Jasper Reflections:

Jasper Reflections, 1996 The Mature Church Emmanuel D. Mbennah, 2013-08-09 In this book Emmanuel Mbennah argues that Christian spiritual maturity is the bridge between the new identity of the Christian articulated in Ephesians 1:3 and the moral code of the Christian life commensurate with the new identity presented in Ephesians 4:17-6:20. From an interpretation of Ephesians 4:13 Mbennah brings to the fore what Christian spiritual maturity is and why it is imperative. He argues that Ephesians 4:1-16 is about spiritual maturity and not about Christian unity except unity as a by-product of maturity. A case study in which the meaning of spiritual maturity is used as a critical standard to evaluate the spiritual maturity of a church in a particular context further clarifies the meaning of spiritual maturity and demonstrates what a sad state of immaturity a church could be in. Mbennah calls for the Church's return to the pursuit of maturity and a return to the subject in New Testament scholarship.

Sacred Modes of Being in a Postsecular World Andrew W. Hass, 2021-09-16 How do we talk meaningfully about the sacred in contexts where conventional religious expression has so often lost its power? Inspired by the influential work of David Jasper, this important volume builds on his thinking to identify sacrality in a world where the old religious and secular debates have exhausted themselves and theology struggles for a new language in their wake. Distinguished writers explore here the idea of the sacred as one that exists paradoxically in a space that is both possible and impossible, profoundly theological on the one hand but also deeply this-worldly and irreligious on the other. This is a sacredness that is simultaneously present and absent, one which encompasses as Jasper himself characterises it the impossible possibility of an absolute vision. The book teaches us that the sacred assumes a renewed potency when fully engaged with the creativity that happens across religion, literature, philosophy and the arts.

The Use of tôrâ by Isaiah Joseph Jensen OSB, 2023-10-17 A careful scholarly investigation into Isaiah's relationship to the wisdom circles of his day and a critique of the practitioners of wisdom in their role as advisers in the royal court and as shapers of royal policy. Presents Isaiah's own view on YHWH's plan and action in history. His use of tôrâ is not priestly or legal or for the prophetic word but means wise instruction as in the wisdom tradition. Careful exegesis of Isaiah's use of the passages in which tôrâ occurs. Isa 1:10-2:3, 5:24-8:16, 20:30-9.

Fundamental Theology Heinrich Fries, 1996 Renowned theologian Heinrich Fries offers what is both a traditionally structured treatment of the basic issues of fundamental theology as they have been modified by Vatican II and a study of the major ethical, religious and cultural issues of the late twentieth century.

Interpreting Scriptures in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Mordechai Z. Cohen, Adele Berlin, 2016-06-06 This comparative study traces Jewish, Christian and Muslim scriptural interpretation from antiquity to modernity with special emphasis on the pivotal medieval period. It focuses on three areas: responses in the different faith traditions to tensions created by the need to transplant scriptures into new cultural and linguistic contexts; changing conceptions of the literal sense and its importance vis-à-vis non-literal senses such as the figurative, spiritual and midrashic; and ways in which classical rhetoric and poetics informed or were resisted in interpretation Concentrating on points of intersection the authors bring to light previously hidden aspects of methods and approaches in Judaism Christianity and Islam This volume opens new avenues for interdisciplinary analysis and will benefit scholars and students of biblical studies religious studies medieval studies Islamic studies Jewish studies comparative religions and theory of interpretation The Rhetorical Analysis of Scripture Stanley E. Porter, Thomas H. Olbricht, 1997-09-01 This is the third in a series of conference papers on rhetorical criticism Held in July 1995 in London the conference included participants from the United Kingdom the United States Canada Germany Italy Switzerland and the Republic of South Africa Part I is concerned with the past present and future of rhetorical analysis Parts II III and IV are concerned with rhetorical analysis of scriptural texts and Part V provides a conclusion reflecting on a number of questions raised in Part I Most of the participants would characterize themselves as advocates of rhetorical criticism but there were others less convinced that rhetorical criticism is developing as it ought Apostles of Revolution? Marxism and Biblical Studies Christina Petterson, 2020-04-20 In Apostles of Revolution Marxism and Biblical Studies Christina Petterson sheds light on the collaboration between Biblical studies and liberal ideology Marxist analysis of the bible is spreading but clarity about what constitutes Marxist readings and Marxist categories of analysis is lacking a lack of clarity compounded by the different strands within Marxist politics and its subtle resonances in biblical scholarship The author examines the interplay between Biblical studies and liberal ideology in two ways First by presenting and discussing some of the central Marxist categories of analysis namely history ideology and class and how these categories have been co opted into biblical studies and in the process lost their radical edge Second by discussing the emergence of the discipline of biblical studies during the Enlightenment and to what extent the containment strategies of biblical studies overlap with those of capitalism The Impact of the Integrated Practitioner in Higher Education Emily McIntosh, Diane Nutt, 2022-03-30 The Impact of the Integrated Practitioner in Higher Education highlights the importance of developing blended professionalism as a way of future proofing Higher Education leadership strategy and outcomes With carefully chosen international contributors this book discusses the rationale for championing blended integrated practitioners and uses a narrative case study approach to uncover the value identities and impact of these individuals who work across institutional boundaries to promote interdisciplinarity as well as staff and student success Divided into four key sections this book explores strategies leadership and theory identities boundaries and ways of working the impact of blended professionals integrated practitioners career trajectories and developing the integrated practitioner The Impact of the Integrated Practitioner in Higher Education is a must read for anyone interested in the future of higher education including academic and professional staff as well as postgraduate students in the field of Education Guide to Christian Living George V. Lobo, 2004-09-28 Among all the theological disciplines perhaps moral theology has felt the impact of the conciliar renewal most There has been a mass of excellent literature calling for a synthetic presentation At the same time a more flexible and dynamic ethic based on the Gospel values of love and freedom while it has undoubtedly deepened the Christian life of many has also caused not a little confusion in the minds of many There are endless discussions on burning issues like contraception and abortion which often do not end in any satisfactory conclusion because the general principles for ethical decision are not clear There is also a polarization between conservatives and progressives which leaves the neutral observer puzzled This book is written to clarify the basic issues in Christian ethics in an age of secularism and pluralism Although it can be taken as a treatise on General Moral Theology this book is addressed to a wider audience than students of theology It is meant to be a guide to Christian Living according to Vatican II It seeks to transcend the unfortunate dichotomy between moral and spiritual theology as the Council clearly wanted when it spoke of the subject of moral theology as the Christian vocation of the faithful and their obligation to bring forth fruit in charity for the life of the world While discussing the basic principles of Christian ethics the main preoccupation has been to discover an approach to moral decision that would safeguard all the moral values in a given situation The broad orientations for moral guidance today have been brought out in several places Special attention has been given to the question of moral absolutes as it is central to ethical discourse now The ecumenical spirit common preoccupations and a shared respect for the Word of God have brought Catholic and Protestant moral theology closer Hence an effort has been made to have a dialogue with the theologians of the Reformed tradition The strong influence of Protestant ethical writers on current Catholic moral theology has been brought out
