Sutter,2023-11-20 Congress and China Policy Past Episodic Recent Enduring Influence supports findings that bipartisan majorities in Congress have been instrumental in driving the fundamental shift in American policy toward China carried out during the past six years Filling major gaps in the inadequate treatment of Congress in assessments of US policy toward China this book compares recent Congressional influence with the episodes of Congressional activism in China policy over the past 200 years showing Congress recently has been more important than ever The findings also show that partisan politics Congressional executive competition for policy control swings in public and media opinion and influences by special interests longstanding drivers of past Congressional involvement in China policy have been of secondary or lesser importance as the Congressional members have grappled with the acute dangers posed by Chinese economic security and governance challenges Steady and determined efforts by this cohort of bipartisan Congressional majorities to defend America from Chinese challenges have proven more resolute than the erratic practices of President Trump and previously dismissive Joseph Biden who came late to a tougher policy This volume forecasts that US policy will remain heavily influenced by these members as they serve out their terms in the years ahead

Arms for the Horn Jeffery Lefebvre, 2010-11-23 Using a great power small power theoretical approach and advancing a supplier recipient bargaining model Jeffery Lefebvre attempts to explain what the United States has paid for its relations with two weak and vulnerable arms recipients in the Horn of Africa Through massive documentation and extensive interviewing Lefebvre sorts through the confusions and shifts of the United States post World War II relations with Ethiopia and Somalia two primary antagonists in the Horn of Africa He consulted State Department Pentagon and AID officials congressional staffers current and former ambassadors and Ethiopian and Somali government advisers The story of U S arms transfers to northeast Africa is tangled and complex In 1953 1960 and 1964 66 the United States entered into various arms provision deals with Ethiopia spurred by the Soviet sponsored buildup in the region Policy changed in the 1970s Nixon refused a large aid request in 1973 and in 1977 Carter ended Ethiopia s military aid on human rights grounds and denied aid to Somalia during the 1977 78 Ogaden War Reversing this policy the Reagan administration extended military aid to Somalia despite its aggressive moves against Ethiopia Changes in U S relations and the revolution in Somalia have altered the picture once more Jeffery Lefebvre concludes that U S diplomacy in northeast Africa has been overly influenced by a cold war mentality In their obsession with countering Soviet pressure in the Third World Washington decision makers exposed U S interests to unnecessary risks and given far too much for value received during four decades of vacillating and misguided foreign policy Arms for the Horn should interest all concerned with arms transfer issues and security studies as well as specialist in Africa and the Middle East      Appendix to the Journal of the House of the Representatives New Zealand.
