Burying Lenin Steven Kull, 2019-03-04 For decades U S foreign policy was focused on battling the menace of Soviet communism then seemingly overnight the implacable foe collapsed How did this extraordinary event come about Political psychologist Steven Kull argues that only a revolution in the thinking of the country's top leaders can explain the swiftness and comparative peacefulness of the recent political transformation His analysis based on probing interviews with Soviet policymakers and on a careful reading of the public record reveals the painful process by which they came to accept the failure of Leninism and to forge an alternative ideology dubbed new thinking Kull assesses the influence of new thinking and other streams of thought on post Soviet foreign policy and behavior and describes the new challenges they present to Western nations

Gorbachev And The Decline Of Ideology In Soviet Foreign Policy Sylvia Babus Woodby, 2019-05-20 Through a combination of actions and words Mikhail Gorbachev has sought to convince the West that the USSR is not dangerous either militarily or politically At home he has sought to convince his countrymen that it is time to abandon the idea that the USSR is at war with the non socialist world and that it must keep the West at arms length I

Gorbachev's New Thinking and Third World Conflicts Jiří Valenta, Frank Cibulka, Some of the most crucial changes inspired by Gorbachev and perestroika concern Soviet and East European policies toward Third World countries Despite countless studies of Soviet U S relations and U S relations with the Third World the area of Soviet relations with the Third World has been left relatively undeveloped This is the first of several volumes intended to add to our knowledge of what the series editor Jiri Valenta characterizes as East South relations In this new era of cooperation and diplomacy the superpowers are working to resolve regional conflicts in and around Afghanistan Nicaragua Angola and Cambodia Such efforts are exceedingly complex since they necessarily involve not only the Soviet Union but Third World nations that may operate independently such as Cuba and Vietnam This volume addresses a number of such conflicts In addition to those already mentioned conflicts in Ethiopia Namibia and the Philippines are discussed and their implications for Western policy makers are reviewed As the contributors emphasize despite current Soviet emphasis on peaceful solutions to regional conflicts Gorbachev's New Thinking in foreign affairs is still decidedly selective In some cases the Soviet Union will actually encourage close ties with regional Third World powers as it has with India It is also too much to expect that the Soviet Union much less Cuba and Vietnam will completely cut ties to revolutionary allies worldwide That said the 1990s will undoubtedly be characterized by new Soviet foreign policy styles Their shape and form is the subject of this book It will be of immense interest to policymakers and researchers concerned about current developments in relations between the superpowers and with the Third World Contributors include Vernon Aspaturian Bhabani Sen Gupta William E Griffith Jerry F Hough Douglas Pike Howard Wiarda AH T Sheikh Sabahuddin Kushkaki Colin Legum H de V du Toit Khien Theeravit Frank Cibulka Alvaro Taboada Charles William Maynes W Bruce Weinrod Jiri Valenta
