Female Sexualization A Collective Work Of Memory:

Female Sexualization Frigga Haug, 1987 Within current theories of sexuality the place of the body is central Taking as their theme the sexualization of the body in particular women s sexualization and the construction of gender Frigga Haug and the other authors of this remarkable book make an original contribution to these debates by taking their own bodies as objects of study Female Sexualization Frigga Haug, 1999 Female Sexualization Frigga Haug, 1987-01 Within current theories of sexuality the place of the body is central Taking as their theme the sexualization of the body in particular women s sexualization and the construction of gender Frigga Haug and the other authors of this remarkable book make an original contribution to these debates by taking their own bodies as objects of study Collective Memory Work Corey W. Johnson, 2018-06-13 The seemingly mundane events of daily life create a complex knowledge base of lived experience to be explored But how does one research common experiences and account for context culture and identity A dilemma arises because experience is not just embedded in events but also in the socially constructed meanings associated with those events This book details the philosophical underpinnings design features and implementation strategies of Collective Memory Work a methodology frequently employed by social justice activists scholars Collective Memory Work can provide scholars with unique and nuanced ways to solve problems for and with their participants Most importantly the chapters also detail projects and social justice in action analysing their participants real stories and experiences projects that focus on LGBTQ youth blacklivesmatter activists white faculty working at historically Black colleges and universities men s media consumption and much more Written in an engaging and accessible style readers will come to understand the potential of their own qualitative research using Collective Memory Work Female Sexualization Frigga Haug, 1999-10-17 Taking as their theme the sexualization of the body in particular women s sexualization and the construction of gender Frigga Haug and the other authors of this book make a contribution to these debates by taking their own bodies as objects of study Gendered Wars, Gendered Memories Ayşe Gül Altınay, Andrea Pető, 2016-04-06 The Introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781315584225> The twentieth century has been a century of wars genocides and violent political conflict a century of militarization and massive destruction It has simultaneously been a century of feminist creativity and struggle worldwide witnessing fundamental changes in the conceptions and everyday practices of gender and sexuality What are some of the connections between these two seemingly disparate characteristics of the past century And how do collective memories figure into these connections Exploring the ways in which wars and their memories are gendered this book contributes to the feminist search for new words and new methods in understanding the intricacies of war and memory From the Italian and Spanish Civil Wars to military regimes in Turkey and Greece from the Armenian genocide and the Holocaust to the wars in Abkhazia East Asia Iraq Afghanistan former Yugoslavia Israel and Palestine the chapters in this book address a rare selection of contexts and geographies from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives In recent years feminist scholarship has fundamentally changed the ways in which pasts particularly violent pasts have been conceptualized and narrated Discussing the participation of women in war sexual violence in times of conflict the use of visual and dramatic representations in memory research and the creative challenges to research and writing posed by feminist scholarship Gendered Wars Gendered Memories will appeal to scholars working at the intersection of military war memory and gender studies seeking to chart this emerging territory with feminist curiosity The SAGE Handbook of Feminist Theory Mary Evans, Clare Hemmings, Marsha Henry, Hazel Johnstone, Sumi Madhok, Ania Plomien, Sadie Wearing, 2014-08-12 At no point in recorded history has there been an absence of intense and heated discussion about the subject of how to conduct relations between women and men This Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to these omnipresent issues and debates mapping the present and future of thinking about feminist theory The chapters gathered here present the state of the art in scholarship in the field covering Epistemology and marginality Literary visual and cultural representations Sexuality Macro and microeconomics of gender Conflict and peace The most important consensus in this volume is that a central organizing tenet of feminism is its willingness to examine the ways in which gender and relations between women and men have been and are organized The authors bring a shared commitment to the critical appraisal of gender relations as well as a recognition that to think theoretically is not to detach concerns from lived experience but to extend the possibilities of understanding With this focus on theory and theorizing about the world in which we live this Handbook asks us across all disciplines and situations to abandon our taken for granted assumptions about the world and interrogate both the origin and the implications of our ideas about gender relations and feminism It is an essential reference work for advanced students and academics not only of feminist theory but of gender and sexuality across the humanities and social sciences Memory Mosaics: Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful Memory-work Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, Daisy Pillay, Claudia Mitchell, 2018-10-24 This book communicates new voices insights and possibilities for working with the arts and memory in researching teacher professional learning The book reveals how through the arts teacher researchers can reimagine and reinvigorate moments of the past as embodied and empowering scholarly experiences The peer reviewed chapters were composed from juxtaposing unique mosaic pieces written by 21 new and emerging scholars in South Africa and Canada Their research explores diverse arts based practices and resources including collage film drawing narrative poetry photography storytelling and television alongside related ethical issues Critically Memory Mosaics also demonstrates how artful memory work can engender agency in professional learning with teacher researchers taking up pressing issues of social justice such as inclusion and decolonisation Overall the book offers a multidimensional polyvocal exploration of how artful memory work can bring about future oriented professional learning enacted as pedagogies of reinvention and productive remembering Memory Mosaics Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful Memory Work by

Kathleen Pithouse Morgan Daisy Pillay and Claudia Mitchell along with teacher researchers on two continents is a ground breaking book It models a collaborative approach to arts based research that melds memory work visual and poetic arts and reflective practice to promote professional learning personal transformation decolonisation and a more just future Like colourful pebbles and bits of glass the authors place teachers self stories in relation to one another in an artful design creating thematic coherence that evokes a deep sense of knowing Judith C Lapadat Professor Emeritus Faculty of Education University of Lethbridge Canada Memory Mosaics Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful Memory Work assembles exemplars of professional learning in an intriguing mosaic format A topic is introduced followed by memory pieces then discussion and or creative response This lively juxtaposition generates momentum for highly productive forms of remembering around social justice issues even as the reader is invited into an intimate circle of shared concern for these issues with these and other teacher researchers It is a beautiful original and practical book Teresa Strong Wilson Associate Professor Faculty of Education McGill University Canada

Beyond the Centaur Margaret R. Miles, 2014-07-17 Beyond the Centaur questions the accuracy and usefulness of the virtually unquestioned ancient consensus that persons are composed of unequally valued hierarchically stacked antagonistic components usually soul or mind and body Part I explores the gradual historical development of this notion of person Part II consists of a thought experiment examining an understanding of persons not as stacked components but as intelligent bodies one entity It explores how a new understanding of persons can affect in important and fruitful ways how we live how we move feel think believe and die

The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Memory Studies Lucy Bond, Susannah Radstone, Jessica Rapson, 2025-05-23 This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the connections between memory and literature Organized into six interrelated sections the book explores both the value of approaches and concepts from literary studies for memory scholarship and the plurality of ways in which literature can advance theories of memory Chapters cover reading and writing memory and literature remediations and intersections local and global cultures postcolonial and decolonial approaches environmental and more than human memory and literature and law and justice It offers an indispensable resource for students and scholars of both literary and memory studies

Women of the Midan Sherine Hafez, 2019-04-03 An exploration of gender the Arab Spring and women s experiences of revolution including firsthand accounts In Women of the Midan Sherine Hafez demonstrates how women were a central part of revolutionary process of the Arab Spring Women not only protested in the streets of Cairo they demanded democracy social justice and renegotiation of a variety of sociocultural structures Women s resistance to state control Islamism neoliberal market changes the military establishment and patriarchal systems forged new paths of dissent and transformation Through firsthand accounts of women who participated in the revolution Hafez illustrates how the gendered body signifies collective action and the revolutionary narrative Using the concept of rememory Hafez shows how the body is inseparably linked to the trauma of the revolutionary struggle While delving into the complex weave of public space government control masculinity and religious and cultural norms Hafez sheds light on women's relationship to the state in the Arab world today and how the state in turn shapes individuals and marks gendered bodies

Psychology and the Conduct of Everyday Life Ernst Schraube, Charlotte Højholt, 2015-08-11 Psychology and the Conduct of Everyday Life moves psychological theory and research practice out of the laboratory and into the everyday world Drawing on recent developments across the social and human sciences it examines how people live as active subjects within the contexts of their everyday lives using this as an analytical basis for understanding the dilemmas and contradictions people face in contemporary society Early chapters gather the latest empirical research to explore the significance of context as a cross disciplinary critical tool they include a study of homeless Moroccan men reaffirming their cultural identity via gardening and a look at how the dilemmas faced by children in difficult situations can provide insights into social conflict at school Later chapters examine the interplay between everyday life around the world and contemporary global phenomena such as the rise of the debt economy the hegemony of the labor market and the increased reliance on digital technology in educational settings The book concludes with a consideration of how social psychology can deepen our understanding of how we conduct our lives and offer possibilities for collective work on the resolution of social conflict

Challenges and Inequalities in Lifelong Learning and Social Justice Susan Jackson, 2014-10-29 The connections and interactions of lifelong learning and social justice are complex and contested Both are seen as a means to unconditional good with little account taken of the inequalities and equalities located in constructions of power This book develops critical ways to engage with international debates about lifelong learning and social justice through a range of competing and contested definitions setting out some of the complexities and challenges of linking the two concepts In particular it engages in debates about the equalities and inequalities of learner identities displacement and place Its chapters consider those marginalised in complex and multiple ways including gender social class ethnicity age and migration This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education

Memory and the Holocaust Judith Tydor Baumel-Schwartz, David Clark, 2025-05-06 The importance of recording testimony of Holocaust survivors is well understood While empowering the survivor and adding another layer of documentation about the cataclysm it also serves as a bulwark against Holocaust denial The same holds true for helping survivors pen their memoirs or when writing their history At the same time this process also impacts upon the person recording the testimony assisting the survivor in writing his or her memoirs and certainly upon those who write about the survivors What happens when the interviewer biographer translator or memoir transcriber is a child or grandchild of that survivor This book is based on the premise that a collection of personal narratives of descendants of Holocaust survivors who interviewed their parents grandparents wrote their history or helped them with their memoirs narratives in which they describe and analyze the impact of these activities on their personal trajectories can greatly contribute to our understand of the Holocaust and particularly its aftermath Each of the book s 14 chapters is a personal narrative by a child or grandchild of Holocaust survivors who analyzes the impact that their interviewing writing about or writing with their surviving parents grandparents had upon their lives Future Memory Practices Gertraud Koch,Rachel Charlotte Smith,2024-10-28 Future Memory Work addresses a crucial challenge in contemporary pluralistic societies the organisation of open participatory and socially inclusive memory practices in digital media ecologies It brings a novel relational approach to future memory work across institutions people and modalities Advancing inter and transdisciplinary research and rich empirical cases from across Europe and beyond the book examines how memory practices in digital media are open for engagement of people with diverse backgrounds It analyses the modalities of memory making and how they can enable institutional and public memory making with a broad spectrum of people and groups in civil society at local translocal national and global levels The chapters examine the mediatized character of memory making whilst also critically considering what obstacles and potentials emerge from participatory memory work As a whole the book is a comprehensive source of knowledge and ideas for creating socially inclusive sustainable memory practices and futures It sets the multidisciplinary research agenda for advancing studies of heritage in contemporary digital media as an element and a driver of cultural and social change Future Memory Work is essential reading for academics students and professionals working in the fields of Anthropology Museum Studies Digital Cultural Heritage Memory Studies Cultural Studies and Design Migrant Youth, Schooling and Identity Nils Hammarén,Biörn Ivemark,Live Stretmo,2024-07-08 This volume provides a broad outlook on migrant youth and schooling in Sweden Denmark Norway Iceland and the United Kingdom It explores empirically how these young people who range from the first to the third generation position themselves in relation to school friendships language use aspirations and the expectations placed upon them The book also examines the role of a variety of professionals street level bureaucrats and other key actors in framing representing problematizing and ultimately contributing to shaping the experiences of these young people Contemporary contextual challenges for educational advancement are particularly highlighted as are key issues of cultural representation and recognition Several contributions also focus on sub groups within the immigrant origin population that have so far only received a limited attention in the literature such as youth in rural areas LGBT youth first in family college students and youth who transition out of anti school subcultures The contributors stem from a variety of disciplines ranging from Education and Youth Studies to Social Work and Sociology and tackle many innovative themes such as peer violence special needs education and artistic interventions among many others Through this original perspective and comparative outlook the book makes an important contribution to the literature on youth migration identity and education It will interest undergraduate students in several areas of the social sciences teachers and other professionals who work with children and young people

Mourning and Disaster Michael Brennan, 2009-01-14 The Hillsborough stadium disaster of 15 April 1989 and the death of Princess Diana on 31 August 1997 sparked expressivist scenes of public mourning hitherto unseen within the context of British society The largely local displays of grief witnessed on Merseyside following the Hillsborough disaster were however repeated and provided a pre text for the national and global public mourning which accompanied the death of Princess Diana What was it this book asks about the Hillsborough disaster and death of Princess Diana that provoked such strong emotions Why and how did these ostensibly similar events produce such contrasting reactions moving some people including the book's author to mourn one event but resist the mourning for the other Mourning and Disaster provides an insight into a series of questions raised by the public mourning that followed these two events What for example do the messages contained in the public books of condolence signed in the wake of these events tell us either about the social identities of the people who mourned or about the processes of meaning making by which death is apprehended and understood What do condolence books tell us about how contemporary society mourns and the ways in which loss is languaged Is it the case that in episodes of public mourning in which the deceased are not known to us personally the mourner might actually be mourning some aspect of themselves Is it also the case that in not mourning these events some aspect of one's own identity or self was being repudiated or mourned Drawing upon both the public books of condolence signed in Britain during the public mourning for these events alongside the author's own autobiographical memories of them it is to these sorts of questions amongst others that this book seeks to provide answers

Pedagogy, 2018-11-01 It has long been established that teaching and learning are autobiographical endeavours so it follows that self study is central to sound practice As a framework self study allows researchers to use their experiences to examine self in practice with the aim of both personal and professional growth By its very design it makes transparent personal processes of inquiry by offering them up for public critique This type of public inquiry of the personal happens in at least two ways first through the inclusion of trusted others who can provide different perspectives on our closely held discourses and second through making our research publicly available so that others might learn from our inquiries Self study then requires openness to vulnerability as we continuously re negotiate who we are as teachers Approaching inquiry from this perspective has at its core deepened self knowledge coupled with intent to transform praxis This transformation is sought through integrated ways of being and teaching that support embodied wholeness of teachers and learners Through critical qualitative creative and arts integrated approaches this collection seeks to advance teacher self study and through it transformative praxis Contributors are Willow S Allen Charity Becker Yue Bian Abby Boehm Turner Diane Burt Vy Dao Lee C Fisher Teresa Anne Fowler Deborah Graham Cher Hill Chinwe H Ikpeze David Jardine Elizabeth Kenyon Jodi Latremouille Carl Leggo Ellyn Lyle Sepideh Mahani Jennifer Markides Sherry Martens Kate McCabe Laura Piersol Kathleen Pithouse Morgan Amanda C
