked into the country and recommends that the Government should pilot an alternative option for visa applicants to take out private health insurance instead This has been a chaotic summer for immigration policy First we had the controversial AdVans which were rightly ridiculed and then it was revealed that Capita had botched the contract to clear the migration refusal pool by asking British citizens to leave their own country Finally we saw a u turn on visa bonds however the uncertainty has already done damage A more effective and less menacing message would be that the Government is willing and able to support those who are here illegally to return home if they want to Tough enforcement action should be taken against those who are determined to remain here illegally but for the target audience of potential voluntary returners the effectiveness of the carrot is potentially undermined by the ostentatious brandishing of the stick      House of Commons - Communities and Local Government Committee: The Work Of The Regulation Committee Of The Homes And Communities Agency - HC 130 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee, 2013-09-11 Despite acknowledging that a handful of providers give him concern the Regulator is reluctant to give them lower financial viability ratings fearing that doing so might trigger an upward re pricing of their debt Instead the Regulator uses governance ratings to signal concerns about financial viability This practice lacks openness and should stop and accurate financial viability ratings should be published The fear of triggering a re pricing also prevents the Regulator from using many of his statutory powers preferring to adopt informal approaches instead This lacks transparency and risks too close a relationship developing between the Regulator and providers The devolved administrations housing regulators not to mention regulators in other sectors must encounter similar dilemmas The Regulator should work with them to see how they have addressed his concern that the use of statutory powers could prove counter productive The Committee s concerns are underlined by the case of Cosmopolitan Housing Group which came close to insolvency in 2012 The Regulator only lowered its financial viability rating for Cosmopolitan in December 2012 despite the fact that he had been monitoring the situation for months and the possibility of insolvency had been raised in the media two months previously The report also raises concerns about how effectively the Regulator is discharging his remit for consumer regulation Noting that of 111 complaints related to consumer standards referred to the Regulator no case of serious consumer detriment was found the Report calls for an annual external check to be carried out to provide assurance that the Regulator is discharging his duties effectively Debates of the House of Commons, of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Schoenefeldt,2020-12-30 Rebuilding the Houses of Parliament explores the history of the UK Houses of Parliament in Westminster from an environmental design perspective and the role David Boswell Reid played in the development of the original ventilation and climate control system in parliament This book retraces and critically examines the evolution of the environmental principles underlying the design of the Houses of Parliament engaging with fundamental questions about air quality energy efficiency and thermal comfort This yields insights into the historic methods of environmental design that were characterised by physical experimentation and post occupancy evaluation Rebuilding the Houses of Parliament examines the history of the buildings operation studying the practical reality of its performance in use and offers the opportunity to reflect on current challenges faced by architects and engineers adapting to the realities of climate change This book is an ideal read for academics politicians and practitioners with an interest in architectural history and heritage theory engineering and conservation Reports from Committees of the House of Commons House of Commons,1715 Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, House of Commons - Foreign Affairs Committee: the FCO's Human Rights Work in 2012 - HC 267 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,2013-10-17 The FCO was timid and inconsistent in the discussions which led to the decision to award to Sri Lanka the right to host the 2013 CHOGM It should have taken a more robust approach since in the light of continuing human rights abuses in the country In 2009 the FCO objected to Sri Lanka hosting the 2011 CHOGM but did not obstruct a proposal that it might do so in 2013 nor did it insist that Sri Lanka s right to host in 2013 should be conditional on improvements in human rights The Committee took evidence from the BBC World Service on jamming and denial of access to its broadcast and internet services particularly in Iran and China The Committee calls on the BBC to recognise in future funding plans the need to provide the resources necessary to afford protection All providers of satellite services have a commercial interest in defeating jamming The report considers Government policy on human rights in Burma and concludes that the EU's decision to lift economic sanctions in April 2013 was the right one given the remarkable progress made in Burma. But it warns that the UK should be prepared to advocate re-imposition of sanctions if undertakings on human rights are not followed through. The Government should also urge condemnation of those responsible for violence in Rakhine State in 2012. The Committee does not support suggestions that the 2014 Winter Olympic and Paralympic Games should be boycotted in protest against human rights abuses in Russia.
