The A to Z of Fantasy Literature Brian Stableford, 2009-08-13 Once upon a time all literature was fantasy set in a mythical past when magic existed animals talked and the gods took an active hand in earthly affairs As the mythical past was displaced in Western estimation by the historical past and novelists became increasingly preoccupied with the present fantasy was temporarily marginalized until the late 20th century when it enjoyed a spectacular resurgence in every stratum of the literary marketplace Stableford provides an invaluable guide to this sequence of events and to the current state of the field The chronology tracks the evolution of fantasy from the origins of literature to the 21st century The introduction explains the nature of the impulses creating and shaping fantasy literature the problems of its definition and the reasons for its changing historical fortunes The dictionary includes cross referenced entries on more than 700 authors ranging across the entire historical spectrum while more than 200 other entries describe the fantasy subgenres key images in fantasy literature technical terms used in fantasy criticism and the intimately convoluted relationship between literary fantasies scholarly fantasies and lifestyle fantasies The book concludes with an extensive bibliography that ranges from general textbooks and specialized accounts of the history and scholarship of fantasy literature through bibliographies and accounts of the fantasy literature of different nations to individual author studies and useful websites

Murder Darla Sharp, 2018-11-08 MURDER Who Will Believe My Report is a glimpse into the supernatural power of God moving upon an ordinary individual in extraordinary ways This will take you on a journey into the realms of the Spirit of God which are available to all who believe a true account of unfathomable extremes of murder in the lives of people whose paths simply crossed where the arm power of the Lord was revealed There are realms of the spirit world that are good and realms that are evil One is of the light and the other is of the darkness This is one individual s journey where the light and the darkness where good and evil manifested in the realm of the natural and brought forth revelations of murder

Through the Eyes of Nisey Danise Donerson, 2020-11-15 Through the Eyes of Nisey A Memoir of a Lost Mississippi girl by Danise T Donerson is a whirlwind of events of a little girl growing up in Mississippi Nisey often wondered why she had to endure the many years of physical and mental abuse while being just a little girl who needed to be cared for and loved by her mama She longed for the love and care from her Big Mama who took care of her up until her death when she was five years old The life of hardship began immediately She had to take care of her little brother and sister

while her mama worked her many factory jobs She learned how to cook at the age of eight years old because her mama didn't know how Her mama seemed lost and didn't know how to take care of her kids like how Big Mama did Her mama had a nervous breakdown around the age of sixteen and Big Mama helped her cope She had to learn the hard way In the seventies she struggled to find her way in this world During the eighties she got help for her mental issues and started taking medication She often took out her frustrations in life out on Nisey even trying to take her life and Nisey at the time She somehow thought they were better off dead in her mind During this time Nisey had many wonderful people in her life to help her manage the hard times During the nineties her mama felt that she will hurt you before you hurt her She would cuss out at anyone whom she felt was a threat to her or her children all while being controlling of Nisey's life She was married with children and her mama was controlling her household She knew in her heart that she did love her She wouldn't give up on her mama At the age of twenty nine she started seeking God She took control of her life and at the age of forty four in 2012 she was bedridden from her many back surgeries Her mama was there for every surgery and almost every doctor's appointment Something wonderful began to happen and she and her mama's broken relationship began to mend There was forgiveness and an explosion of love filled both of their hearts When her mama died on May 23 2019 three days before her birthday she realized that fifty years of her life was entangled in her mama's life of mental illness Everything that she had endured as a child and adult was because of her mama trying to cope with her issues It was at that moment that she realized that this book was about her mama who was like a caterpillar that evolved into this beautiful butterfly That's why this story had to be written as a therapy for herself and to share her mama's life who had mental health issues This is a real illness and is too often not dealt with in black families
