A Family Matter Megan Gaucher, 2018-05-15 How do we define family In an attempt to police incoming migrants the Harper government adopted a strict definition of family to limit access to citizenship for certain immigrants Even when immigrants had no intention of sponsoring family members their familial networks affected their entry to Canada resulting in differentiated treatment of families living within and beyond Canadian borders Megan Gaucher analyzes the government's assessment of sexual minority refugee claimants relationship history and common law and married spousal sponsorship applications and its crackdown on marriage fraud concluding that this narrative of citizenship reinforces racialized gendered and sexualized assumptions about the Canadian family As many Western governments ponder more restrictive immigration policies A Family Matter offers a timely examination of family formation as a factor in both granting and refusing citizenship This important work proposes a course for re evaluating how family is defined and for implementing more just assessments of immigrants and refugees

Canadian Social Policy Anne Westhues,2006-09-20 The objective of this new edition is the same as that of previous editions to help students understand social policy from a Canadian perspective and to stir them to discussion and debate Part One provides a general overview of social policy and Part Two discusses the policy making processes from the international factors that influence them to the ways in which a social worker can become part of this process Part Three focuses on current social policy issues and Part Four offers a look to the future Each chapter of this best selling book has been thoroughly updated for this new edition with regard to current policy debated issues and resources cited Three new chapters have been added including an overview of adult mental health policy and a critical look at risk assessment in child welfare There is also a discussion of current challenges to the Charter of Rights and Canadians increasing use of the justice system to shape social policy As a result the reader gains an informed perspective of policy development and evaluation Although designed primarily for use by social workers the book will benefit anyone who is involved in the policy making process

Work in Tumultuous Times Vivian Shalla,Wallace Clement,2007 Offering a critique of how social structures and relations as well as ideologies shape workplaces labour markets and households in contemporary Canada this work exposes the uncertainty insecurity and instability that characterise both paid and unpaid work It also proposes alternative policies and practices

Getting by in Hard Times David

Livingstone, Meg Luxton, June Shirley Corman, 2001-01-01 Describes the experiences of daily life for predominantly white working class women and men during the period of economic restructuring begun in the 1980s Feminist Mothering in Theory and Practice, 1985-1995 Fiona J. Green, 2009 Set sail for Africa in this thrilling sequel to Gentleman Captain When a captured Barbary pirate tells a tale of a mountain of gold deep in Africa gentleman Captain Matthew Quinton has his doubts But King Charles II can't resist the chance to outstrip the Dutch with a limitless source of wealth With the devious corsair aboard Quinton embarks on a voyage past the edge of the map and into the African unknown As he gets closer and as sabotage attempts pile up he begins to wonder if there is truth in the legend after all Back in England the king has arranged a marriage between Quinton's elder brother and a mysterious lady rumored to have murdered her previous husbands Will Quinton be able to find the fabled mountain of gold and return home in time to protect his family J D Davies writes with surging lyricism and surprisingly witty insight about a subject that he clearly knows through and through These are superb books and I look forward eagerly to reading more of them Angus Donald author of The Outlaw Chronicles Swashbuckling suspense royal intrigue and high seas naval action an excellent series Publishers Weekly Retooling the Mind Factory Alan Sears, 2003-01-01 Alan Sears examines education reform in relation to a broad process of cultural and economic change His book makes the case that education reform is one aspect of a broad ranging neo liberal agenda that aims to push the market deeper into every aspect of our lives by eliminating or shrinking non market alternatives The author begins by showing that advocates of education reform have had to make the case that the current system is not working This sets the ground for an examination of the so called Common Sense Revolution a claim that drastic change was required to redesign government policies to fit a changing world Lean production methods are a crucial component of this changing world and broader social and cultural change is now required to consolidate the emerging order built on the spread of these methods Education reform is designed to recast the relations of citizenship contributing to the cultural and social change promoted through the social policy of the lean state Selling Diversity Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Christina Gabriel, 2002-09-01 Since the 1990s Canadian policy prescriptions for immigration multiculturalism and employment equity have equated globalization with global markets This interpretation has transformed men and women of various ethnic backgrounds into trade enhancing commodities who must justify their skills and talents in the language of business This particular neo liberal reading of globalization and public policy has resulted in a trend the authors call selling diversity Using gender race ethnicity and class lenses to frame their analysis the authors review Canadian immigration multiculturalism and employment equity policies including their different historical origins to illustrate how a preference for selling diversity has emerged in the last decade In the process they suggest that a commitment to enhance justice in a diverse society and world has been muted Yet neo liberalism is not the only or inevitable option in this era of globalization and Canadians are engaging in transnational struggles for rights and equality and thereby increasing the interconnectedness between peoples across the globe

Consequently the emphasis on selling diversity might be challenged Child Care and Inequality Demie Kurz,Francesca M. Cancian,Andrew S. London,Rebecca Reviere,Mary Tuominen,2022-02-22 Child Care and Inequality provides an in depth investigation of carework for children and youth of all ages This outstanding collection of original essays encourages us to rethink carework and to explore policies that address the needs of both care recipients and careworkers Neoliberalism and Everyday Life Susan Braedley,Meg Luxton,2010-03-19 Illuminating the ways in which neoliberal policies such as the deregulation of economies and the transfer of governmental responsibilities to the private sector have been implemented on a global scale the contributors show how neoliberalism has seeped into our social and political fabric and affected our daily lives Drawing attention to the most visible elements of neoliberalism in business government and personal life reveal the ways in which policies designed to ensure market expansion also inevitably expand social inequalities of gender race class and ability Using a variety of methods contributors discuss a range of topics including globalization privatization health care and the welfare state An intelligent and informative collection that explains and challenges neoliberal policies Neoliberalism and Everyday Life is an important assessment of a political system that makes profit easier and people s lives more difficult

A Life in Balance? Catherine Krull,2011-02-28 Magazine articles talk shows and commercials advise us that our happiness and well being rest on striking a balance between work and family It goes unsaid however that the advice is based on an outmoded and unrealistic ideal This provocative volume challenges the notion often offered in support of neo liberal agendas that paid work employment and unpaid work caregiving and housework are separate and competing spheres rather than overlapping aspects of a single existence Alternative approaches to integrating work and family must be taken into account if we hope to build truly equitable family and childcare policies Women's Organizing and Public Policy in Canada and Sweden Linda Briskin,Mona Eliasson,1999 Briskin and Eliasson professors of social science York U Canada and professor at the Center for Feminist Research Uppsala U Sweden respectively explore women s organizing and public policy in two northern welfare states Canada and Sweden They evaluate the constraints and possibilities provided by the institutional political and discursive contexts in both countries through analysis and comparison of key areas of public policy and the strategic interventions organized by women to challenge and reconstruct these policies The volume s three sections address domestic policy vehicles for organizing and challenges to the boundaries of nation through the EU and NAFTA Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Do Men Mother? Andrea Doucet,2006-11-04 More and more fathers are deciding to stay at home and care for their children rather than work full time outside of the home More and more Canadian families are lead by single fathers Shining a spotlight on the lives of stay at home dads and single fathers Do Men Mother provides groundbreaking evidence of dramatic changes in mothering and fathering in Canada Using evidence gathered in a four year in depth qualitative study including interviews with over 100 fathers from truck drivers to insurance salesmen physicians to artists Andrea Doucet illustrates how men are breaking the mold of traditional parenting models Doucet s research examines key questions such as What leads fathers to trade earning for caring How do fathers navigate through the maternal worlds of mothers and infants Are men mothering or are they redefining fatherhood Do Men Mother illuminates fathers candid reflections on caring and the intricate social worlds that men and women inhabit as they love and let go of their children In asking and unravelling the question do men mother this study tells a compelling story about Canadian parents radically re visioning child care and domestic responsibilities at the beginning of the twenty first century Social Reproduction Kate Bezanson, Meg Luxton, 2006-10-02 Contributors include Sedef Arat Ko Ryerson Kate Bezanson Brock Susan Braedley PhD candidate York Barbara Cameron York Marcia Cohen Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives BC Marjorie Griffin Cohen Simon Fraser Bonnie Fox Toronto Meg Luxton York Leah F Vosko York and Alice de Wolff Toronto based researcher and activist
