Henderson starts what should be an ordinary Monday shift only to discover he's been tapped to train a fresh recruit. A 25 year veteran of the police force in D.C. he likes training recruits fresh out of the academy and seeing what they've learned. But he's rarely their first round trainer. But this time none of it felt right. What was it with this new recruit? Bo's lieutenant tells him he's been specifically requested to train this recruit. That's more than a little unsettling. In order for that to fly that request had to be made by someone very high up. But who? He tried to fly under the radar of important people except the Secret Service of course but no one in the Service would make that request or would they? What is it with this new recruit? She knows stuff. Personal stuff about Bo. One minute she's coming onto him. The next she's showing up at his place off shift. And then she wants to have a private conversation with him. Well that's definitely against all of the rules. Just how far is she going to push this? And how soon until Bo takes it to his boss to get her reassigned?

The Spook Joel Carl, 2013-09 The setting for my novel The Spook is Nebraska Territory in March-May 1861 centered on Fort Laramie. The central character J.D. Davis is a guard for an inspector from the general land office who is investigating a fraudulent eighteen township survey in the vicinity of the Niobrara River. A romance with and marriage to a widow with three children is weaved in the story. The inspector determines the fraud and undertakes to perform the contract and pursue the guilty party. The guilty fight back attempting murder to stop the report. Davis kills the assassin among the defrauders known as the Spook and takes his horse. Davis possesses both a Spencer repeating rifle and a Whitworth sharpshooting rifle through the effort of his wealthy father. A dead shot from an early age with muzzle loaders Davis has the first repeating rifle seen by the Brule Sioux Indians who are a threat to the surveying. A survivor of the destroyed defrauders sets the Brule Sioux Indians on the surveyors by shooting into the Brule village from a horse that is identified as the Spook horse. The Brule are divided partly because the Spook horse is seen in different places at the same times. A battle takes place in which Davis destroys an entire Brule force and has the army bury all the bodies in a mysterious place and way. The Sioux elders eventually confront Davis with their demand for the bodies and an interesting finish to the novel takes place.
