Flynn,Kathryn Haynes,Maureen A. Kilgour,2017-09-08 This volume addresses the need to integrate gender equality into business and management education and provides examples of leading initiatives illustrating how this can occur from various disciplinary and global perspectives Gender inequality has a long history in business schools and the workplace and traditions are hard to change Some disciplines remain resolutely gendered affecting both women and men and case materials on women leaders and managers are still rare The chapters provide conceptual and research rationales as to why responsible management education must address the issue of gender equality They also identify materials and resources to assist faculty in integrating gender issues and awareness into various disciplines and fields These include specific case studies and innovations that assess or address the role of gender in various educational environments The book is designed to help faculty integrate the topic of gender equality into their own teaching and research and gain support for the legitimacy of gender equality as an essential management education topic This is the first book in a series on gender equality as a challenge for business and management education published with the Principles of Responsible Management Education PRME Working Group on Gender Equality Oracle Business Intelligence and Essbase Solutions Guide Rosendo Abellera,Lakshman Bulusu,2016-11-30 This book highlights the practical aspects of using Oracle Essbase and Oracle Business Intelligence Enterprise Edition OBIEE as a comprehensive BI solution It explains the key steps involved in Oracle Essbase and OBIEE implementations Using case studies the book covers Oracle Essbase for analytical BI and data integration using OBIEE for operational BI including presentation services and BI Publisher for real time reporting services Self service BI in terms of VLDB scalability high performance stability long lasting and ease of use that saves time effort and costs while maximizing ROI Training, performance and dynamic capabilities: New insights from absorptive, innovative, adaptative and learning capacities Juan Moreno-Garcia, Felipe Hernández-Perlines,Benito Yáñez-Araque,Murad Ali,2023-07-04 Performance and Progress Subramanian Rangan,2015 The prevailing aspiration of business is performance while that of society is progress Capitalism both the paradigm and practice sits at the intersection of these dual aspirations and the essays in this volume explore its fraught status there Contributions to this volume address questions such as i what s the problem with capitalism ii is the problem just with the practice or with the very paradigm iii what is progress and who is responsible for it iv what evolution is required at the individual system and paradigm level so that enterprises and the executives who lead them may better integrate performance with progress and v whither consumers employees and investors in this evolution The book offers perspectives from two distinct intellectual domains social science and philosophy Scholars in social science including economics management and sociology tend to study performance Ideas of progress on the other hand tend to fall more under the purview of philosophers in particular social and political philosophers Further to obtain an insider s view on practice and possibilities the volume includes essays from a handful of thoughtful business leaders Research should consider not just how to make sustainability profitable but also how to make profitability and the modern economic system sustainable If we are to better comprehend why the world is in protest to reflect on progress or dilemmas of trust we must appreciate the tenuous assumptions of modern microeconomics and markets and hear from modern philosophers about the basis and limits of rationality

The Globalization of Internationalization Hans de Wit,Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila,Elspeth Jones,Nico Jooste,2017-01-20 The Globalization of Internationalization is a timely text which gives voice to emerging perspectives as an increasing range of countries engage in the process of internationalization The pressure to internationalize cannot be ignored by institutions anywhere in today s world yet the dominant paradigms in the conception of internationalization traditionally come from the English speaking world and Western Europe This book sets out to offer alternative viewpoints Different dimensions and interpretations of internationalization in countries and regions whose perspectives have received little attention to date provide food for thought and help to broaden understanding of its application in alternative contexts Combining diverse perspectives from around the world this new volume in the Internationalization in Higher Education series seeks answers to key questions such as What are the main characteristics of internationalization viewed from different cultural and regional backgrounds and how do they differ from traditional models such as in Western Europe North America and Australasia What issues in different global contexts have an impact on internationalization processes What are the key challenges and obstacles encountered in developing innovative and non traditional models of internationalization With contributions from world renowned international authors and perspectives from countries and contexts seen only rarely in the literature The Globalization of Internationalization offers distinctive overviews and insights while exploring a range of thematic and regional issues arising from these considerations This will be essential reading both as an academic resource and a practical manual for university leaders academics higher education policy advisers and non governmental organizations which fund higher education
