The House and the Art of Its Design Robert Woods Kennedy, 1953      Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art Thomas S. Hines, 2019-01-22 A comprehensive and fascinating look at the history of the Museum of Modern Art's Architecture and Design Department under the leadership of the influential curator Arthur Drexler Arthur Drexler 1921 1987 served as the curator and director of the Architecture and Design Department at the Museum of Modern Art MoMA from 1951 until 1986 the longest curatorship in the museum's history Over four decades he conceived and oversaw trailblazing exhibitions that not only reflected but also anticipated major stylistic developments Although several books cover the roles of MoMA's founding director Alfred Barr and the department's first curator Philip Johnson this is the only in depth study of Drexler who gave the department its overall shape and direction During Drexler's tenure MoMA played a pivotal role in examining the work and confirming the reputations of twentieth century architects among them Frank Lloyd Wright Le Corbusier Richard Neutra Marcel Breuer and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Exploring unexpected subjects from the design of automobiles and industrial objects to a reconstruction of a Japanese house and garden Drexler's boundary pushing shows promoted new ideas about architecture and design as modern arts in contemporary society The department's public and educational programs projected a culture of popular accessibility offsetting MoMA's reputation as an elitist institution Drawing on rigorous archival research as well as author Thomas S Hines's firsthand experience working with Drexler Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art analyzes how MoMA became a touchstone for the practice and study of midcentury architecture      The Art Teacher's Guide to Exploring Art and Design in the Community Ilona Szekely, 2021-09-09 How can community art build connection in diverse communities Where is the art in contemporary libraries How do you bring subway art into the classroom Drawing on an abundance of examples from Finland Italy New Zealand Spain and the USA including the NYC 2nd Ave Subway the Detroit's Heidelberg Project the Favel Painting Foundation and bicycle rack sculpture Szekely inspires readers to look beyond the classroom walls to develop meaningful art experiences for students She shows the myriad art forms media expressions and design professions that have the influence and potential to shape the local environment reaching far beyond the traditional museum and gallery venue Underpinned by a clear philosophical foundation the field tested approaches show readers how to go beyond the study of reproductions or dwelling on of the masters who are framed in art museums instead having meaningful art experiences using everyday objects and diverse collective experiences She also shows that innovative and exciting art lessons don't need large amounts of funding transportation or even a museum within the local community Each chapter includes photographs talking points and key lesson ideas along with links to further resources      Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture Norman Ridley, 2024-07-30 When the Nazis came to power in January 1933 they began a program of transforming Germany from a democracy into a totalitarian state but it was not a matter of simply enforcing compliance The people had to be coaxed into believing in the new regime Hearts and minds had to be won over and one of the ways the Nazis did that was to create an ideal of German nationhood in which everyone could feel proud This was especially the case with art which came to be used as a powerful tool of propaganda both to disseminate the myth amongst the population and indicate to the Nazi administrators the sort of cultural environment they should create It was not an easy thing to do While the nation was being re created as a dynamic modern and powerful industrial giant all the signals coming from Hitler indicated that his own idyllic view of the German nation was of a traditional rural people deep rooted in a romantic mystical aesthetic Hitler s own experience as an artist in Vienna before the First World War had shown that while technically proficient his work was detached and impersonal Despite being rejected by the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts he continued to see himself as artistically gifted especially in the field of architecture This book looks at how the artistic side of Hitler s personality dominated Nazi aesthetics and the ways in which the Third Reich manipulated public opinion and advanced its political agenda using the power of art Despite his early setbacks Hitler always thought of himself first and foremost an artist He would frequently break off discussions with diplomats and soldiers to veer off on a lecture about his ideas on art and architecture which had been formed during his time in Vienna

Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture explores how Hitler s artistic and architectural vision for Germany led to the monumental structures which we now associate with the Third Reich alongside the rural idyl he sought to espouse and how they came to symbolise the re emergent power of a German nation which would dominate Europe
